Wilson Memorial High School
Fishersville, Virginia

Susan Brown studies hard at making her free throw. The girls showed much enthusiasm at giving their best in each game.

Women invade farming as Sharon Moyer interviews the new Agricultural Business class taught by Mr. McCoy.

Sitting at his usual library table is Mr. Leonard, our new senior English teacher. He avidly reads the Redskin news.

The set was a modern brick building, about five years old, located on the Woodrow Wilson Rehabilitation Post, approximately half-way between the cities of Staunton and Waynesboro, Virginia. The time was 1974-1975. "As The World Turned," Wilson turned on to a new year of the same series with several premiere appearances. Wilson turned over a different leaf to "Another World" of Girls' Basketball. The Drill Team proved to be a show which no one wanted to miss. Like "Joker's Wild," all students ran wild, including seniors, trying to figure out the updated schedule — seven periods instead of six periods. Mr. Gray, the new Athletic Director, was "Our Favorite Martian." Wilson really hit the "Jackpot" when we contracted Mr. Walton, Mr. Avoli, Mr. Grooms, Mr. Fitzgerald, and Mr. Snyder as the new coaches. The students were never in "Jeopardy" with the new teachers leading them onward every "Split Second." The "Amazing Chan" was represented by the new Boy Cheerleaders, who were "Making A Wish" that the Girls' Basketball team would win. The "WMHS Tennis Classic" featured girls and boys playing tennis together. This year started out as a year filled with suspense and excitement.

It has been a pleasure knowing you this year. You're going to be missed next year. I sincerely wish you all the best in the future — you have an excellent one — and I hope that your high school days will all be wonderful memories.
C. Hanger
Gray

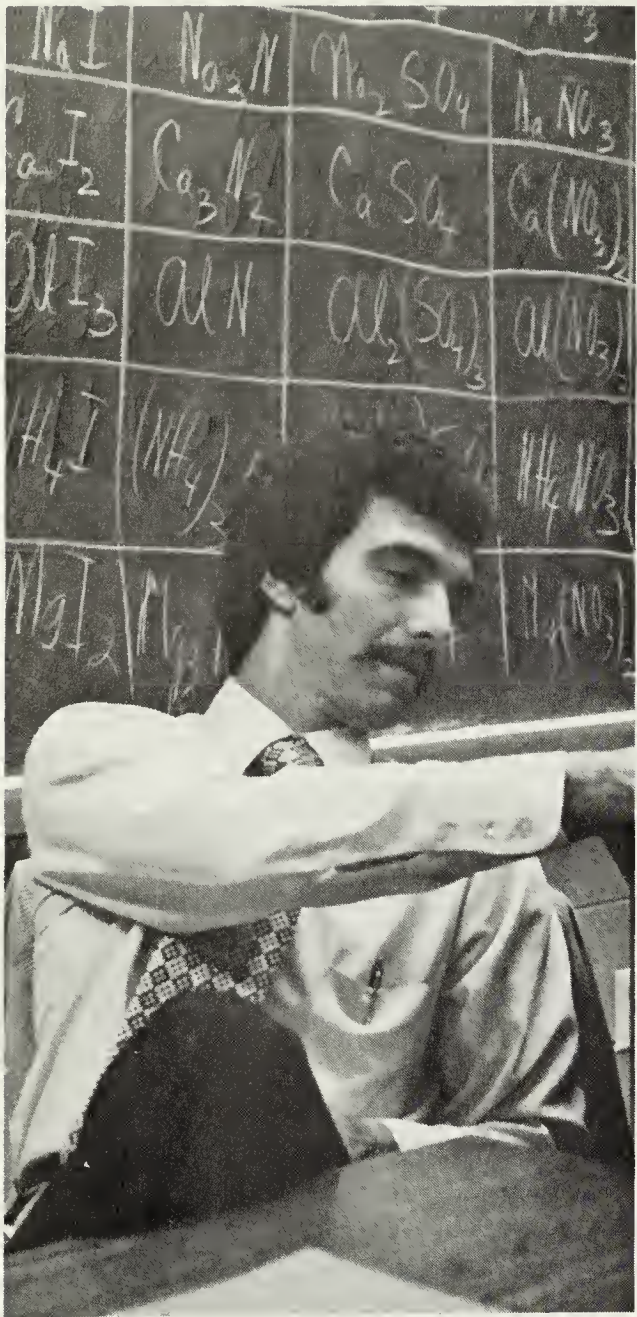

Mr. Gray tries mysterious hand movements to get his joke across. Mr. Fitzgerald tries to cover up his feelings about the humorous situation.

Mr. Walton stands in his usual stance studying his team. Coach Walton helped to change Wilson's spirit.

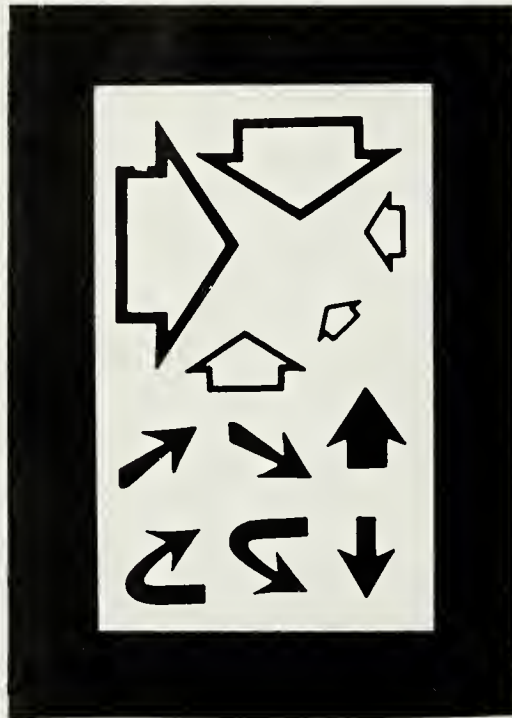

Giving our Girls' Basketball Team support, our Boy Cheerleaders brought us new pep.

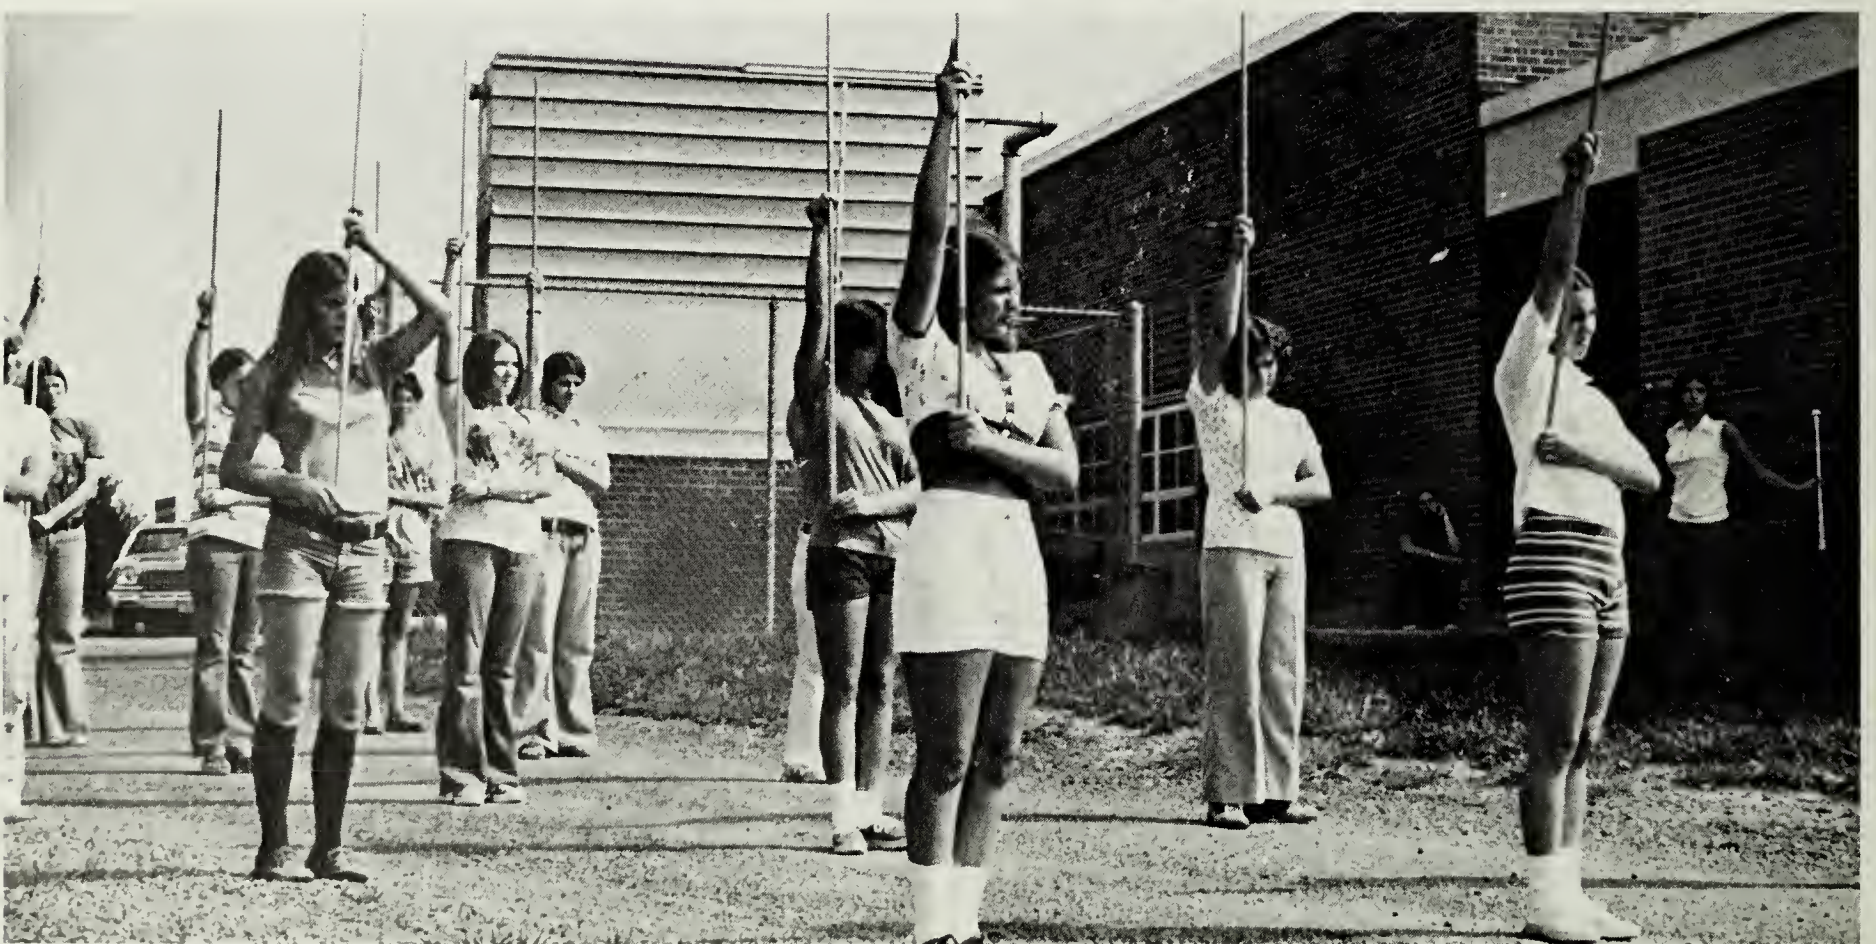

Making a return appearance to Wilson, Mr. Geiman shows his driver's license to prove his age.

Before the school year begins, the Drill Team works steadily to make each performance a success.

In all of our shows about Wilson Memorial High School, there was one aspect that stood out through everything we did. Throughout every show you could feel a closeness that was there and no one could take it away. We were a family. Wilson had become parents with over a thousand children. We loved each other and weren't afraid to show it. Of course there were times when we disagreed on different things, but somehow, somehow, we always remembered to keep Wilson proud of us. When we look back over the years, we can always say we played an important role at WMHS.

A new scene, boys and girls playing tennis together proves to be more competitive for both sexes.

“Untamed World”

How did you feel after a hard day's work at Wilson Memorial High School? I bet you couldn't wait for all that excitement out there in that “Untamed World.” Some students probably rushed home and raided the refrigerator. Others may have stayed after school or gone to their jobs.

Annette Roadcap, Greg Thompson, Annette Gochenour, Larry Mays, Terri Wheeler, and Yolanda Lisky seem to be in a hurry.

Linda Sorrells, Kelli Coffey, and Sally Veney can't hardly wait to get on their new bus. Some people shove and push while trying to get in line.

Not For Women Only

Most of our Sons and Daughters of Wilson Memorial High School arrived by buses. They casually boarded and unboarded buses every wonderful school day.

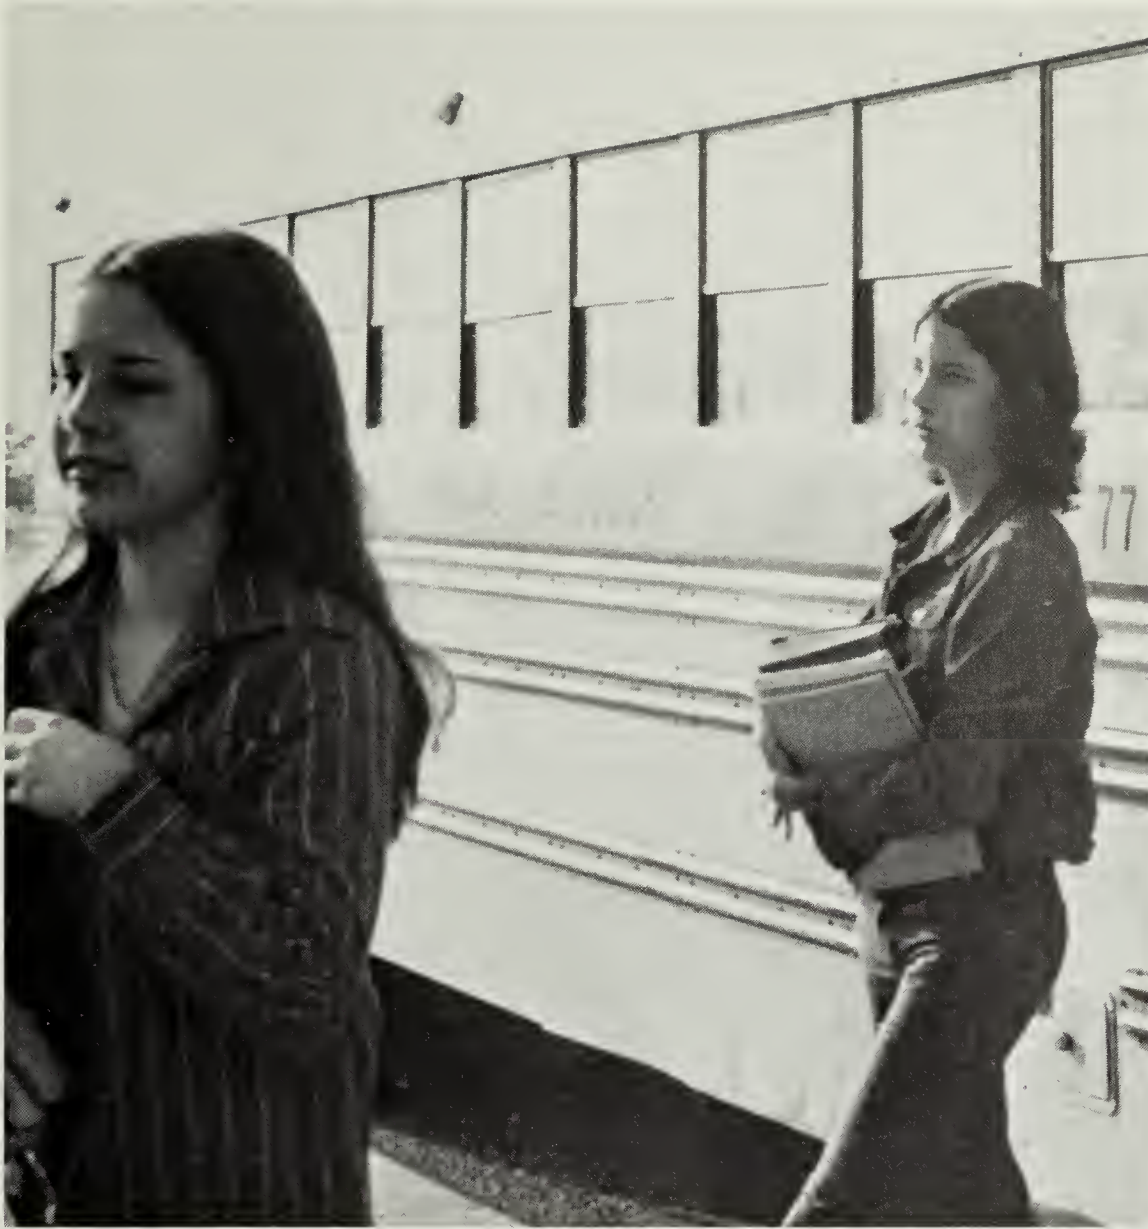

Lots of our students left their buses and went straight to the smoking room. It was located at the back of our school. Some of our Sons and Daughters enjoyed this activity a great deal.

The Sons and Daughters casually opened and closed hundreds of lockers every day. Some people slammed lockers shut, and others just took their good old time! Lockers provided a place for the precious books each student carried every day. It was also a place to get rid of those things at the end of a day.

When our afternoon activities were finished many kids waited for a late bus. When it arrived, people couldn't wait until they got home. Most all of our Sons and Daughters enjoyed the use of lockers, buses, and the smoking room during the year.

Scott Shaw walks hurriedly away from the bus, while Teresa Johnson looks away.

Bobbie Huggard and Myra Bibb are getting off their usual bus 77. Every day this bus travels the same route and picks up the same kids.

Jeff Salmon searches his locker for his script for the day. But the question is, where did he put it?

Debbie Brown, Mike Crane, Gary Bryant, and Patty Thompson socialize at the Student Smoking Area behind the school.

"Happy Days"

The television family of Wilson Memorial High School went all out during the Homecoming Week. The girls of our family wore pony tails, white bobbie socks, and long skirts to set off our "Happy Days." Our famous cheerleaders put on a great 50's act for our family. The fans really went wild.

On Clash Day everybody dressed really way out. We had our family wearing stripes, polk-a-dots, and every color under the sun.

What really set off our week were the crazy socks. They came in all shades of colors. The stars wore the crazy looking things with rolled up blue jeans. Our whole family of stars got together and really showed their spirit for our team. We yelled and clapped for our great team's victory, during the "Happy Days" of Homecoming Week.

Maria Wade, Terry Hoffman, Mildred Washington, and Bennie Washington are showing their spirit for our team's win.

The Bonfire really helps to give people spirit and brings out our cheerleaders.

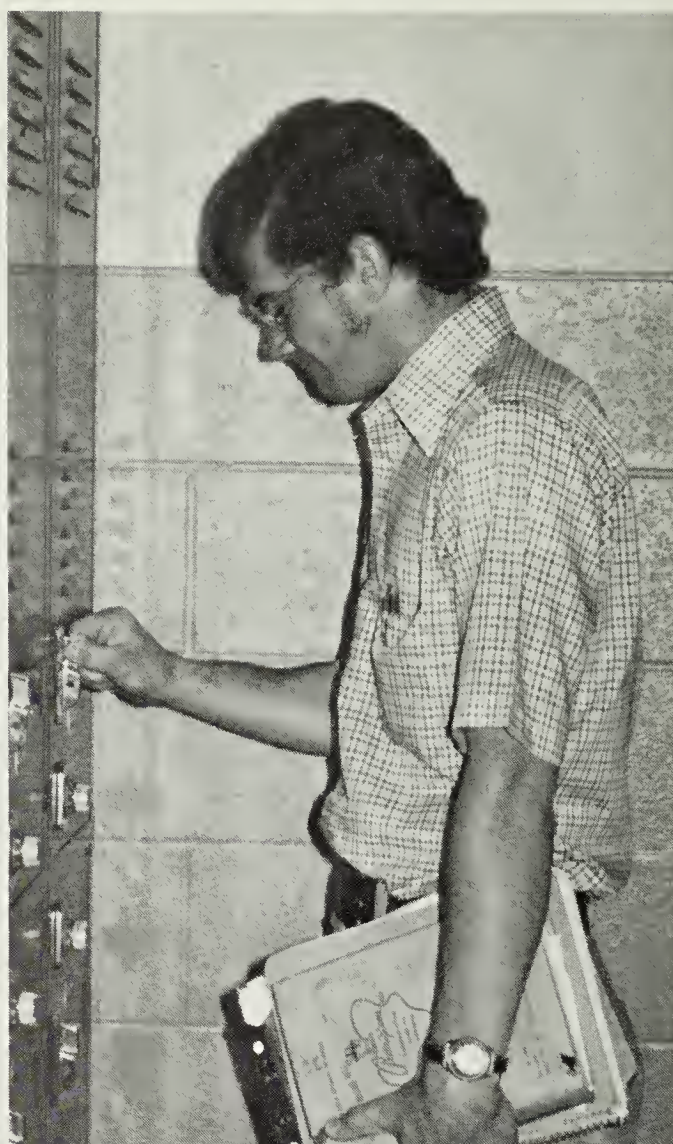

Scott Crickenberger, Penny Bashlor, and Sue DeLong like the 50's look.

Sandra Allen really seems to know the right way to dress on Clash Day.

"Guess who these crazy looking legs belong to?" "Almost everybody wears white socks and sneakers. Don't you know that?"

Kevin Moomau finds nothing is more irritating than a stubborn locker that refuses to open when you need it.

When the 3 o'clock bell rings the rush begins. Students fly out the door to their bus and freedom at last.

One ordinary school morning darkness fell suddenly. Fortunately everyone remained calm and the lights returned soon.

"EMERGENCY!"

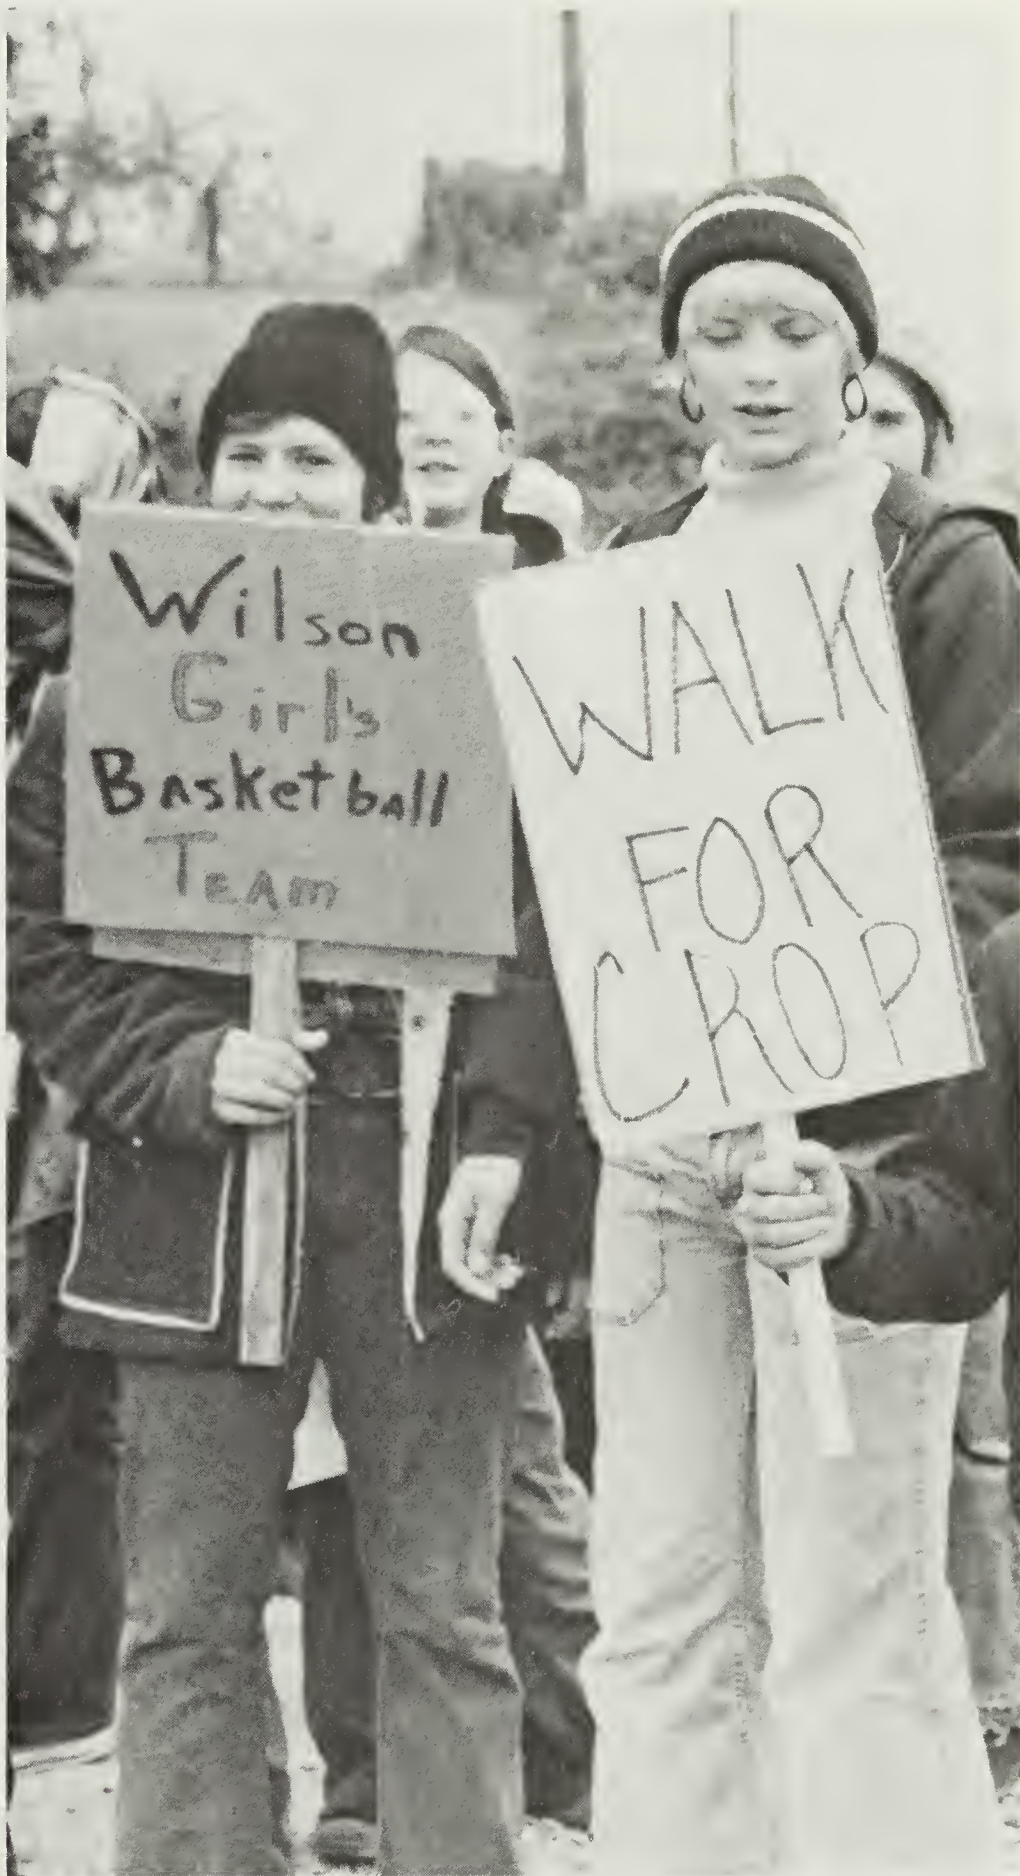

Wilson's versions of "Emergency" lacked sirens and paramedics, but included the blast of fire drill horns and the ring of bells. Stamping feet, a hushed quiet that built into laughter, and slamming doors always followed these signals.

Minor emergencies happened daily. The lockers that stuck, the books that dropped, the desks that fell over, and the quick trips to the restroom were a few. However, the 3:00 bell brought a surge of adrenalin into the bodies of all, as they formed a human wave to get to their buses.

Fire drills frequented the "Emergency" series. The most exciting one, which lasted for 45 minutes, occurred at the beginning of the year. As usual, the cast performed with ease and calm.

One Tuesday morning show depicted the story of a thousand students trapped by a total blackout. A transformer breakdown put the entire post in darkness for 20 minutes. Flashlights were found, but few had batteries. The situation was alleviated in those rooms with windows, but for the inner rooms things looked pretty dim.

Another emergency show entitled "Help CROP Stop Hunger," aired in October. Wilson stars helped by making a sponsored walk of 6 miles from Fishersville to Waynesboro, in the snow.

It's a cold, snowy, Saturday morning in October. While many folks stay home in a warm bed, Cindy Baldwin, Melinda Lucas, and June East walk for CROP to help raise money to stop hunger.

Thank goodness it wasn't real! Sue Delong and Heidi Landau seem to have their own opinions about fire drills.

"The Homecoming"

The script for the Homecoming 74 Show zoomed into action with a burst of spirit from the student body. After the Bonfire Thursday night you could find many students being entertained by the Junior and Senior girls as they battled it out in the powderpuff game. The winning touchdown, made by Senior Roxie Taylor, put the final score at 6-0.

Students gathered at the field again Friday night backing up those mighty Green Hornets as they faced Natural Bridge. During halftime, entertainment included performances by the band, drill team, and majorettes.

The Homecoming court was presented, and the announcement everyone had been waiting for was made at last. The 1974 Homecoming King and Queen were Rusty Baber and Elizabeth Boggs. The night was finally completed by another Hornet victory of 35-0.

Saturday night excitement mounted as time for the Carnival drew near. The main attraction was a group called Barnstorm. While many couples danced, others could be found talking or having refreshments. When the night ended, students returned home to reflect back on a script which proved to be an award winning success.

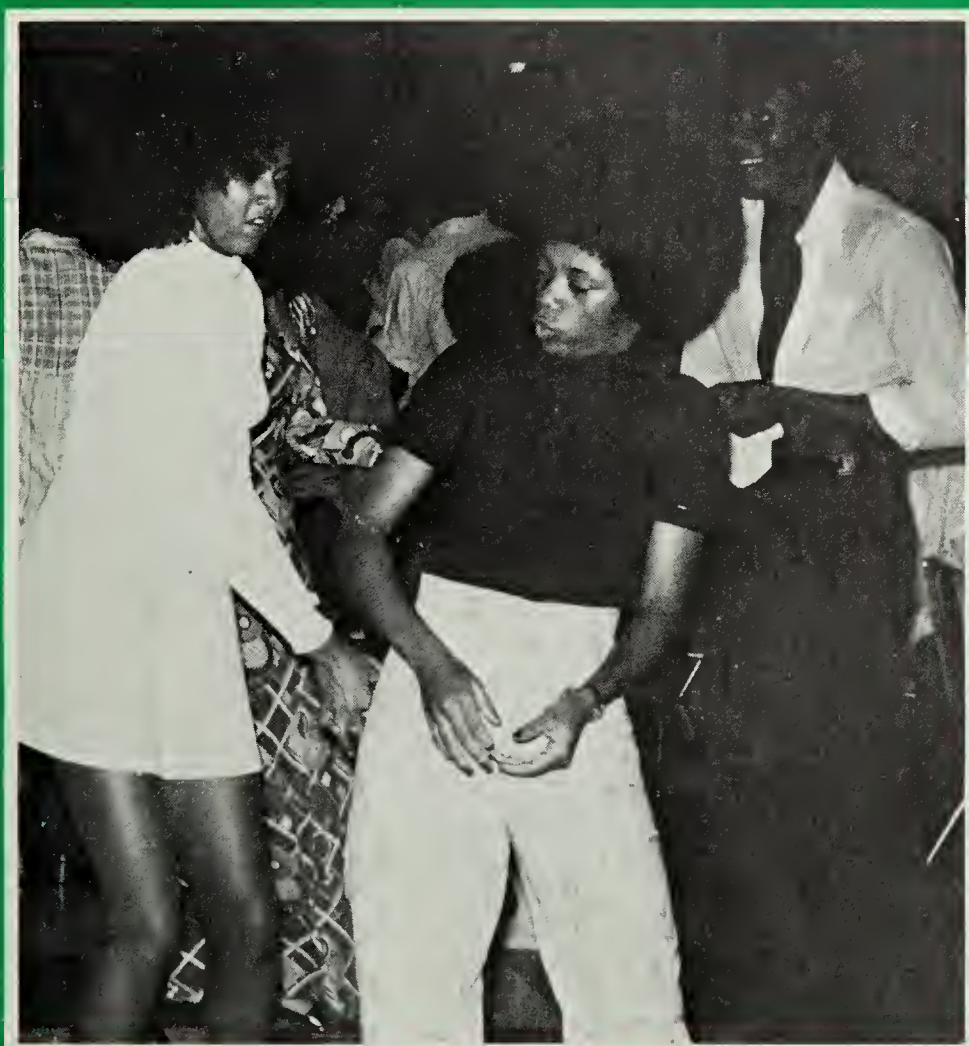

Principal Ed Clymore crowns a radiant Elizabeth Boggs, while Rusty Baber smiles his surprise. Rusty and Elizabeth starred in the 74-75 Homecoming court as King and Queen.

Karen Siron, Steve Kyle, Jimmy Shaw, Jill Stone, and Sharon Moyer dreamily dance at the Homecoming Dance.

Jiving to the sound of Barnstorm are Vickie McCauley, Maria Wade, and Virgil Spears.

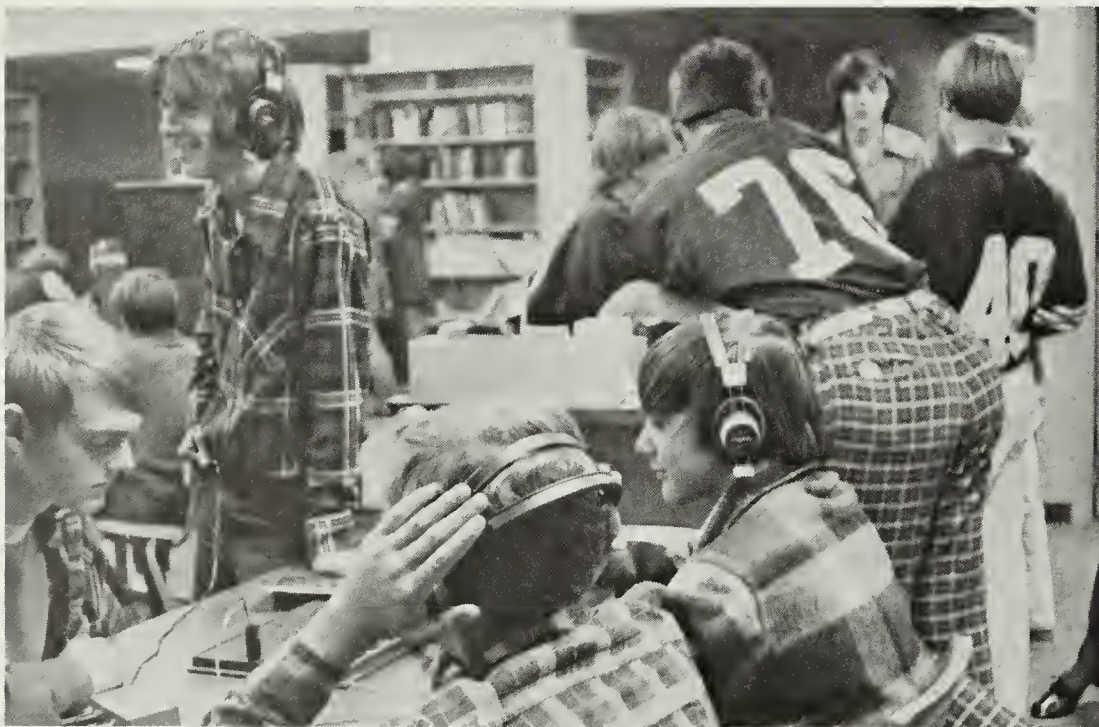

Martha McChesney and escort, Mark Dofflemyer, enjoy dancing to the music of Barnstorm at the Homecoming Dance.

During lunch, Steve Wimer and Ricky Bryant enjoy a talk and a long awaited smoke.

Quinny Dofflemyer and Ray Eavey exchange jokes outside the Smoking Hall doors.

"Cheech and Chong" bring laughter to Tim Snyder, John Trainum, and Randy Fink, while Kemper Patterson watches the wheels turn during lunch break.

Bending over the fountain, Gary Via sips cool refreshing water after a pizza lunch.

Phyllis Coker sips "Shenandoah's Pride" in the fun filled cafeteria.

"New Zoo Revue"

As time for the bell to ring draws closer, students get restless and a few muffled growls from hungry stomachs can be heard. Thank goodness for lunch time, that part of the day which always seems to break the monotony of classes. When the bell finally does ring, doors are flung open and students race to dump their books, and take advantage of their free time. Most can be found heading for the cafeteria to get in line for a hot lunch. Trays come out loaded with pizza, hamburgers, hot dogs, milk and other good things. After they've eaten some head out for the smoking room to socialize and have a cigarette. Others head for the Media Center to talk with friends, study, or listen to music with the headphones. At last, in what seems all too short a time, the bell rings again and students return to classes.

Day dreaming in the Media Center is a favorite pastime of Melissa, Tina, and Pam.

Tammi Meadows entertains at the Eighth Grade lunch table.

"Hee Haw"

The Wayside Theatre came to our school and performed several Folk Tales. Students such as Virgil Spears and Lynn Lowry were called on stage. Everyone seemed to have enjoyed the funny Folk Tales.

TOP LEFT: Lynn Lowry seems to be listening to a member of the Wayside Theatre Folk Tales.

BOTTOM: Lynn Lowry is trying to hit a member of the Wayside Theatre with an invisible hammer. Would you like to try?

Majorette Lynn Doyle skillfully demonstrates one of her teams' new white glove routines to the music of "Hawaii Five-O Show" on T.V.

William Rudd, Sam Ramsey, and Marion Humphrey actors from Miss Lewis' 7th period Speech and Drama Class are performing a funny skit of "The Night Before Christmas," at the last Assembly of 1974 in the auditorium at Wilson Memorial.

The Christmas Assembly proved to be a big success with everyone. We had music by the Choral, Singing Sergeants, and Band. The Drama Class and majorettes also gave us some entertainment. We even had a surprise with a fat Santa Claus.

Beth Orr as Mrs. Claus tries to persuade Mr. Claus, who is Don Curtis, into trading his sleigh in for a new model such as a Volkswagen.

Under the direction of Mr. Tate, the Singing Sergeants and the Mixed Chorus, sing songs to get everyone into the Christmas spirit.

"A Charlie Brown Christmas"

It was "A Charlie Brown Christmas" this year at station WMHS. The Christmas special was produced and directed by the Keyettes. Guest stars were Wheatstone Bridge, who provided the background music. The Wilson Memorial Student Body dancers performed. The set was decorated with Charlie Brown characters, candy canes, and mistletoe. The Christmas special was the most popular show of the season.

Kathy Gorsuch, Richard Moyer, Sharon Fitzgerald, and Sharon Moyer take a break from dancing. Jimmy Shaw seems to be noticing something more interesting.

Dale Braxton gets some cookies after being served punch by Karen Wiseman, and Patsey Allen. Mr. Newton is one of the teachers acting as chaperon of the dance.

Garry Via enjoys dancing to the fantastic music of Wheatstone Bridge. Jeff Bradley seems to be having great fun.

This beautiful bulletin board in Mr. Avolis' room features candles with holly and candy canes.

When entering the office near Christmas time what first attracts your eye? The beautiful floral arrangement with lovely snowy-white doves.

Miss Duttons' homeroom creates a charming bulletin board using Santa Claus, a burning fireplace, and a Christmas tree.

The Band and Music Departments of Wilson Memorial High School performed an excellent Christmas Concert. Such songs as "The Night Before Christmas" and "White Christmas" were enjoyed by all. Our school also had several bulletin boards decorated for Christmas.

TOP: The band members seem to be really into the Christmas spirit mood.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Mr. Mizer looks as if he is enjoying leading the band. The band performs several Christmas songs which seems to put everyone into the spirit of Christmas. The band members really seem to know the songs people like. The concert is a great success by everyone's opinion.

"The Christmas Scene At Wilson Memorial"

"Now You See It"

Even in today's fast, changing world of fashions, Wilson students managed to keep up with it all. As you walked down the halls at school, you could find many variations in dress. Smart-looking cuffed pants with sweaters and blouses were often worn by the girls. The shirt or sweater with the hood on it was very much in style. While many coats seemed to be of midi-length, the dresses remained short for the most part. Hair styles were neither long or short, but a mixture of both. Nice-looking cuffed pants were also in style for the boys. Shirts with embroidered or quilted designs on them were very popular. Many shirts even had ivory snaps on them. Flannel shirts were worn by everyone during the winter months. Of course the thing that everyone came back to was the ever-faithful jeans we all love.

Relaxing in their jeans are David Johns, Alice Hailey, Anita Braden, Debbie Rosser, Sara Flintom, Tom Jones, and Tim Knebel.

Right in style in her cuffed pants and striped sweater, Julia Mietus prepares for class.

Quilted or embroidered shirts, like the one Doug Conyers is wearing, are popular.

The "in" thing for your car to model this year seems to be one of the new Wilson Hornets' license plates.

The hooded sweater, and plaid skirt Beth Orr is wearing are very much in style.

Tom Holiday, Anne Holiday, Ricky Womble, and Laura Womble stop at Caravan for some refreshment after the Wilson-James River game.

Working at the Caravan takes up much of Mark Sensabaugh's time.

Dale Snyder, Alice Hailey, Sue DeLong, and Joellen Holsinger battle it out in the snow.

Members of the Drill Team's pastime includes learning a new drill.

Pastime Show

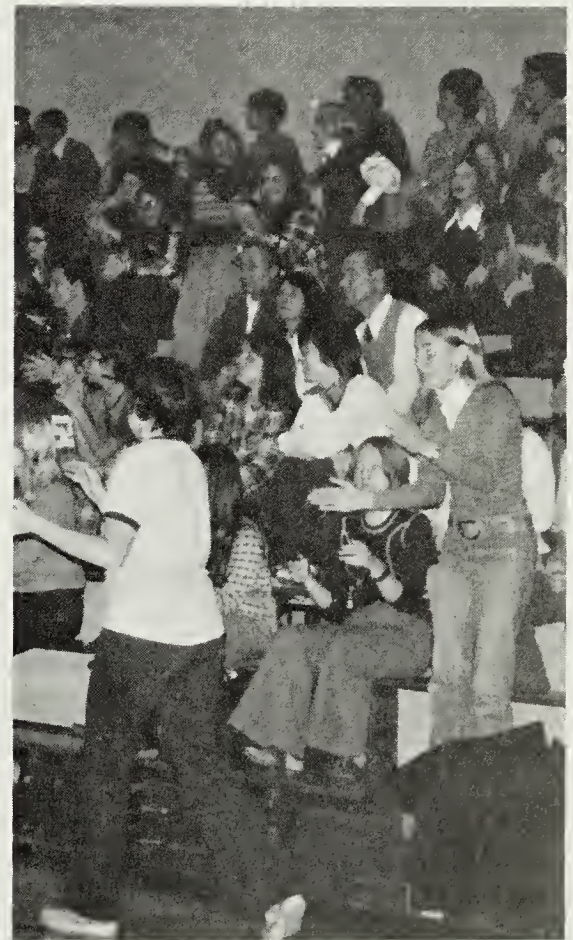

"Born Free"

Students used their spare time in a great number of ways. Some figured that they could use a little extra money, so many had jobs to go to. Bonanza, McDonalds, service stations and local department stores are just a few of the places that employed Wilson students. Seniors with jobs were often required to only go to school half a day.

Other students were busily engaged in sports. After school practices with the basketball, football, or track teams took up lots of time.

On Friday or Tuesday nights many of the Hornets could be found swarming in the stands supporting their team. After the game lots of students went to the Caravan for something to eat and to socialize.

Many students loafed around the house watching TV and listening to music. Of course everyone had their own special thing to do with motorcycles, while others rode their horses. Some enjoyed quiet walks, and others just liked to cruise the town. Boyfriends or girlfriends kept many occupied. No matter how much time they had, students were kept occupied.

As if students don't have enough to do, they observe a faculty "playtime."

Cyclist, Darrell Ruppel, exhibits his pastime as he airboms his cycle past that all important finish line.

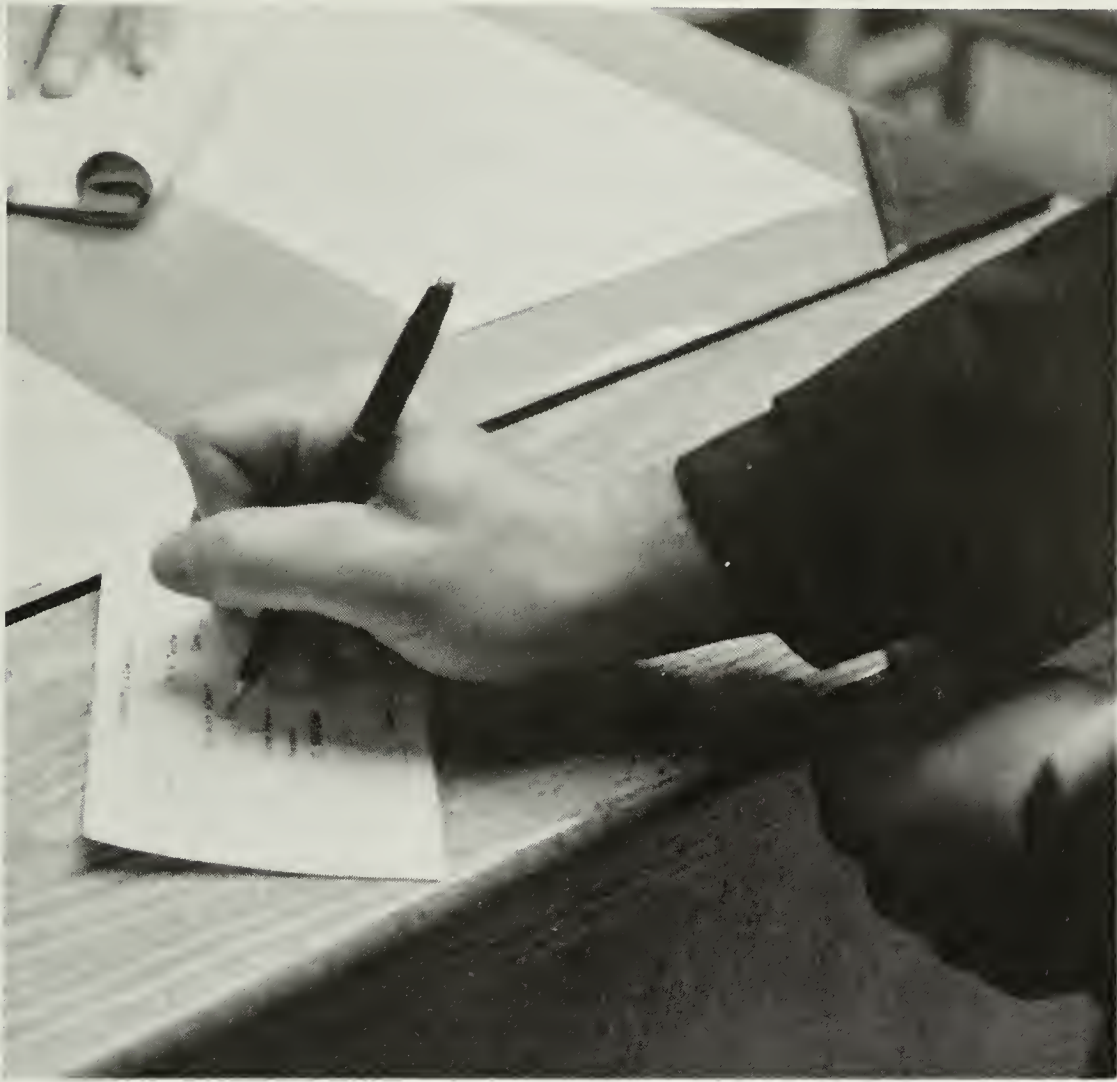

News broadcasters for station WMHS — Mitzi Roadcap and Ed Clymore.

WMHS "Morning News"

The WMHS "Morning News" aired every morning of the school year. Starting time for the show was approximately 7:30 a.m. with the arrival of the secretaries, custodians and administrators. Featured on the series each day was the ritual flag raising, reporting of the daily attendance, signing of the absentee passes, and morning announcements over the intercom. The purpose of the "Morning News" was to officially begin the day, and to inform students of recent and future activities.

Steve Bagby arrives at station WMHS to begin his morning chores.

An unknown hand signs his life away on an absentee pass.

Performing the ritual flag raising is Doug Altizer.

Good luck to a great girl. Stay sweet and out of trouble. I wish you alot of success. KEEP-IT-TOUCH- Jan

Kriste, Jean, Cynthia, and Frank Fleming cheer the girls team to another basketball victory.

Kriste, Sharon, Jan, Jill, and Karen decorate the football bus for a big game at Fort Defiance.

Cheerleaders Exhibit "Spirit, Wilson Style"

Our own Henry Hornet, alias Jimmy Jordan, not only helped raise much spirit but also many eyebrows at football games both home and away.

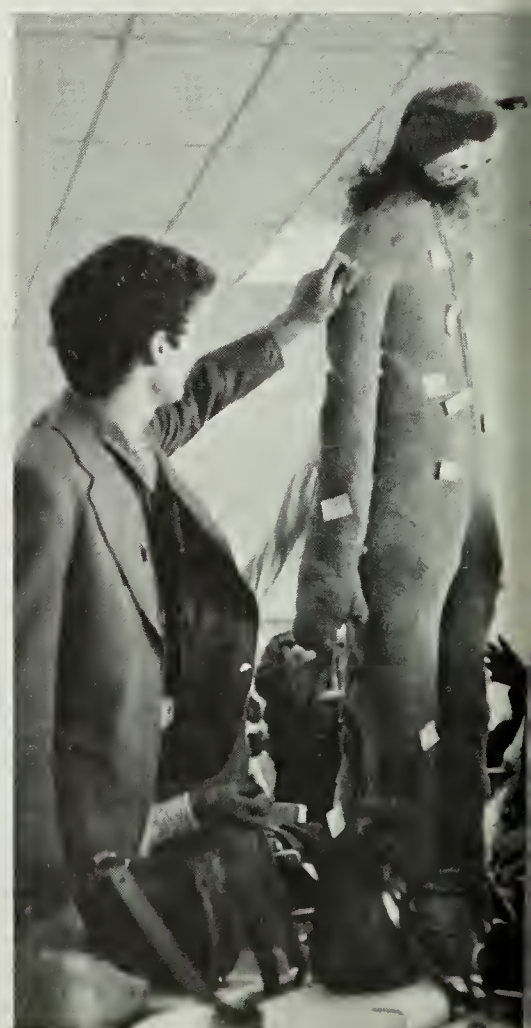

Cynthia, Melinda, Robbie Bashlor, and Joellen tell the Girls' Basketball Team they are doing a "SUPA" job as they defeat Buffalo Gap.

Alternate, Karen Siron, experiences the excitement and fun of being a cheerleader at a home game.

Kriste and Beth busily stuff a cougar outfit for fans to "stick" in order to show their spirit.

Many fans along with basketball player, Doug Conyers, experienced the thrill and excitement of sticking a stuffed cougar on a game day, as a spirit-raising project sponsored by the Varsity Cheerleaders.

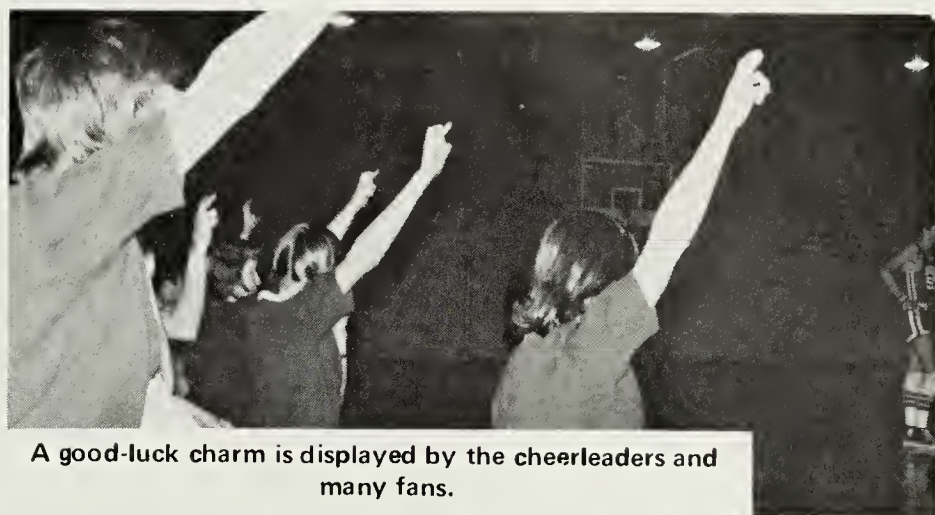

Best of luck to a great friend. Remember all the fun times we traveled at Wilson. Have fun next year at what ever you do and hope to see you after graduation. Be good. Cynthia

Four NEW PEOPLE were added to the Varsity Cheerleading squad and they became instant stars along with the rest of the group. The NEWCOMERS included Kriste Hershey, Sharon Fitzgerald, Karen Siron, and Jill Stone who joined Joellen Holsinger, Jean Wiseman, Jan Stone, Cynthia Miller, and Melinda Altizer in bringing spirit and enthusiasm to many Wilson students. Melinda and Jan were chosen as co-captains and Mrs. Marcy Baker directed this crew in a year of success. There were many HAPPY DAYS in the girls' lives as they participated in cheerleading activities. The squad started the year off right by going to camp at Randolph Macon College in Lynchburg. They walked away with top awards and some new and rare cheers. The fans responded excitedly and screamed to such cheers as "Soopa, Soopa" and "You Bit Off More Than You Can Chew Cause Your Eyes Are Too Big For Your Tummy Too."

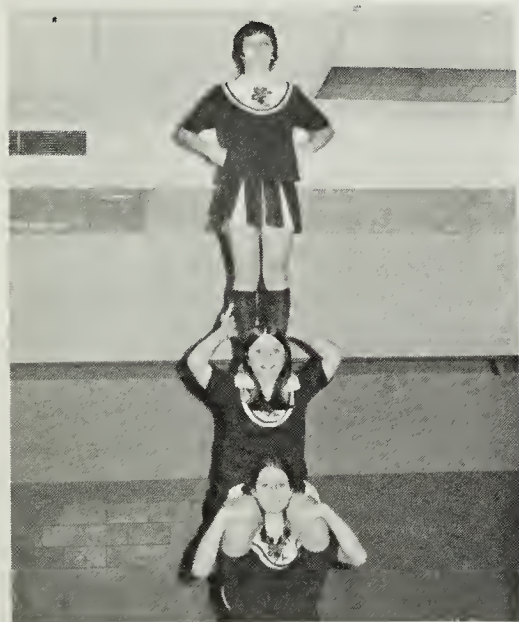

The Cheerleaders also gave some grand performances at the Football games, Girls' Basketball games and Boys' Basketball games. They could also be seen at Cross-Country meets supporting the guys and girls, staying after school, painting posters, decorating the football bus, decorating the field and gym. At times you might have caught them sneaking around putting rare objects in the athletes' lockers. The girls worked hard and put in many painstaking hours of practice, but they truly accomplished their part of this series at WMHS.

A good-luck charm is displayed by the cheerleaders and many fans.

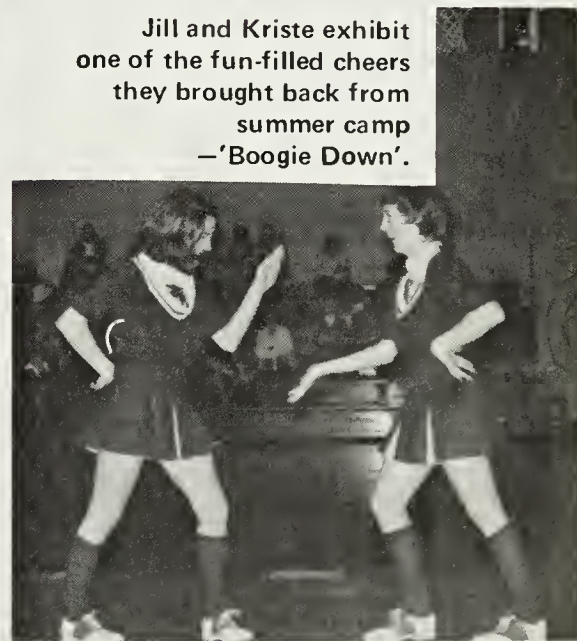

It's a Wilson "memorial." Jan, Sharon, and Kriste show their feelings at Wilson by building their own monument.

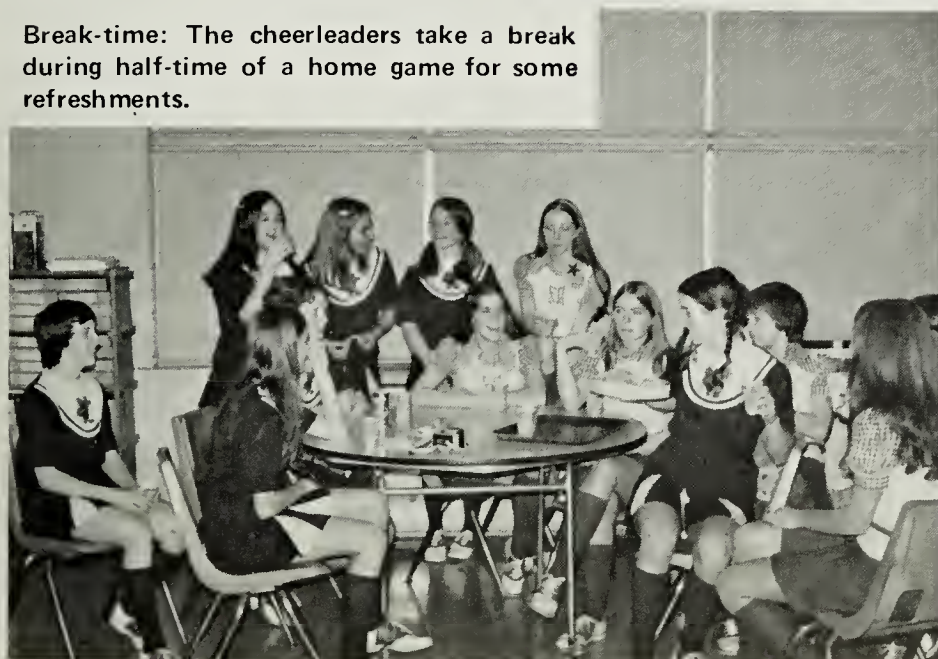

Cheerleading and clapping to one of the many get-up-and-go cheers are Karen, Jill, and Joellen.

Jill and Kriste exhibit one of the fun-filled cheers they brought back from summer camp — 'Boogie Down'.

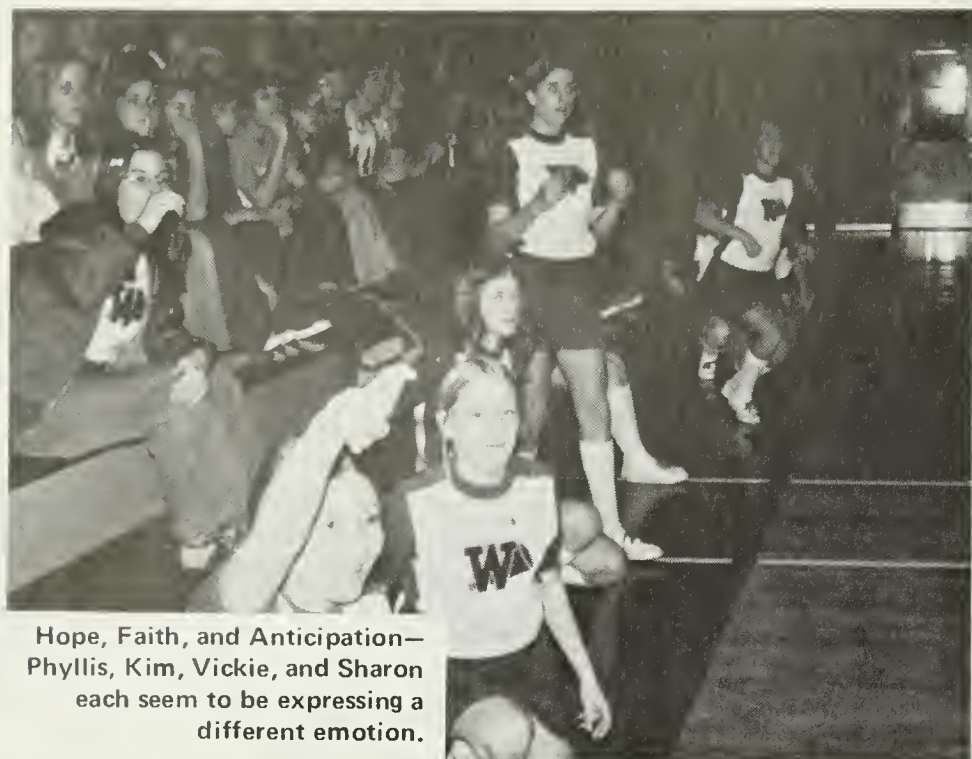

Break-time: The cheerleaders take a break during half-time of a home game for some refreshments.

Beth bounces high to arouse spirit within our many fans.

Hope, Faith, and Anticipation—Phyllis, Kim, Vickie, and Sharon each seem to be expressing a different emotion.

"Heck yes", Hornets are the best! Melinda and Vickie display their opinion openly.

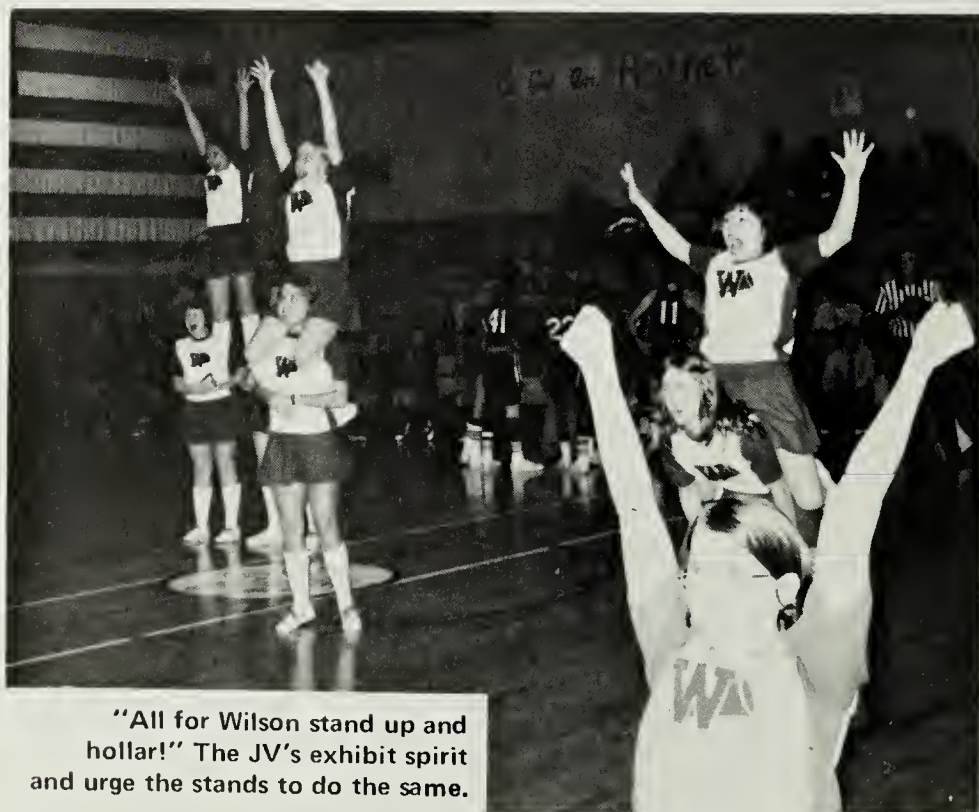

The JV cheerleaders include Sharon Moyer, Kim Snyder, Beth Mawyer, Kathy Gorsuch, Lori Pederson, Debbie Via, Melinda Lucas, Phyllis Coker, Cindy Powell, and Vickie Baber.

In the '74-'75 season Wilson made a good deal when they signed the JV Cheerleaders. The highly spirited Ninth and Tenth graders came to be "Something Special" in the eyes of many fans both during Football and Basketball season. Melinda Lucas and Kathy Gorsuch were chosen co-captains, and Mrs. Phyllis Gordon gave this crew much advice as their sponsor. The squad went to Cheerleading Camp during the summer and learned new and original stunts and cheers. When they returned home they worked long hours making sure their arms were straight and their voices were low. When they appeared in front of a crowd many members of the audience were "Bewitched" by their performances.

Stuntmen, Cheerleaders "Focus On Spirit"

Caught in the middle of a cheer, Kim and Debbie are frozen in identical poses.

"All for Wilson stand up and hollar!" The JV's exhibit spirit and urge the stands to do the same.

"Victory for the Hornets" is what everyone wants for Wilson but these 8th Grade Cheerleaders are out to express it their own way.

What will be the next cheer? seems to be the question on the minds of Ann, Tammi, Karen, Christie and Jenny.

The Eighth Grade Cheerleaders were a big success this year as they entered not only a new school, but also a brand new phase of the athletic program. They were Loree Coffey, Linda McDaniel, Christie Snyder, Nancy Wright, Ann Perkins, Diane Austin, Tammy Rowzie, Jenny Rutherford, Tammi Meadows, and Karin Hershey. Their sponsor was Karen Puffenberger.

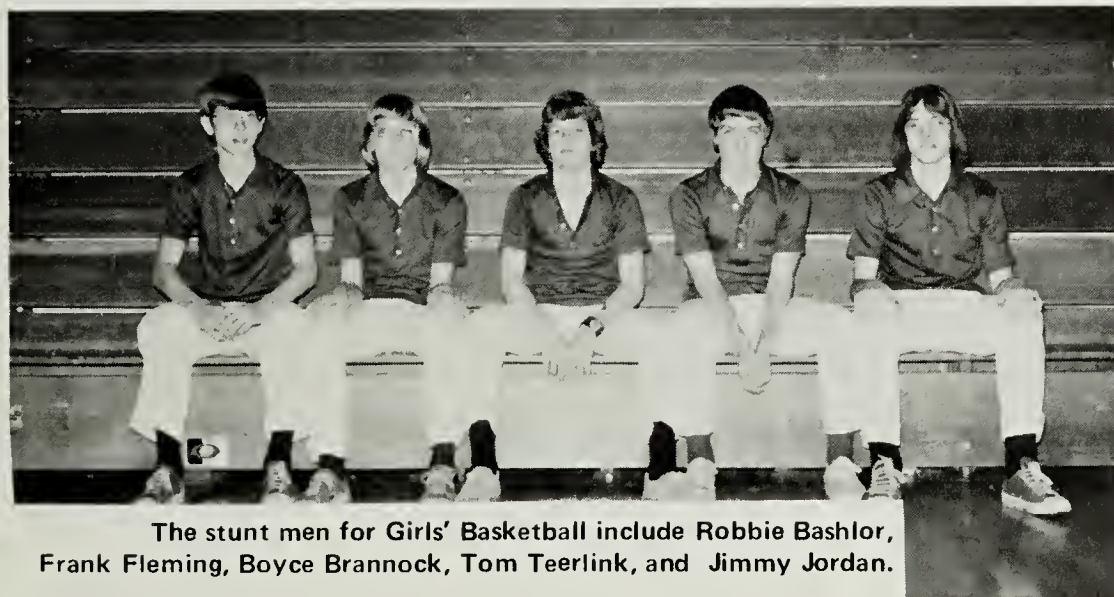

8th Grade Cheerleaders "Make A Wish" that the ball will go in.

Yelling their hardest are Lori, Linda, Nancy, Christie, and Ann as they lead the mighty 8th grade to another victory.

As many Emmy-winning TV productions have "Stunt" men, Wilson had five of their own during Girls' Basketball season. They could be seen out on the floor with the Cheerleaders helping them do stunts. They too deserved an Emmy award for best "supporting" actors.

The stunt men for Girls' Basketball include Robbie Bashlor, Frank Fleming, Boyce Brannock, Tom Teerlink, and Jimmy Jordan.

Exhibiting the use of stunt men, these JV Cheerleaders do their thing with Tom, Boyce, and Robbie.

It's A "Family Affair!" Varsity Football at Wilson Memorial In 1974 was the Beginning of a New Era

It was August 10, 1974. The day was just beginning as was a whole new era of football at Wilson Memorial. Three new coaches stood face to face with fifty boys. Some with talent, a couple that were sort of clumsy, and a few who had never played the game of football. Three men, Bob Walton, Jim Grooms, and John Avoli had the task of transforming those fifty clugs into a winning football team and equally important, into men.

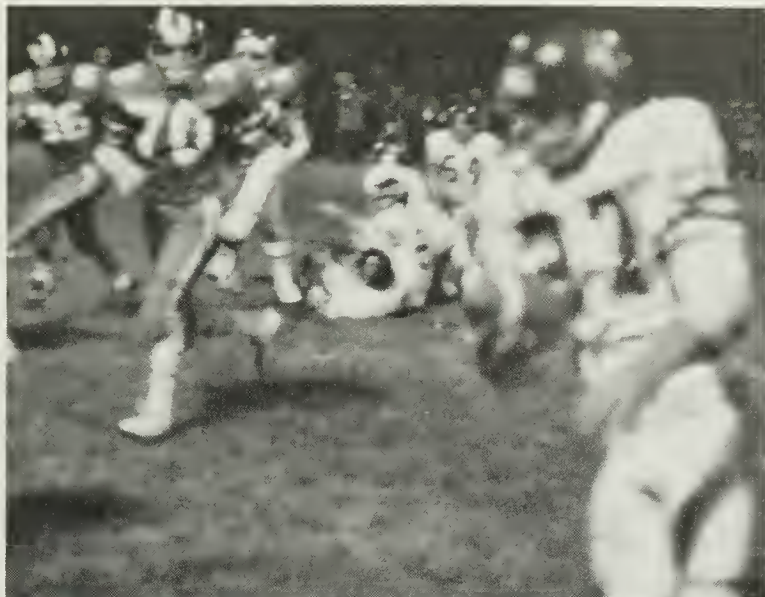

Football was a whole new process at Wilson in '74 with the switch-over to a new type of exercising, to new drills, and new offensive and defensive sets. More essential to the success of the team was the new attitude, the wanting, the longing, and the burning desire to be champions. There were no Larry Csonkas, O. J. Simpsons or Carl Ellers in the bunch, but as the season progressed there was something much more important . . . desire. Desire is the quality which by reason of its intensity always characterizes the true champion and even enables men of otherwise modest, natural talent to rise to a peak of achievement.

Varsity Football coaches Bob Walton, Jim (Weasal) Grooms, and John Avoli. Is it actually possible that from time to time these gentle and kind looking men could be seen with "Temperatures Rising."

FIRST ROW: Bill Wiseman, Micky Brown, Derek McDaniels, Quinny Dofflemeyer, Phil Showers, Richard Baldwin, Danny Wheeler, Rod Gray, Terry Henderson, David Lilly, SECOND ROW: Steve Kyle, Tommy Burns, Kenny Fisher, Dale Snyder, Rusty Baber, Jeff Beard, Gary Snyder, Time Bower, Scott Crickenburger, Steve Carico, Coach Walton, THIRD ROW: Tony Tyler, Dubby Stansberry, Mitch Wiseman, Tony Houffman, Ron Beard, Richard Moyer, Tony Hiles, Jay VanArsdale, Robby Cale, Bruce Hull, Coach Grooms, FOURTH ROW: Larry Hoover, Kenton Bower, Lynn Bowery, Bill Tillman, Lynwood Johnson, Virgil Spears, Theodore Washington, Irby Crissman, David Conlon, Coach Avoli.

In the classic with Riverheads, Richard Baldwin tries to turn the corner as Jeff Beard gives help.

In a county rivalry with Riverheads, Micky Brown receives much needed help from Tony Tyler and Larry Hoover. The Gladiators won the thriller 10-0.

Dedications . . .

Super!

In the 1974 Season, dedicating a game seemed to bring exceptionally good luck to the Green Hornets. First, when the Hornets 'clashed with the Natural Bridge cagers, having the game dedicated to Mitch Frazier, who was ill, the Hornets overwhelmed the Rockets 35-0. Then with the Fort Defiance game dedicated to Coach Grooms and Principal, Ed Clymore, both of whom came to Wilson from Fort, the mighty Hornets defeated the Indians 34-6. And the final game versus Rockbridge was dedicated to Coach Walton and was decisively won 28-0. Every member of the Wilson squad put forth an extra effort to whip Rockbridge to thank Coach Walton for turning the players and students of Wilson into "winners."

This little ball sure does draw a lot of attention . . . thinks Gary Snyder. Snyder has a long gain on his patented split-end reverse.

Some guys get all the glory! Having the game dedicated to Coach Grooms the Hornets defeated Fort Defiance 34-6.

Head down, Foot Forward says Tony Hoffman to himself. Although this 40 yard field goal attempt failed, Hoffman added many valuable extra points.

Hornets Fourth In New District

In the fall of '74 Wilson Memorial was placed in a new district. The Alleghany-Highlands District was made so the county teams could participate with schools of equal enrollment. In the past the Hornets were required to play larger city schools where the sports programs were more sophisticated. The Hornets did, however, compete with two of its past opponents. First with Waynesboro and later with Turner Ashby. Both games were lost but by a small margin. In district play, the Hornets sported a 5-3 record giving them possession of fourth place.

"I'd rather do it myself." Derek McDaniel scoops this loose ball up in a defensive battle at Waynesboro. This was the season opener and was won by Waynesboro 13-0.

One of the crucial grabs of the game against Fort Defiance, Gary Snyder strains for a Derek McDaniel pass. This was one of many excellent plays by Snyder for the Hornets.

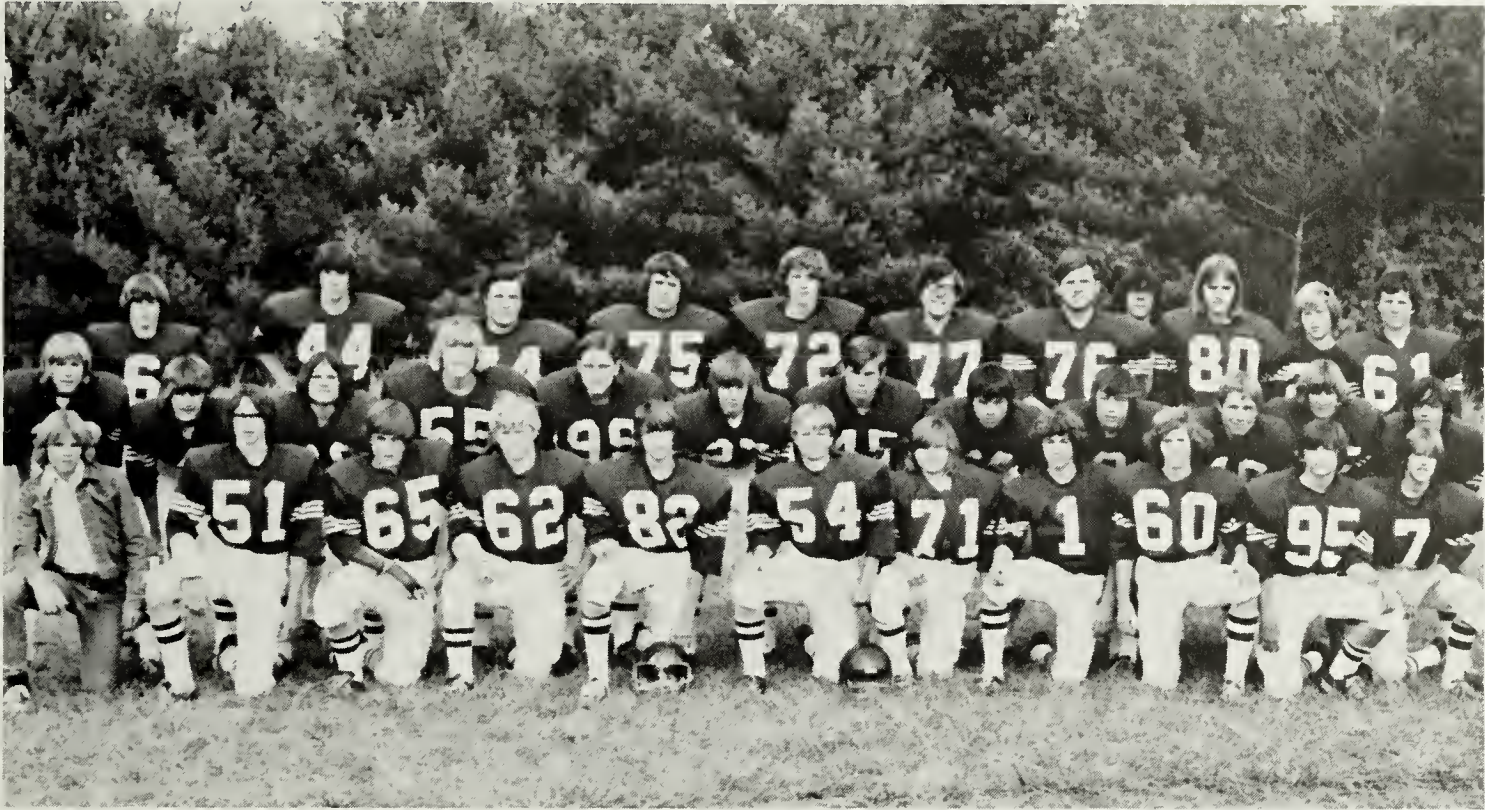

Catch the ball, then run. Are these Richard Baldwin's thoughts? A custom before each game was a special prayer for help and guidance.

Cross-Country Team Sports Winning Record

What runs through your minds when you see someone run for over two miles up, down and around hills just to beat someone? Or yet, what runs through the mind of the Cross-Country runner? No matter what it is, Wilson should be glad that its Cross-Country members have it. It takes a tremendous amount of will power and desire to be a distance runner. It's not easy to run ten miles a day in practice. You've got to have that special thing called desire. Coach Arnold Fitzgerald deserves much credit for being out there with the boys no matter what the weather was. It took a lot of practice with wobbly legs and not so stable stomachs. But if you were to ask any athlete—was it worth it—the answer would surely be positive.

1ST ROW: T. Cash, C. Baber, N. Meitus, J. Wertman, D. Thompson, M. Altizer. 2ND ROW: R. Houser, S. Troxell, R. Reynolds, A. Parr, W. Altizer, J. Quesenbery, M. Wertman. 3RD ROW: B. Coffey, B. Johnson, D. Conyers, D. Menefee, I. Whitley, D. Altizer, B. Wilkens, T. Hoffman. BACK: T. Dixon.

Members of the Cross-Country loosen up informally for a meet with Fort Defiance.

Ricky Reynolds depicts the pain endured by an athlete.

With flushed face, Doug Conyers rambles over the 2.8 mile long scenic Cross-Country course.

Is it worth it? Ivan Whitley takes first place at the SMA meet.

Indoor Track Team "Run for Their Lives."

This year the Indoor Track Season started with several new things. There were new track coaches, with John Avoli and Steve Geiman. There was an overly large crowd to turn out for the first practice. The team had to run in several snows, high winds, mud, and rain.

Intramural sports had a new look this year also. There were co-ed Tennis and Girls Tackle Football. Inter-school competition in Girls' Volleyball was new this year also.

Bobby Hutchens runs with the baton in the 880 relay.

Buddy Wilkins takes this hurdle in stride.

Dubby Stansberry is ready to put the shot during the State.

WMHS produced many new shows this year, among which was "The Wild, Wild World of Girls' Basketball". Ten excited girls came out on the first day of practice and stuck with it to become the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team. Edith Harlow was the director of this show. The girls gave many grand performances ending up 6-2 for the season, and were invited to appear in a tournament. Out of 13 teams the Hornets ended up in a mighty fourth place. Many people agreed Wilson produced a top-rate show when they brought back Girls' Basketball.

"Wild Wild World

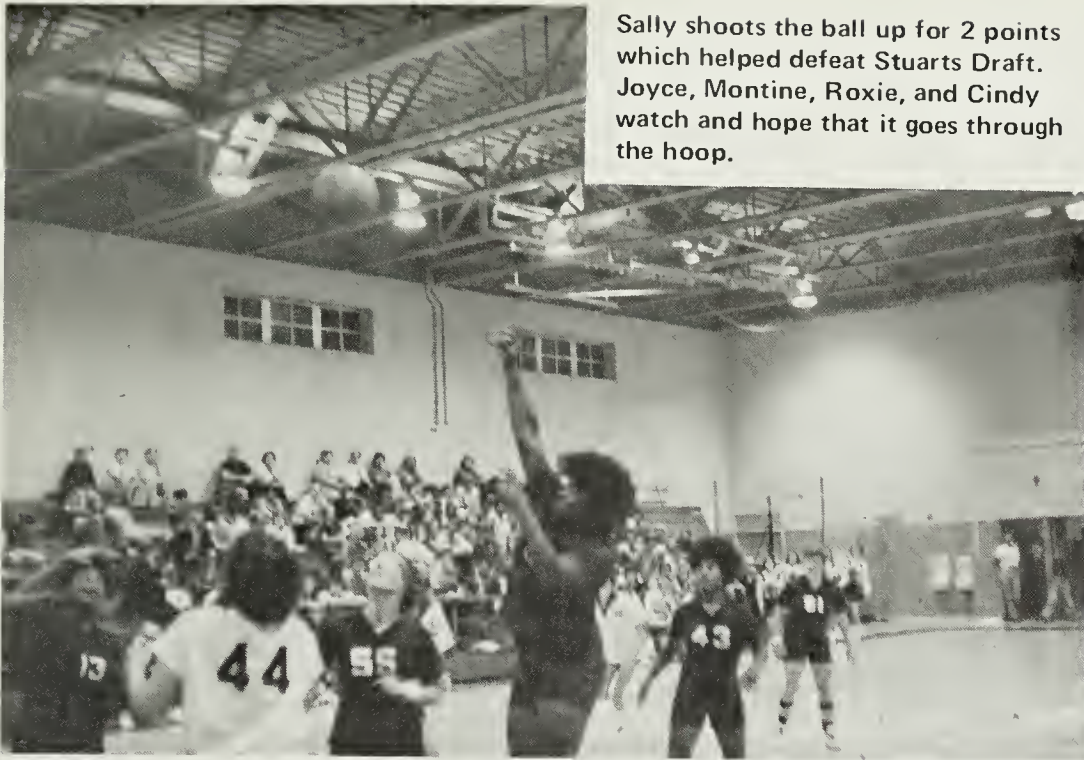

Kim blocks a shot at the Fort Defiance game, as Susan, Roxie, and Montine come to assist.

"Caught in the Act" Coach Harlow evidently found something to become excited about during a regular season game.

Susan and Kim play tight defense as Elaine stands by waiting to help.

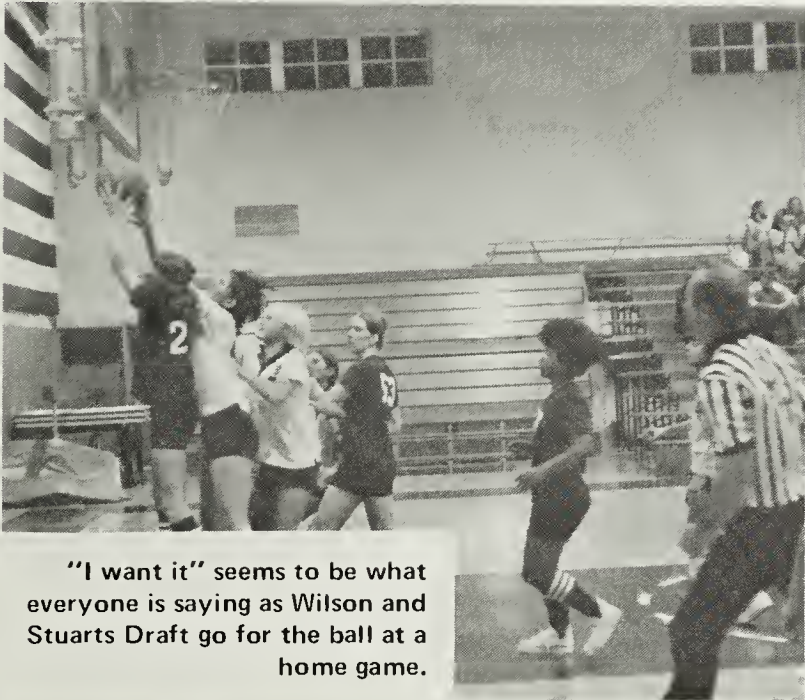

Sally shoots the ball up for 2 points which helped defeat Stuarts Draft. Joyce, Montine, Roxie, and Cindy watch and hope that it goes through the hoop.

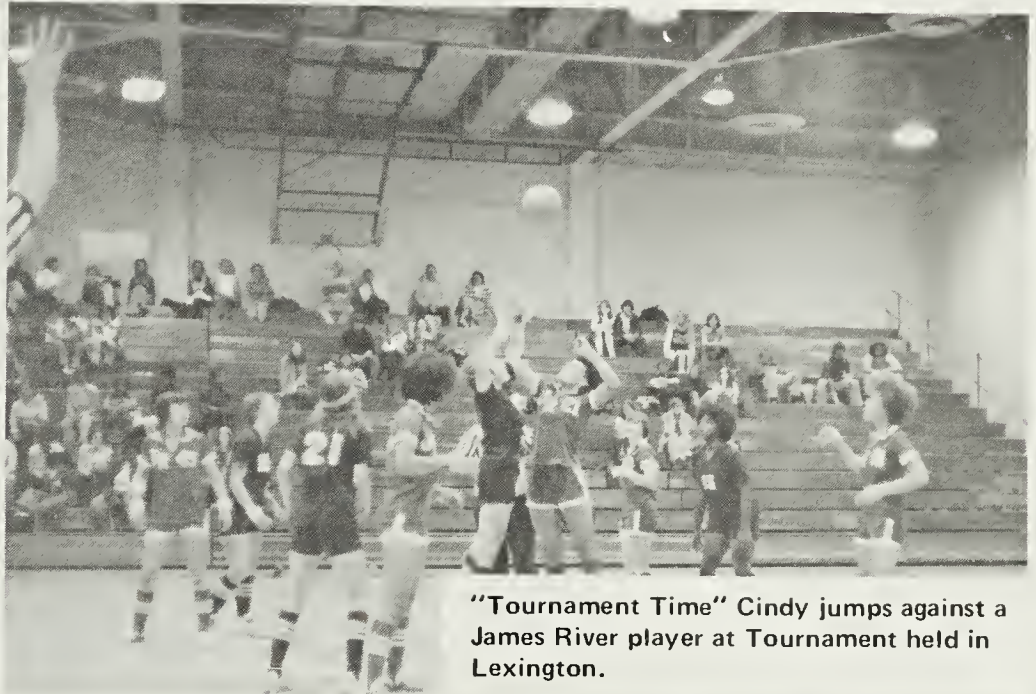

Get "That Girl!" Everyone chases Cindy down the court as she takes her time in making a shot.

of Girls Basketball"

"I want it" seems to be what everyone is saying as Wilson and Stuarts Draft go for the ball at a home game.

"Tournament Time" Cindy jumps against a James River player at Tournament held in Lexington.

Stars and supporting cast include Mary Perkins, Montine Jordon, Kim Claytor, Cindy Baldwin, Susan Brown, June East, Elaine Wade, Roxie McCauley, Joyce McCauley, with managers Ann Perkins, Nancy Wright, and Cherry Orr. Absent from picture is Sally Veney.

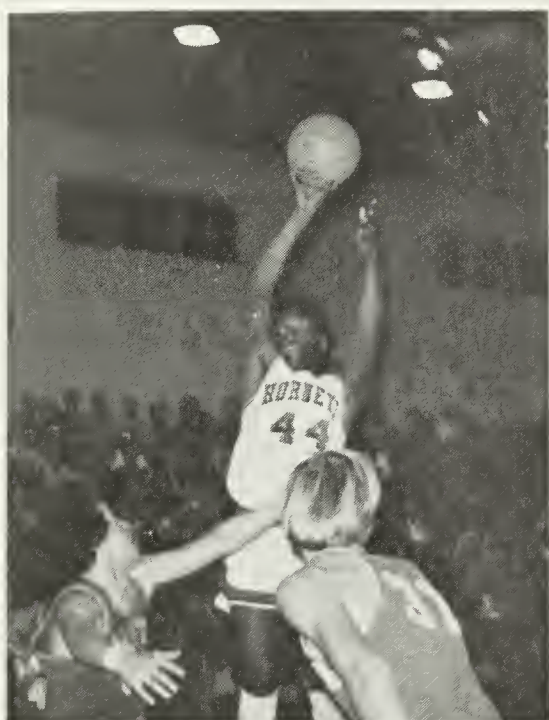

Do a really sweet, crazy and mean pretty girl. Remember to always strive forward for your big goals you have set for yourself and love the world for the world loves you. Be loved, take care and Good Bless you now and forever I love ya. June East

Varsity Basketball Continues New Hornet Era

With the addition of a new coach and some much needed height, the Mighty Hornets improved drastically in the win-loss column. Coach Arnold Fitzgerald brought with him some new offensive plays to utilize our players talent. Although the Hornets were in the new Alleghany-Highlands District, there was still time to play our all-time rivals from Waynesboro, which was lost in overtime 69-61. The Mighty Hornets finished fifth in the new district with a 6-6 record. Points scored was another giant improvement over last year with the Hornets reaching 98 points at VSD.

Howard Spears flies high to make a long shot.

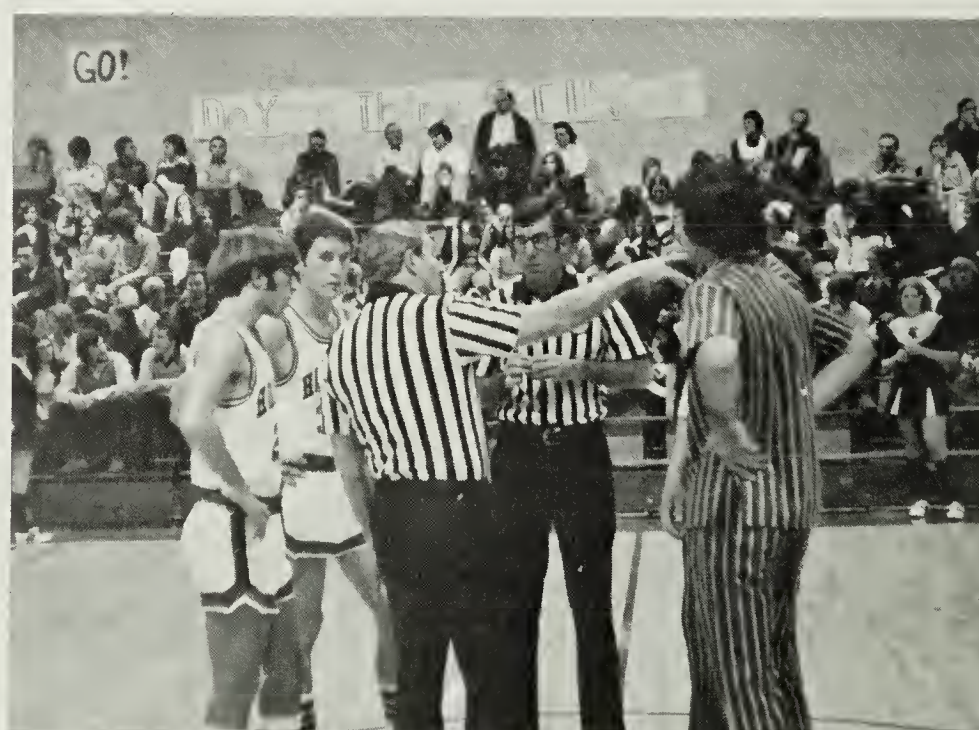

Danny Menefee swishes another 16-foot jumper as a Waynesboro Giant tries in vain to block it.

Towering Tim Dixon takes aim for his foul shot, while Danny Menefee and Gary Quesenbery look on.

Steve Boling, boxed in by some Giants, goes up for a basket.

Team captains, Danny Menefee and Doug Conyers greet our visitors.

From the pointed toes, to the extended finger tips it's "Jump, Stretch, Reach." To the left Howard Spears tries "single" handedly to grab a rebound.

Scott Troxell goes up to rebound a ball which has failed to go in the basket. Dixon backs him up, and Conyer's face shows the strain of the game.

With poise and agility Quesenbery directs the ball towards the goal.

Award Winning JV Basketball

JV Basketball at Wilson had to be the biggest, most significant turn around in Hornets' sports. While the Junior Varsity cagers won only six games in the three preceding years, they sported a 15-3 overall, and a 10-2 district record. Of course being in the newly founded Allegheny-Highlands District might explain part of the success of the Baby Hornets, but not necessarily. The Hornets completely dominated the court in almost every game, and had victory margins up to sixty points. For the first time in many years the Baby Hornets defeated the Waynesboro Little Giants by a score of 50-47. Coach Bo Bowers and the entire JV Team deserves a great big hand for the tremendous effort and results achieved during their very successful season.

The scoreboard is an adequate way to sum up the JV Hornets' victorious season.

Harvey Hevener breaks loose for a lay-up in a victory over James River.

Derek McDaniel holds the ball high to pop another 2 points as Bobby Randolph looks on.

Rick McKinny, with eyes fixed on the goal, releases a possible score, as Quesenbery and Randolph anticipate a miss.

Third In Tourney!

Tony McCauley of the Little Hornets reaches for the ball in a game against Riverheads as Scott Heavener stands by for assistance.

A Baby Hornet attempts to score a basket against the Riverheads team.

Eighth Grade Basketball was a big success at Wilson Memorial in the '75 season. These fourteen up-rising Hornet athletes had a very successful beginning to think back on. The eighth graders finished regular season play with a 7-3 record giving them second place in the district. They lost only to Fort Defiance and Buffalo Gap during the season. The midget Hornets went to the tournament at Riverheads and captured third place. Four of the starters were elected to All-Tourney teams. These include Teddy Obie who made third team All-Tournament. Scott Heavener, and Tony McCauley were placed on the second team and George Benson was selected for the first team All-Tournament. Let's hope they keep up the good work.

The New Hornets Of Wilson! Welcome

Sam Ramsey seems to enjoy the new surroundings and crew!

Teresa Stephens walks to one of her many new sets with Brenda Dickerhoof.

The girls' locker room brings a smile to Tammy Miller's face who wonders "why me?"

Paula Inderwish enjoys her lunch break with Cindy Fink, a cast member on set.

Debbie Lowe has a shocked expression for the director, as Tony Tyler relaxes.

Darlene Jacobs seems more interested in the set than she does the director.

Ken Wasik laughs at a joke a fellow cast member tells him during a break.

Doug Hudson smiles at something the director says as Doug Conyers bows.

Jon Ramsey goes to lunch after one of his new shows with a new director and cast.

Being a transient community, Wilson received many transfers this year. New students came from as far away as Germany and from as close as Stuarts Draft. The Hornets were proud to adopt these great new stars to their long running series. The new cast members received their new scripts, and working schedules and plunged right in with interest and enthusiasm. The effect of fresh ideas was soon felt in many classrooms and clubs. The original cast and crew members accepted these new students and ideas with the warmth that open-mindedness brings. When asked about their new school many transfers replied "We like it!"

Some new cast members get together during a break with some new friends.

* Best of luck
 Always to a sweet
 girl. Always remember
 W.M.H.S. * never forget me!
 Be good & have fun,
 Love ya

Through the window of knowledge, we see Tony Tyler
 with the almighty Government
 Exam.

These juniors and seniors seem to be tremendously enjoying each other's comments.

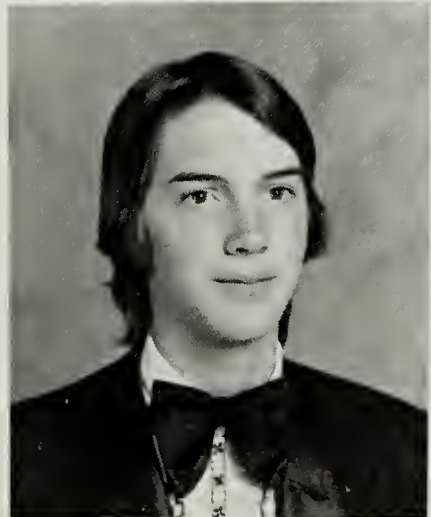

After a five-year run, the station WMHS show on the "Class of 1975" came to a rapid finish. The required government course for seniors made many better consumers of the "National News." The realization that the senior Hornets would soon leave the hive resulted in an increased interest in the financial state of the nation, and the unemployment rate in Augusta County. But these serious subjects didn't hamper their fun-loving spirit. Senior Skip Day, The Class Picnic, The Prom given in their honor, and usual weekend fun still prevailed. After all — You can't get a good class down!

Pat Lucas debates her views on pornography to her English class, who listens attentively to her opinion.

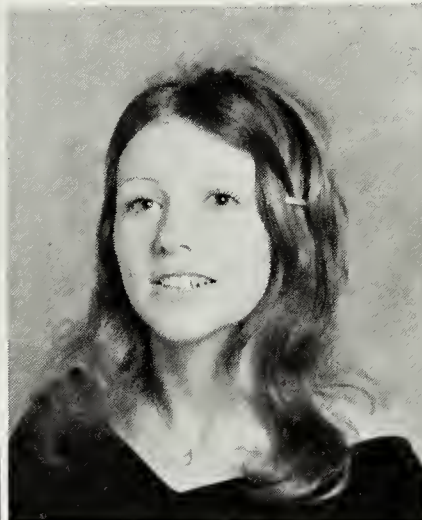

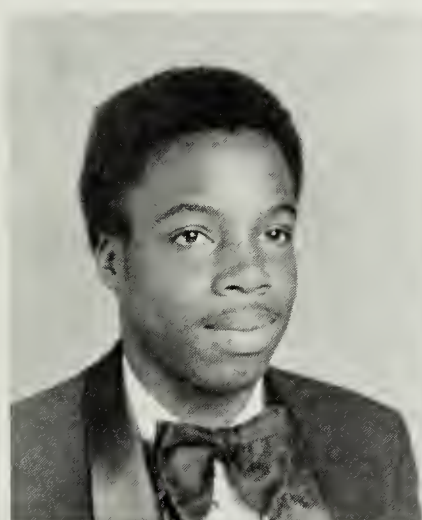

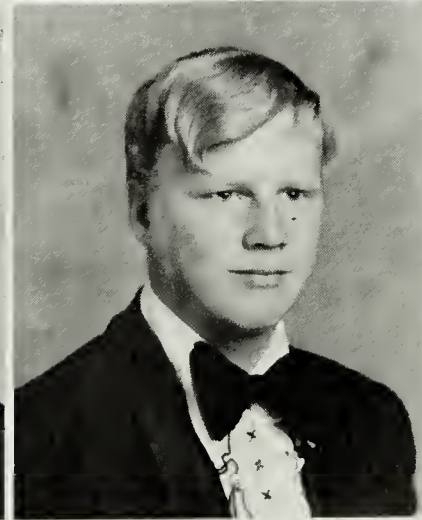

Dorothy Tanner and Benny Washington seem to be using their quota of brain energy.

"This past year has really been a year for change. At least some aspect of everyone's life has been affected — even the people we thought couldn't be touched. President Nixon became Mr. Nixon, and Mr. Ford became President Ford. Rockefeller was VP. After that everything came at once. The democrats swept Congress — we became aware of a world food crisis — inflation — recession — and OIL. I guess that's the thing that affects most people. America was riding along in a big air-conditioned car when it ran out of gas. No more 'cruising' Waynesboro on Friday night. ALL people have to 'tighten their belts' and everyone had to change a little. I guess we'll all change a lot more and and we'll never be 'the way we were'".

"I just don't know what's going on anymore. I can't believe some of the prices. 60¢/gallon for regular gas, and sugar is almost 60¢/pound. It's really a lot different. '74-'75 is going to be a time we'll remember."

Have some "Good Times". That is what the Juniors tried to do this year, but they worked hard too. During the football season, about a dozen Juniors got up early on Saturday mornings and went to clean up the football field. After Christmas they sold magazines to raise money for the big dance of the year, the Prom. The Juniors worked all year, making preparations for the Prom. Early in the year they formed a committee to decide which band should entertain for the Prom. They also had to be responsible for the Prom decorations, the refreshments, and other important details. Miss Cook helped with the arrangements. Also, thanks from the Juniors goes out to their head sponsor, Mr. Corbin, who helped tremendously.

Teenage Frolics

The Juniors had lots of "Teenage Frolics" this year. At the beginning of the year they traveled to Williamsburg. There they visited the Governor's Palace and the old state Capitol building. They toured many craft shops. After eating lunch in Williamsburg, they were allowed leisure time to do whatever they wanted to do.

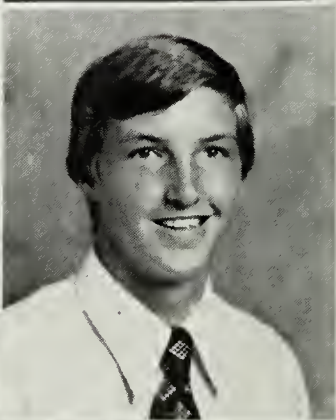

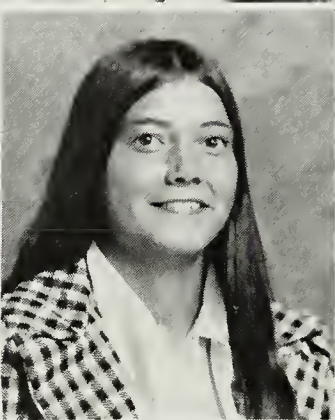

Before Christmas they went to see the movie "Gone With the Wind." The Juniors also went to see other movies.

They showed off their class rings when they arrived in the spring. Then, of course, there was the biggest event of the year, the Prom.

Junior Class Wait for Rings to Come Back

To tell the truth, the Juniors love their school rings. At the beginning of October the "ring man" came; and the Juniors ordered their rings after studying the samples and changing their minds a half dozen times. The "Happy Days" are over now as they wait impatiently for their rings to come in. After waiting in suspense for months they finally arrived.

Hornet's Way

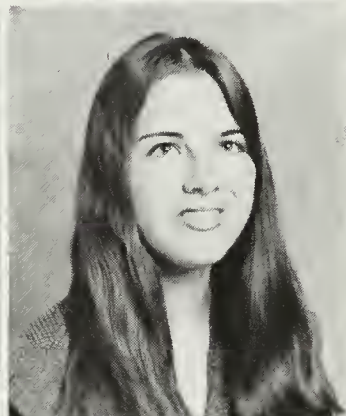

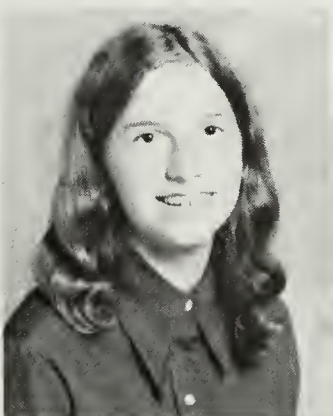

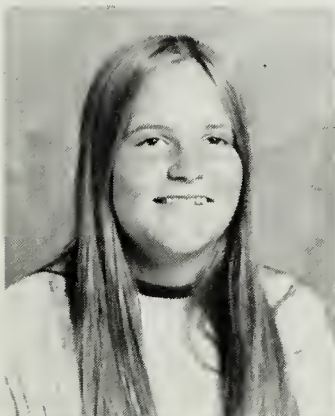

This season when they re-opened the series "Everything Is Coming Up Hornets," the Sophomores were proud to take their places with the cast and crew members to help make the series complete. Along with the old members of the cast, they were faced with new ideas, people, teachers, coaches, and a newer and bigger dose of school spirit. The cast sponsored a car wash during the parent-teacher conference to raise money for the Sophomore Class. The stars enjoyed the first couple of weeks in Biology by dissecting pigs.

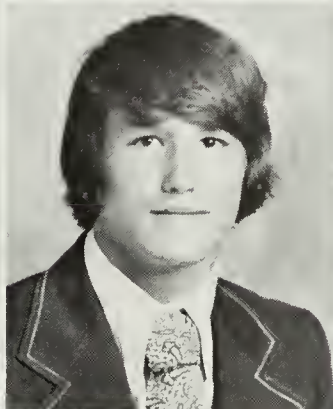

Myra Bibb, Julie Rutherford, and Kathy Oleska are not very pleased about dissecting monkeys.

For the cast that was acting as Sophomores, it was very confusing on the first day. The actors had to get to know new directors and producers. Most of the Sophomore cast seemed to enjoy being in the tenth grade. When asked they gave a simple nod of the head or said, "It's okay." The crew members rehearsed diagraming sentences and reading literature. They were into other things besides English, Biology, and Physical Education. They participated in things like Singing Sergeants, Varsity Football, and other such sports and activities.

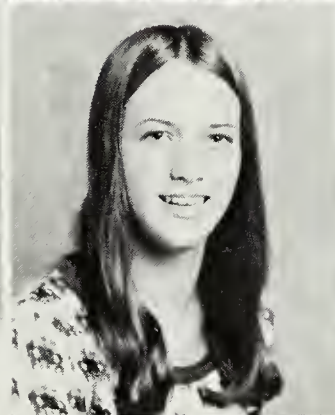

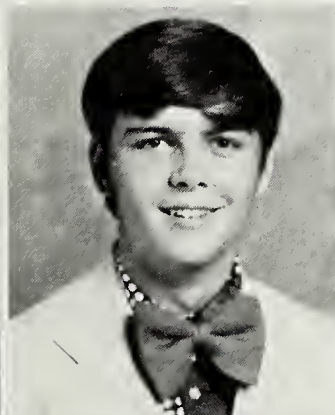

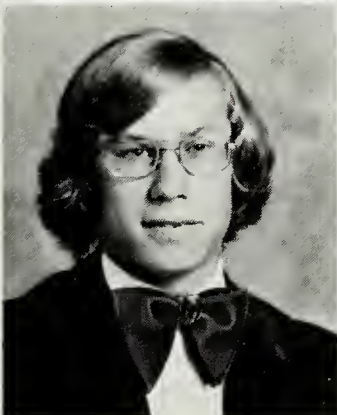

Glenn Painter, Teresa Pangle, Scott Fauber, Sharon Fitzgerald, and Lynn Lowry worked hard to bring Spirit to their class to make it great. They did just that by selling "antenna toppers."

After one year of marriage to Wilson Memorial, the Freshmen reappeared on the scene to evaluate how well they knew their school. They responded correctly to such questions as: "What is your school's favorite color?" and "What is a Media Center?" Questions like "How old is your school?" were more difficult.

The real test came when it was the school's turn to answer. It no longer recognized its own students. The boys had grown taller and the girls prettier. Saturday night no longer meant television; it meant dates. They were now upperclassmen; and the question that they could not answer, did not exist.

But reacquaintance did not take long. They were the same students alright; always talking and laughing. The united cry "Nine Say Go" once again echoed in the halls.

How To Survive Marriage

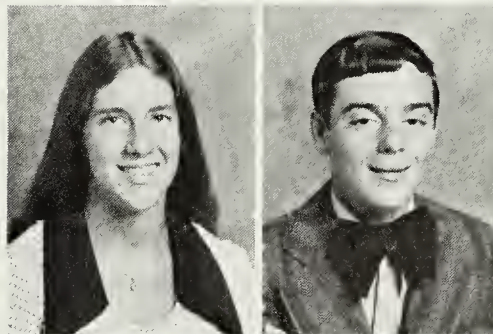

This year instead of being Newlyweds to Wilson Memorial, the Freshmen reappeared on the set to evaluate how well they could get the eighth graders to know and love the school the way they did. They answered all the questions, to the best of their knowledge, to help the new stars win a role in the game! Only the quiz went on for the Freshmen to prove they were worthy of their position on the cast and of their marriage to Wilson. This year was their second year of marriage to Wilson and they learned to love it more each passing day and to appreciate all the "tender loving care" Wilson was giving them. The new school spirit taught them to love the school team that much more. The fear was for the safety of the team members and the ratings the series would receive for the season. But no matter what the ratings were, the cast would return to the long run series.

Freshman Class Produces "The Dating Game"

February rolled around and the Freshmen tried a new show called "The Dating Game." The script called for a young gentleman to choose from three young ladies on the basis of questioning. The prize received by both was a date to the Wilson Memorial "Sweetheart Dance." The dance, held in honor of Saint Valentine's Day, succeeded in bringing together many young lovers for a night of frolicking. It also provided the Freshmen producers with some extra cash for their class treasury.

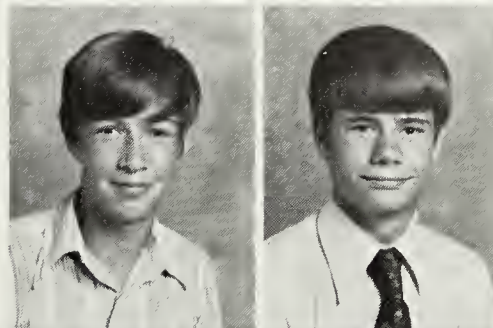

The Freshmen also produced other commercials to raise money. They attempted to sell a little bit of everything from baked goods to toys. Boyce Brannock, director, could be heard screaming, "Buy this or else," as Mrs. Gordon, sponsor, tried to calm him down. Assistant sponsors for the show included Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Clark, Mr. Devano, Mr. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Hanger, Mrs. Holl, Mr. Hartman, Miss Puffenberger, Mrs. Sheffield and Mrs. Rasys.

Picnic In The Park

The series for the Freshmen ran for thirty-six full weeks. The last show of the season was entitled "Picnic in the Park." Set at the wooded picnic area, south of the football field, a cast of approximately seventy-five students feasted on hot dogs.

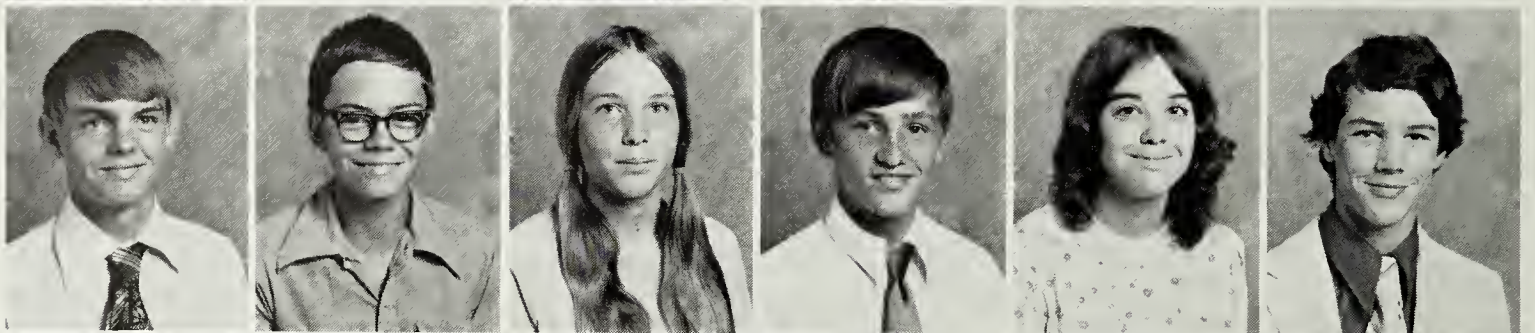

All in all the series of shows on Freshmen from the "Newly Wed Game" to "Picnic in the Park" was a fantastic success. They planned to return with an all new series next season.

"The Rookies" Class of '80

This year for their premiere as eighth graders, there was a confused, but happy cast to join the rerun stars. They were the new actors that all the upper classmen looked out for, and could not help but rib them to show them what to expect from the series "Wilson Power."

This lively crew of eighth graders started the year off right by getting the green spirit and winning "Henry Hornet." They joined as many clubs as possible and supported the athletic teams with enthusiasm.

New experiences awaited the bubbling newcomers of 1974 — their first high school classes, dances and glances. They met their new freedoms with the pangs of growing responsibility, and some made trips to the office. Yet grades proved to be better than average for most of them the first six weeks. Standardized testing agonies greeted the eighth graders in October, along with the first cold weather. Sounds of "I can't wait till Christmas," already resounded in the home-rooms.

"All My

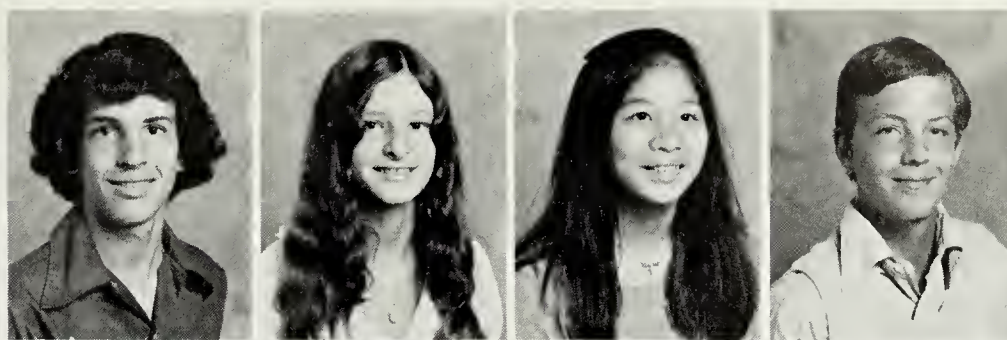

One of the shows at Wilson this year was the day-time show "All My Children" starring Jim Furr. Mr. Furr portrayed the part of a high school guidance counselor, who gave advice to eighth graders. Co-starring with Mr. Furr were 243 apprentice students.

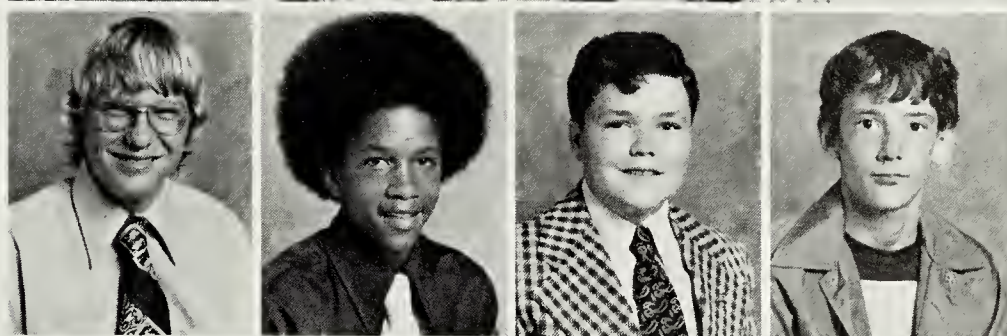

Mr. Furr gives Randy Crenshaw some friendly advice.

Children"

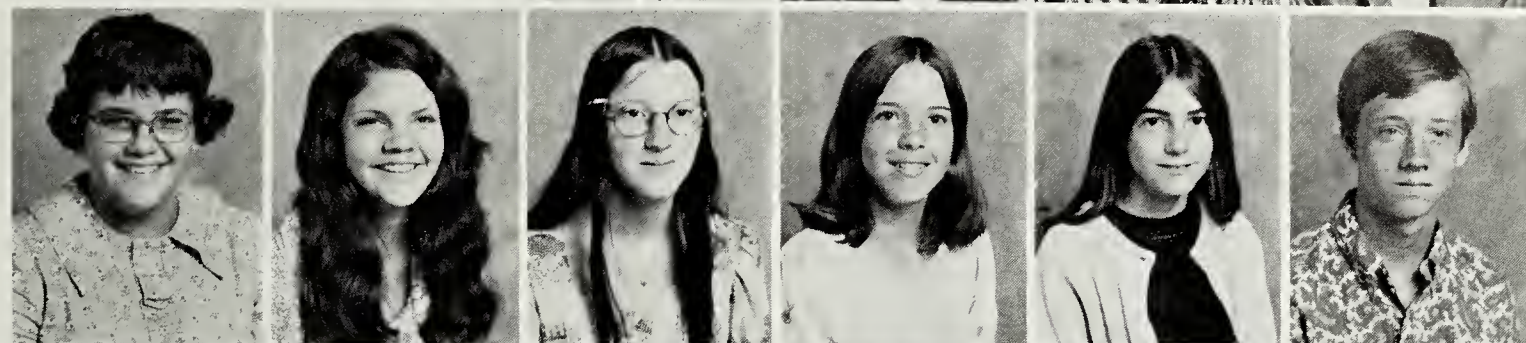

The show involved the trying times of adolescents in their first year of high school. Incidents such as computer scheduling, grade checking and personal interviews gave realism to the show. Humor emitted from the mass confusion scenes of lost rooms, big books, and stuck lockers.

Assemblies, Elections,

Denver Kendall guest starred as the eighth grade class sponsor in three shows. The first Introduction Assembly in September succeeded in stirring up club interest. Class elections inspired the second show in November, and May brought the grand finale picnic performance by Mr. Kendall.

The sketch for the first eighth grade assembly introduced a character from each and every club or activity at Wilson. Cries of "Join Us," and "Support Us," blared from the sound system.

Elections Assembly raised the roof as the audience cheered for their "favorite son." Colorful posters lined the walls, spelling "Vote For Me," in every possible way.

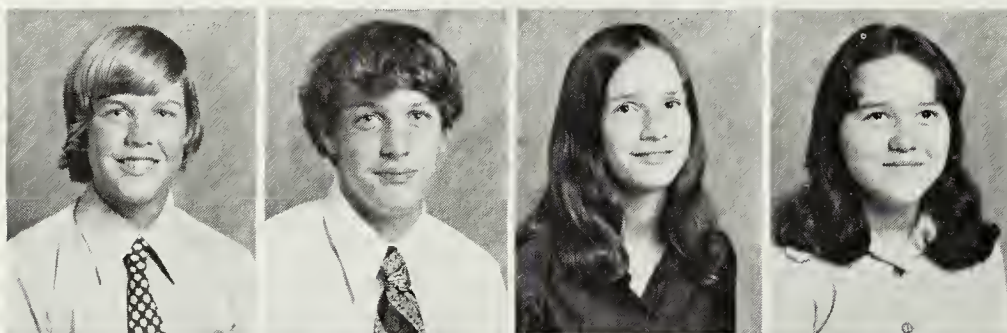

Last but not least came the best performance of all — the Picnic. The dialogue emphasized such lines as: "Hey, we need potato chips!"

Sooner or later all shows get canceled. "All My Children" ended in June.

Producers Of Station WMHS

Mr. Clymore greets the cast and crew at the premiere of school.

Mrs. Shanks and Mrs. Craft wait on the students as they come and go.

Mr. Gray, Mr. Clymore, and Mr. Costa give us a fashion show.

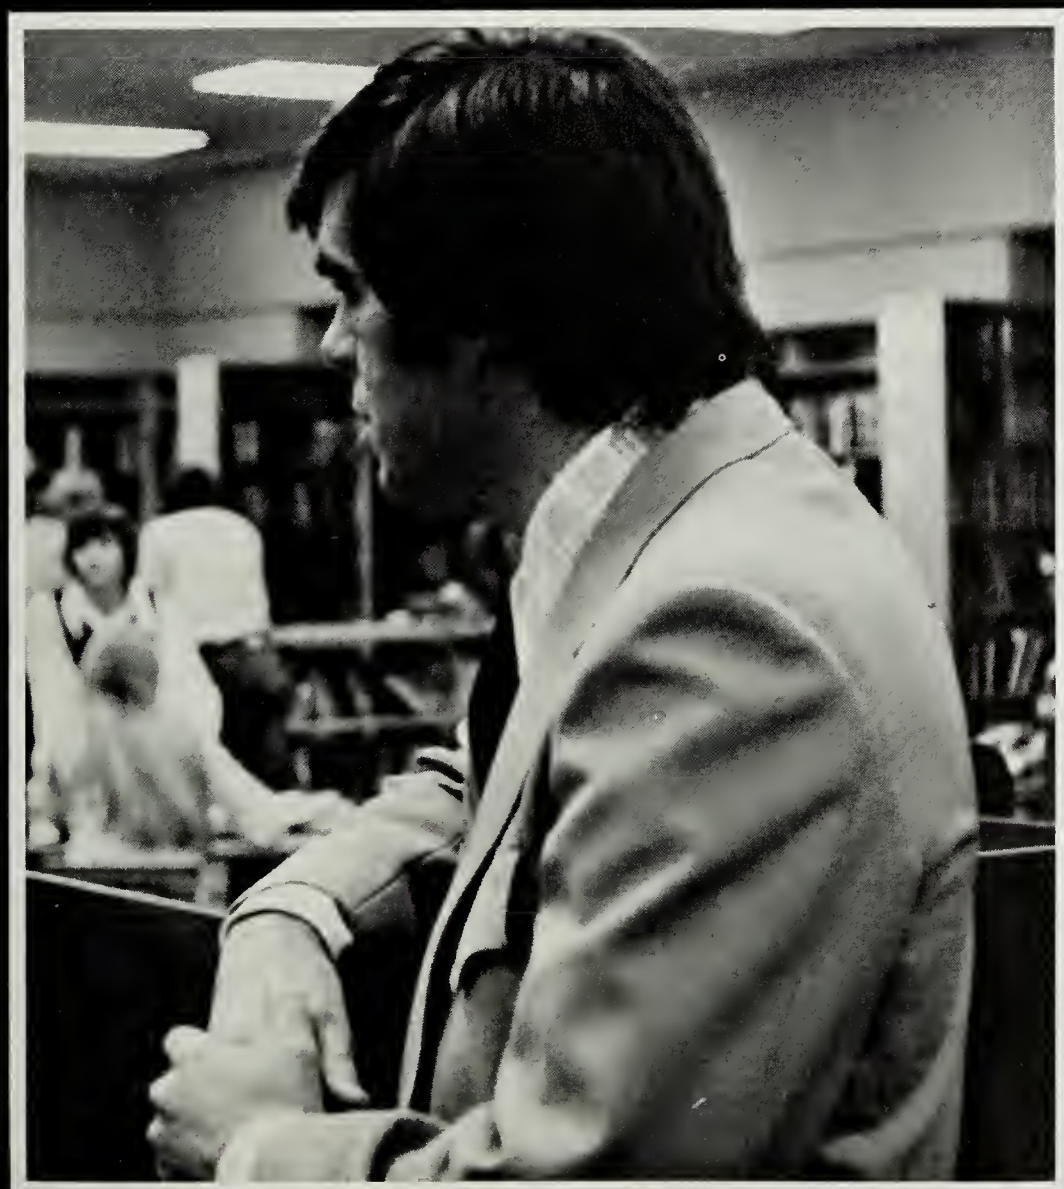

This season our producer, Edward Clymore and assistant producer, Al Costa teamed up to produce fantastic shows on station WMHS. Also helping them produce the shows was Chip Gray who came to us this year from Northern Virginia.

Mr. Clymore brought Humanism into the classrooms. He always had an encouraging word for students and teachers alike. Mr. Costa helped Humanize the school by having a new policy about late passes. This policy was that the teachers used their own judgement about the student being late. Chip Gray helped the Humanism by being a good samaritan to the athletes.

If these three ever needed to be found, you could go to Mr. Stump's Humanities class sixth period. Another place you could have checked was in the school clinic.

The script girls, Mrs. Shanks and Mrs. Craft worked hard organizing the scripts for station WMHS this season.

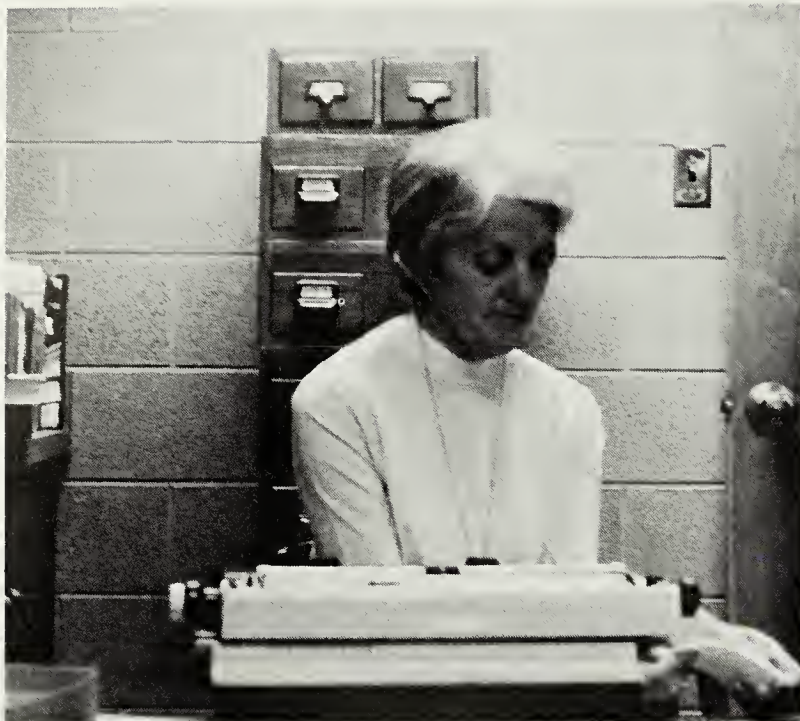

Mr. Costa works hard in the secretary's place taking and receiving information.

Mr. Gray waits to chat with students as he supervises the Media Center.

"Search For Tomorrow"

...to be a good friend to all who are in need. Mrs. Flora

Mrs. Hull assists in the library. She also arranges flowers and wins Blue Ribbons for them at "Expo."

Filing cards is just one of Mrs. Flora's many duties. She helps to open our eyes with the many new books she purchases for our Media Center.

Students surround Mrs. Glover, our school nurse, as she gives free physical examinations.

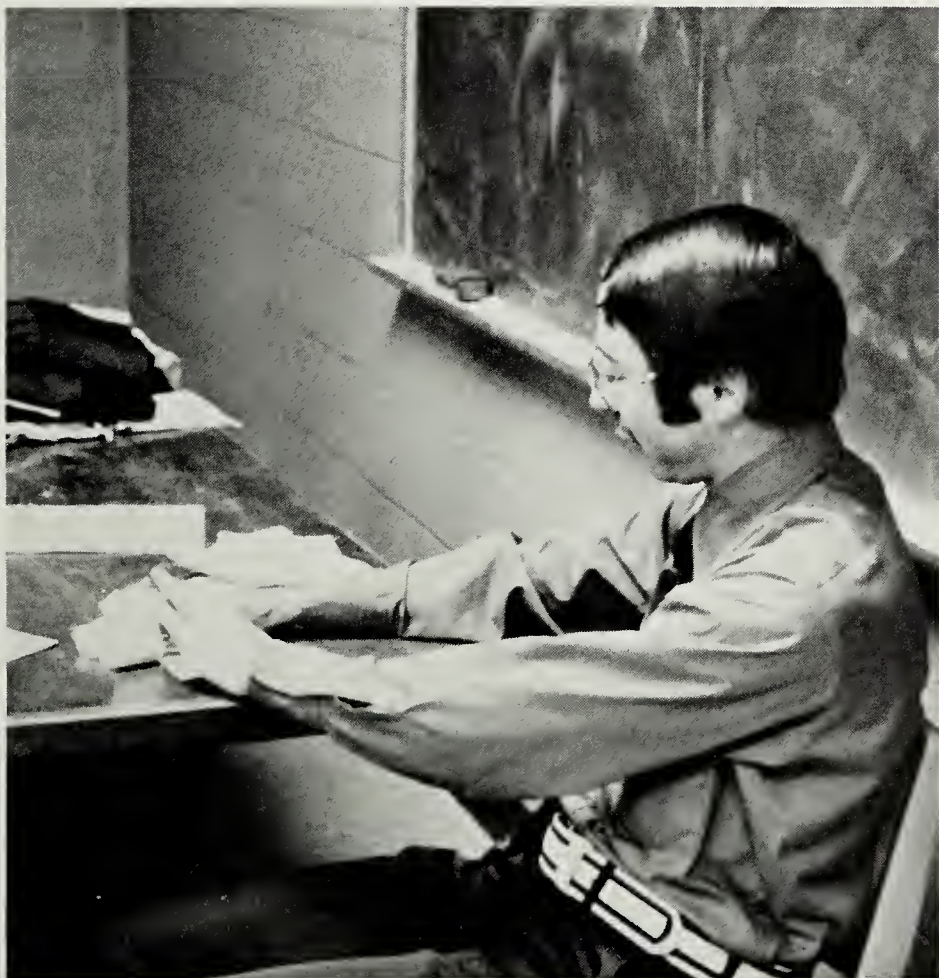

Montine Jordan, Ricky Womble, and Don Curtis exercise the Media Center.

Mrs. Bosserman's encouraging remarks always bring a smile to students as Charles Bruce demonstrates.

Mr. Browning studiously examines test scores for the eighth graders.

Mr. Furr autographs absentee passes each morning in room 1.

The daily soap opera of life at Wilson included some very important people in our lives. Their presence aided our "Search For Tomorrow." Mrs. Flora starred as the Media Center specialist, who provided us with every type of information in her power. Mrs. Glover gave a tremendous performance to keep us healthy, physically and mentally, for the future. In the roles of fortune tellers starred Mrs. Bosserman and Mr. Furr. Mr. Browning made his premiere performance as a soothsayer. Without these stars the "Search For Tomorrow" would not have been a success.

“What’s My Line?”

Serving the meals this year are Shirley McGrath, Lucille Wheeler, Ruth Coffman, Mary Lee Layne, Annie Baldwin, Fanny McGrath, Alma Toman, Lilly Fitzgerald, Maxine Tribble.

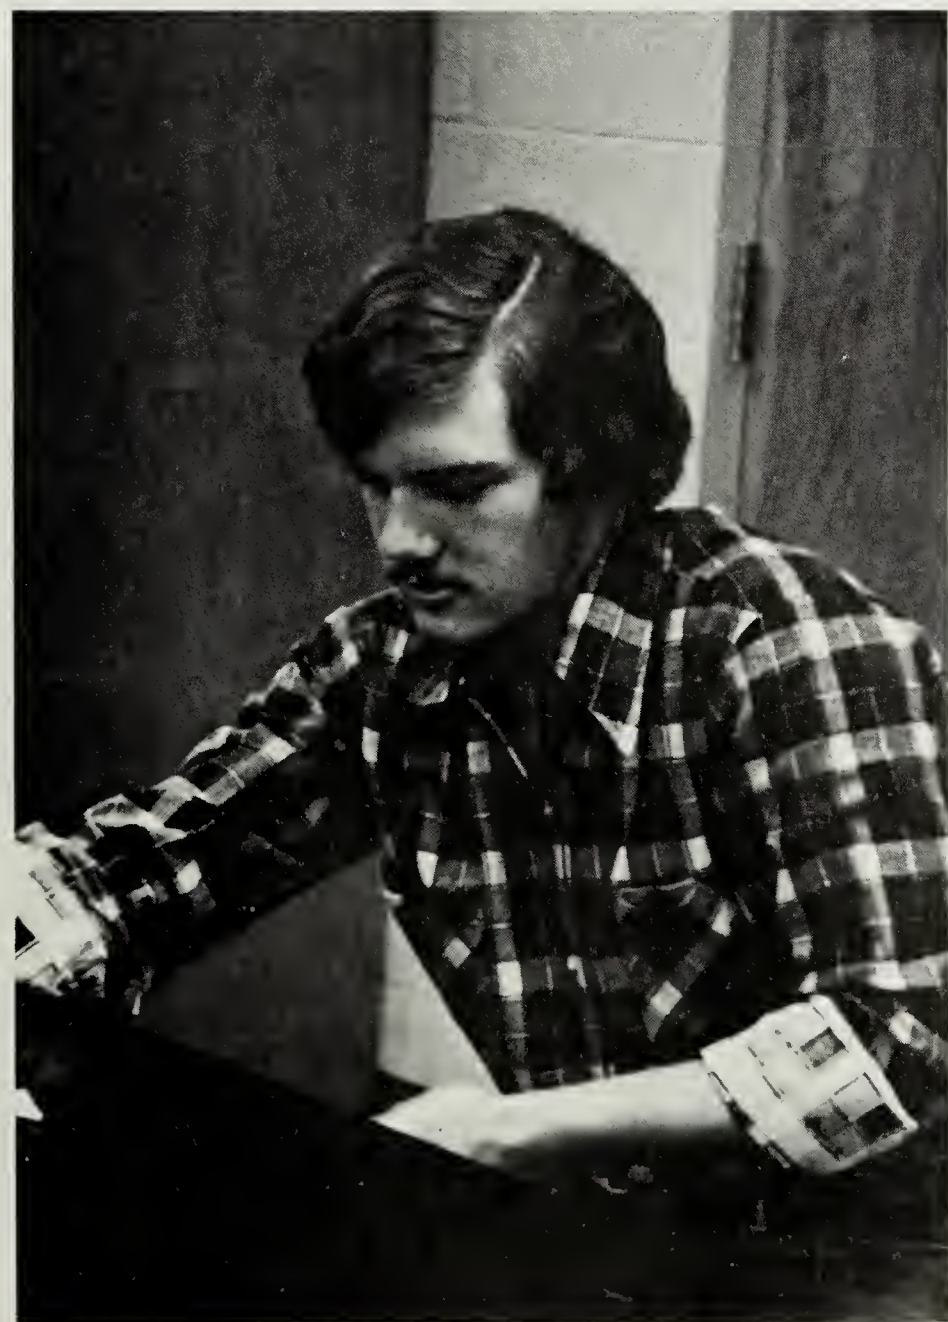

Working hard all year to keep the school clean are Mark Ramsey, Ronnie Cox, Harry Taylor, Charlie Bradley, and Clifford Fitzgerald. Mrs. Wine offers assistance.

During 5B lunch period Tom Jones, Danny Menefee, and Danny Wheeler enjoy their lunch. Danny prefers not to have his lunch interrupted.

Timmy Wright provides paper work during Study Hall for the Maintenance Staff to clean up.

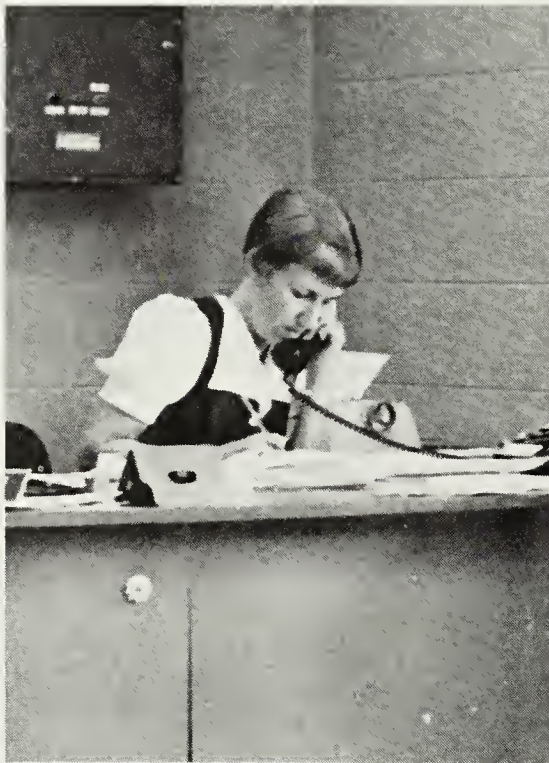

Through the halls of Wilson echoed the names Mitch, Harry, Charlie, and Ronnie. These stars of the maintenance staff were sought after by all their fans to perform their roles.

The daytime show ran from 7:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., and the nighttime show ran from 2:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. The stars were aided by their distinguished props — Charlie bent over the old vacuum cleaner, Harry pushed the trash buggy, Ronnie drew the broom, and Mitch carried a step ladder. The stars were satisfied with their work and managed to find spare time to play cards.

New to the series this year were four part-time supporting actors. They helped improve the efficiency of the staff, and offered some relief to the four main actors.

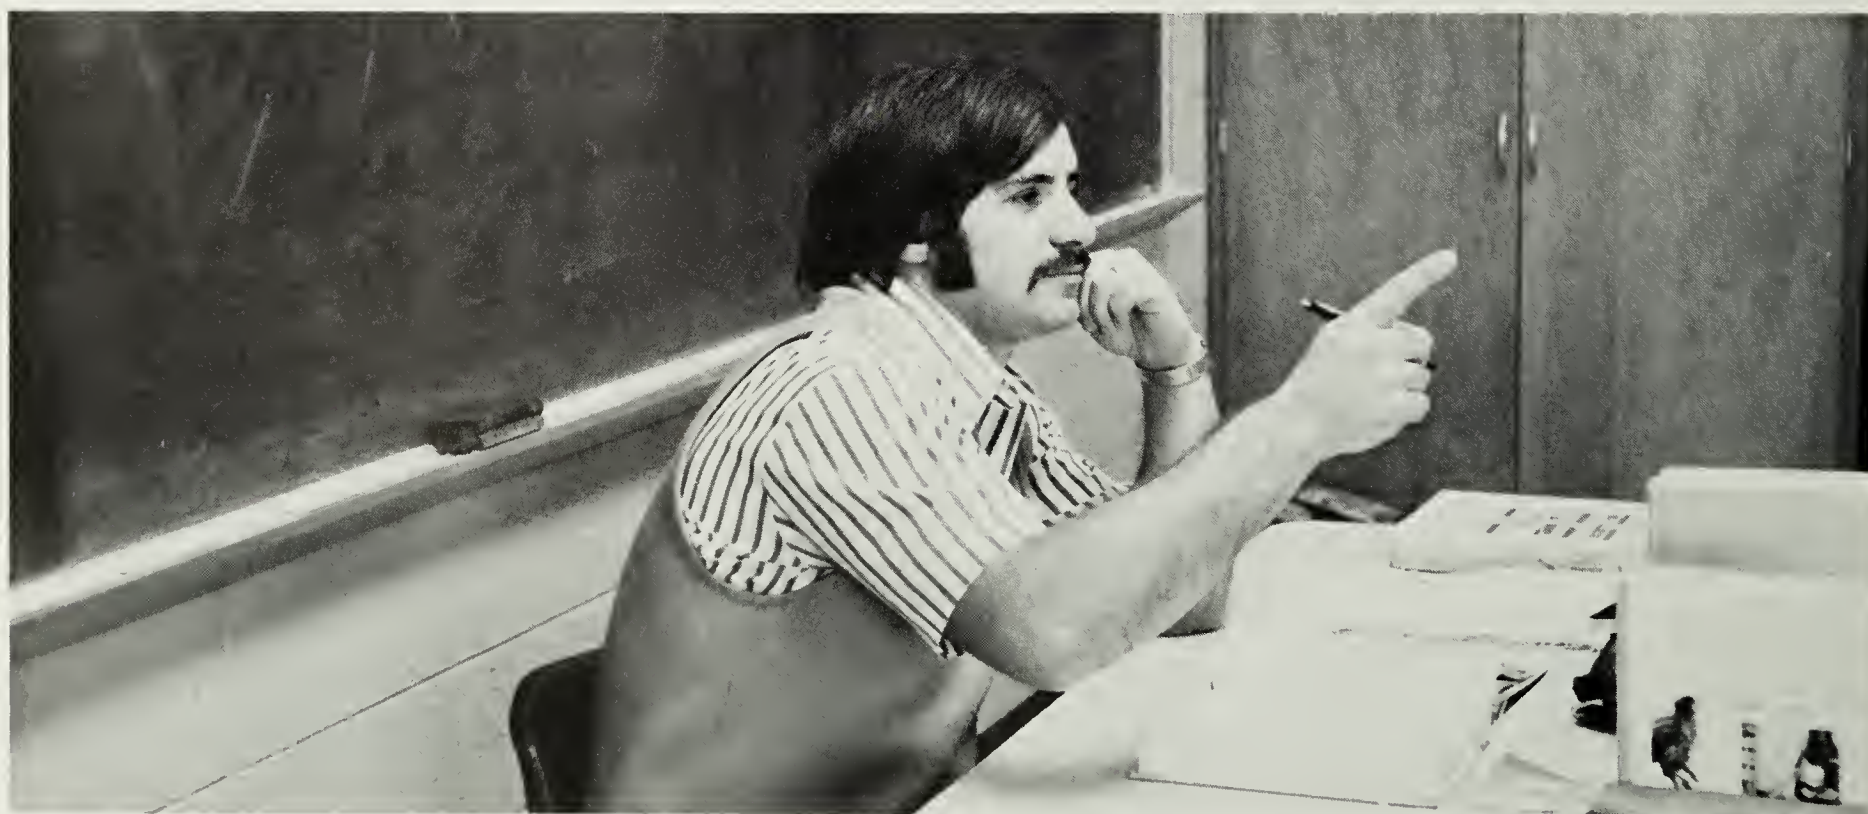

The cafeteria staff returned this year for another season of school lunches. The series consisted of favorites such as pizza casserole and submarine sandwiches. The red, green, and pink costumes of the ladies enhanced the happy atmosphere of the cafeteria setting. Interviews with the cast revealed that they love working with children. Their favorite show occurred during the bomb drill when the pizza dough rose all over the kitchen.

NANCY E. ARMENTROUT, chairman of the Math Department, sponsors the S.C.A. When she's not off on an European tour, you can find her at home with her miniature shnauzer, Christopher. JOHN AVOLI, head of the Varsity Club, loves to cook. Parked in front of his apartment stands a '67 Covered Wagon and inside waits a favorite pet, his wife, Lynn. MARCY BAKER, a member of the "Fam Farmily" of West Virginia, encourages the Varsity Cheerleaders and Spirit Club. RAMONA BOSSERMAN, when not enlightening knowledge to the National Honor Society, can be found working on her new house. CHARLES (BO) BOWERS, after risking his life all day at school with student drivers, likes to play sports in his spare time. BEE BOWMAN, our own lawyer, belongs to a science fiction fandom. She rides a broomstick to school and has a pet skunk. CARL BROWNING, helps save gas by traveling to school in a car pool. JAMES HENRY BRYAN, Jr., sponsor of the Science Club, likes auto racing, mountain climbing, and girls (not necessarily in that order). REBECCA CLARK, spending a lot of her time with the Girls' Basketball Cheerleaders, rides to school with Miss Cook. WALTER CLEAVENGER, organizer of a new Industrial Arts Club, ranges over his estate on his quarter horse. Although JAMES O. COLE didn't make the P.G.A. tour himself, his coaching at Wilson can produce a champion some day. LINDA COOK, when not keeping the majorettes in step, spends much of her time at the theater. She enjoys traveling during her break.

Mrs. Clymore, paying us a visit, works for the boss.

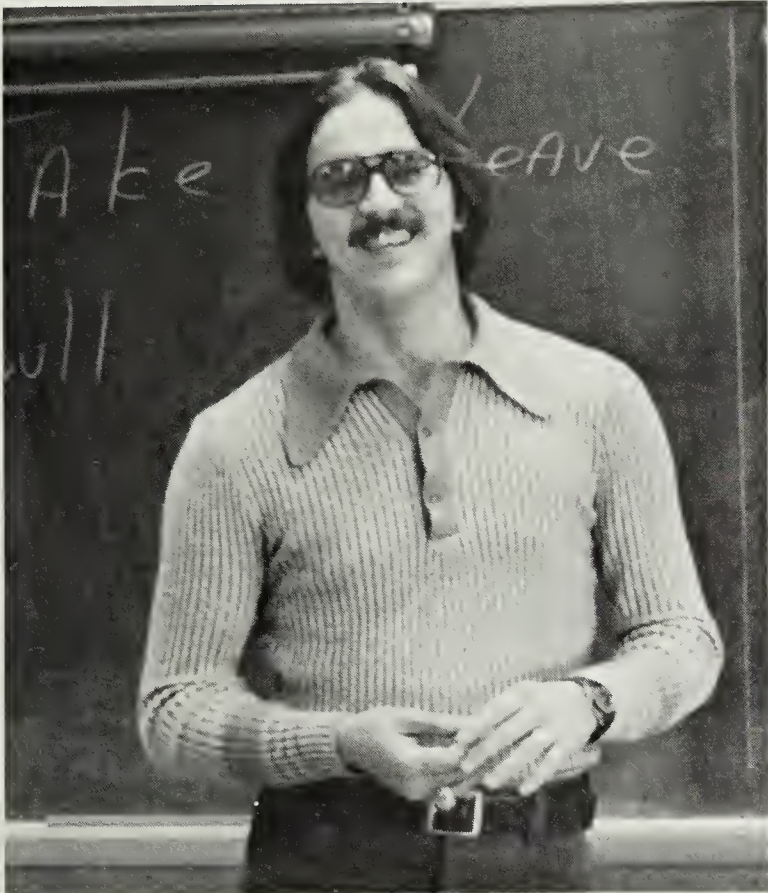

Karen Puffenberger shows by her determined look that she's not one to give up easily.

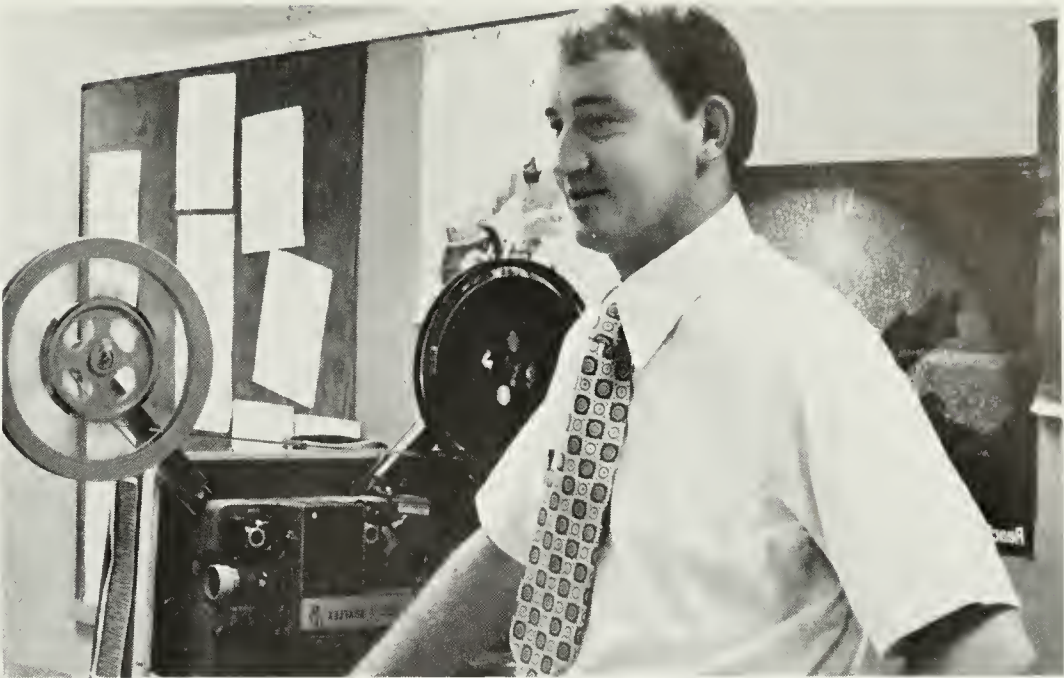

John Avoli terrifies his students once again with his demanding point of the finger. Not even superman could resist that masculine expression on the stern face.

The Comradeship Of The Wilson Faculty

Jim McCoy charms girl students with his sexy smile.

"Hollywood Squares"

More than just degrees, the faculty starred as "Hollywood Squares." JERRY CORBIN, sponsor for the Junior Class, enjoyed taking pictures for Gentry's. Our assistant principal, AL COSTA, valiantly tried to head the Safety Club, when he wasn't golfing. SHIRLEY CRAFT, School secretary, enjoyed sewing and interior decorating. GAB DEVANO sponsored the Industrial Arts Club, when he wasn't driving his new silver car. Future Homemakers of America sponsor, POLLY DUTTON, toured the Orient in October. New to Wilson, from Riverheads, was BETTY EBY, who wore red and green outfits often. Also new was ARNOLD FITZGERALD, who inspired our Track and Basketball teams. FRANCES FLORA, the Media Center specialist, enjoyed hobbies such as travel, music and sewing. J.V. Football Coach, JAMES FURR, had a dog, cat, fish and wife for pets. Newlywed STEPHEN GEIMAN returned to Wilson this year as assistant Track Coach. The best looking teacher at Wilson, PHYLLIS GORDON spent her days sponsoring the J.V. Cheerleaders. HAMPTON HAIRFIELD, JR., fondly called "Uncle Hampton," sponsored the SAE and chaired the English Department. MARGARET HANGER had the difficult job of keeping coffee in the pot, as Faculty Chairman. Coaching the new Girls' Basketball team was EDITH HARLOW. ROBERT HARTMAN, science teacher, drove his new blue Bronco to school. KAREN HOLL, newspaper sponsor, joined the Wilson staff as a regular this year. Beautifying the Home Economics Department was SUSAN HUFFMAN'S task. WILLIAM KELLEY, JR. spoke Spanish all day and then went home to his dog Peek-A-Poo. DECA sponsor, ROY KELLY commuted from Wilson to Draft. Eighth Grade sponsor, DENVER KENDALL, drove a new green Comaro. BARBARA LANDIS loved old debaters, who had lost their logic. MICHAEL LEONARD showed his love for the challenge of formal argument. SUSAN LEWIS lost her mind in the annual room and on the stage. GERALD MACE dressed fit-to-kill all year to inspire the Science Club. Reading a book or talking to a cactus was JIM MCCOY.

Mrs. Ultee displays her teaching technique one handedly, as she shows us her autographed cast.

JOYCE MIZER directed the band and new drill team. Girls' Tennis Coach, STUART MOFFETT, III, also sponsored the FFA. Our resident artist, KENNETH NEWTON sponsored the Chess Club. KAREN PUFFENBERGER joined the staff this year and sponsored the Keyettes, and Eighth Grade Cheerleaders. JESSE RIDGEWAY, JR. collected big band records. LOIS RASYS taught art and enjoyed photography. JOAN SATHE, learned to drive a school bus this year. Smiling WESLEY SCOTT founded the new Industrial Arts Club. School secretary, EUNICE SHANKS, often covered as an assistant principal. BARBARA SHEFFIELD taught Latin at Wilson and Draft, but showed favoritism by driving a "Hornet." New J.V. football coach, DAVID SNYDER, snowed all the girls with his smile. GERALD STUMP, Audio-Visual Coordinator and Senior Sponsor was still the most loved teacher at Wilson. DAVID TATE drove a "four wheeled car" to school and directed choral music. Always tanned, IRIS TAYLOR, taught Girl's P.E. and enjoyed week-end camping. ALBERTINE ULTEE taught French and Science this year. PAT VIA sponsored the Social Studies Club and chaired the Social Studies Department. BOB WALTON coached our football team to a winning season and sponsored the FCA. Chairing the Business Department was ROBERT WENGER. Our gourmet cook MARGARET WINE, also sponsored Forensics.

In The News

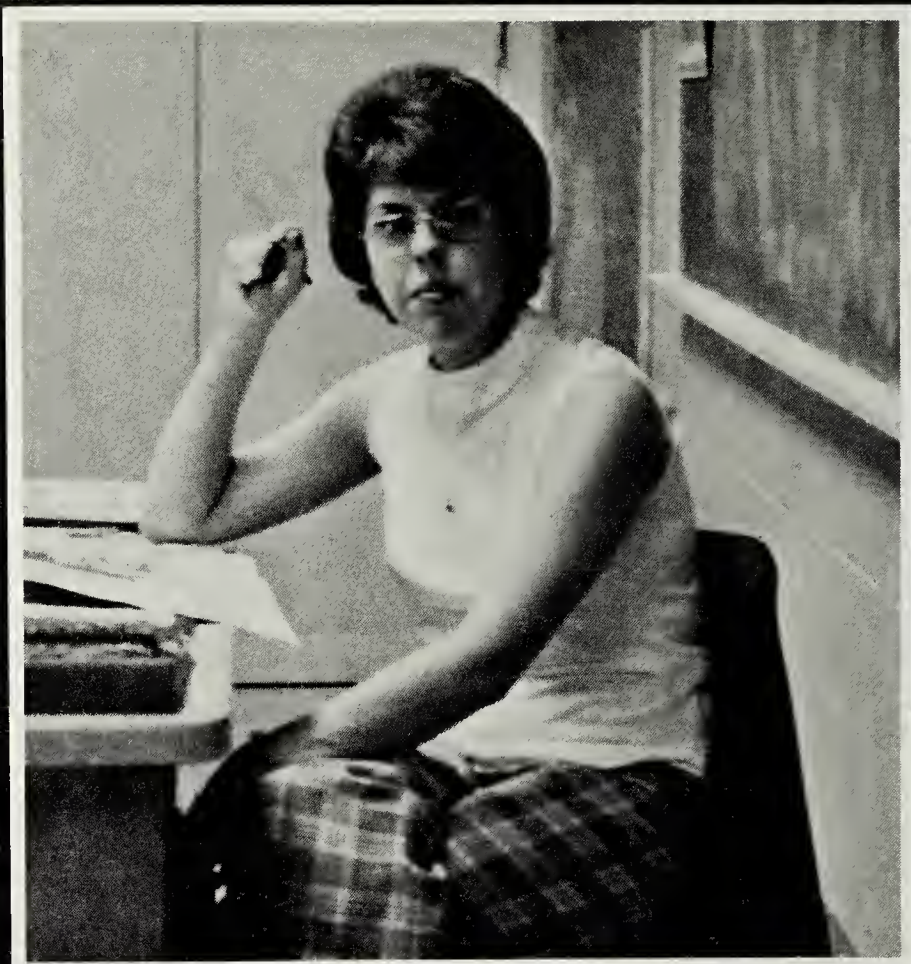

The new 1974-75 series for station WMHS consisted of spirited, fun filled activities. Specials consisted of a Womanless Beauty Pageant sponsored by the Latin Club, The Wayside Theater brought to you by the school, and Tours of areas in and around Virginia. Featured on the Keyettes this season were many parties at VSD and an area nursing home. The NHS, SAE, and FFA filmed segments of their series at Riverheads, Buffalo Gap, and other area schools around the county by having student exchanges and tournaments. Wilson's various clubs featured their own American Bandstand on the average of six or seven times during the season. Did you know what the world record for eating the most bananas or being the fastest sack racer was? These contests were sponsored by the SCA. They also sponsored a foster child, Enrique and helped make Wilson more spirited by having spirit-raising contests and days such as Clash Day and the Penny Parade. The language clubs held banquets of various kinds. The new Drill Team, Majorettes, and Band also had their share of activities. They were featured in area parades, performed at the football games, and gave concerts at the local elementary schools. This and more was featured on station WMHS this season. Read and find out about these activities.

Greg Hensley, Donna Owenby, and Penny Bashlor dance to the music of Whetstone Bridge at the Homecoming Carnival.

Miss Armentrout has been the competent producer of the SCA for 3 repeated performances.

The directors of the SCA this year are Mitzi Roadcap, Sue Delong, Montine Jordan, Jennifer Boccock and Penny Bashlor.

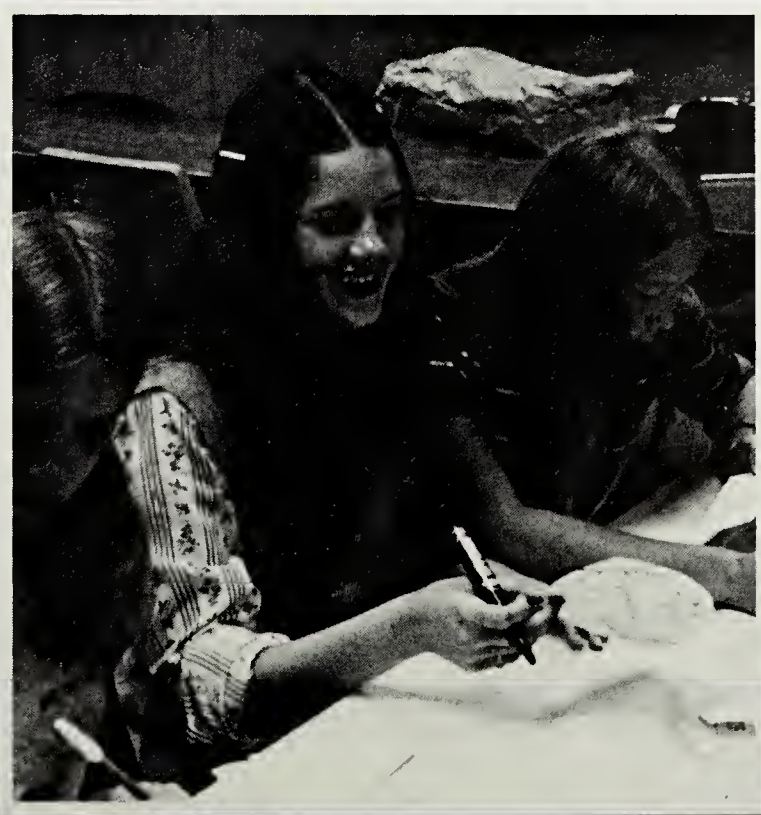

A Close-Up View Of The SCA

A close-up view of the SCA revealed many exciting shows. The main plots this year were more communication through rap sessions and exchanges with other schools, more cast participation through the Junior Olympics of 1975, and a fund raising telethon "Penny Parade." Three presentations of American Bandstand were brought to you by the SCA this year. The pilot "Neckin' Party" in September featured a Wilson re-run, Whetstone Bridge. The other shows in the series were "The Homecoming Carnival" starring Barnstorm, shown in October, and "Soc Hop" in January. A special program sponsored by the SCA this season was Enrique, our foster child from the Philippines. Another production of the SCA on station W T O N were special radio programs heard every other month. Your SCA worked diligently on this year's show and merits an Emmy!

Vocational Aspirations

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB: ROW 1: L. Via, M. Chapman, B. Thomas, J. Green, C. Moyer, R. Bryant, P. Showers, R. Baldwin and D. Willis.

ROW 2: V. Spears, B. Hull, D. Thomas, D. Johns, D. Coffey, S. Boling, C. Miller, D. Stansberry, G. Lawson, and S. Crickenberger.

LEFT CENTER: Keith Pearson works diligently on his very involved classwork in mechanical drawing. LEFT BOTTOM: James Ratcliff dexterously handles the tools in graphic arts.

Freda Fretwell, Linda Braxton, and Ray Eavey seem really interested in their D.E. program at Wilson Memorial High School.

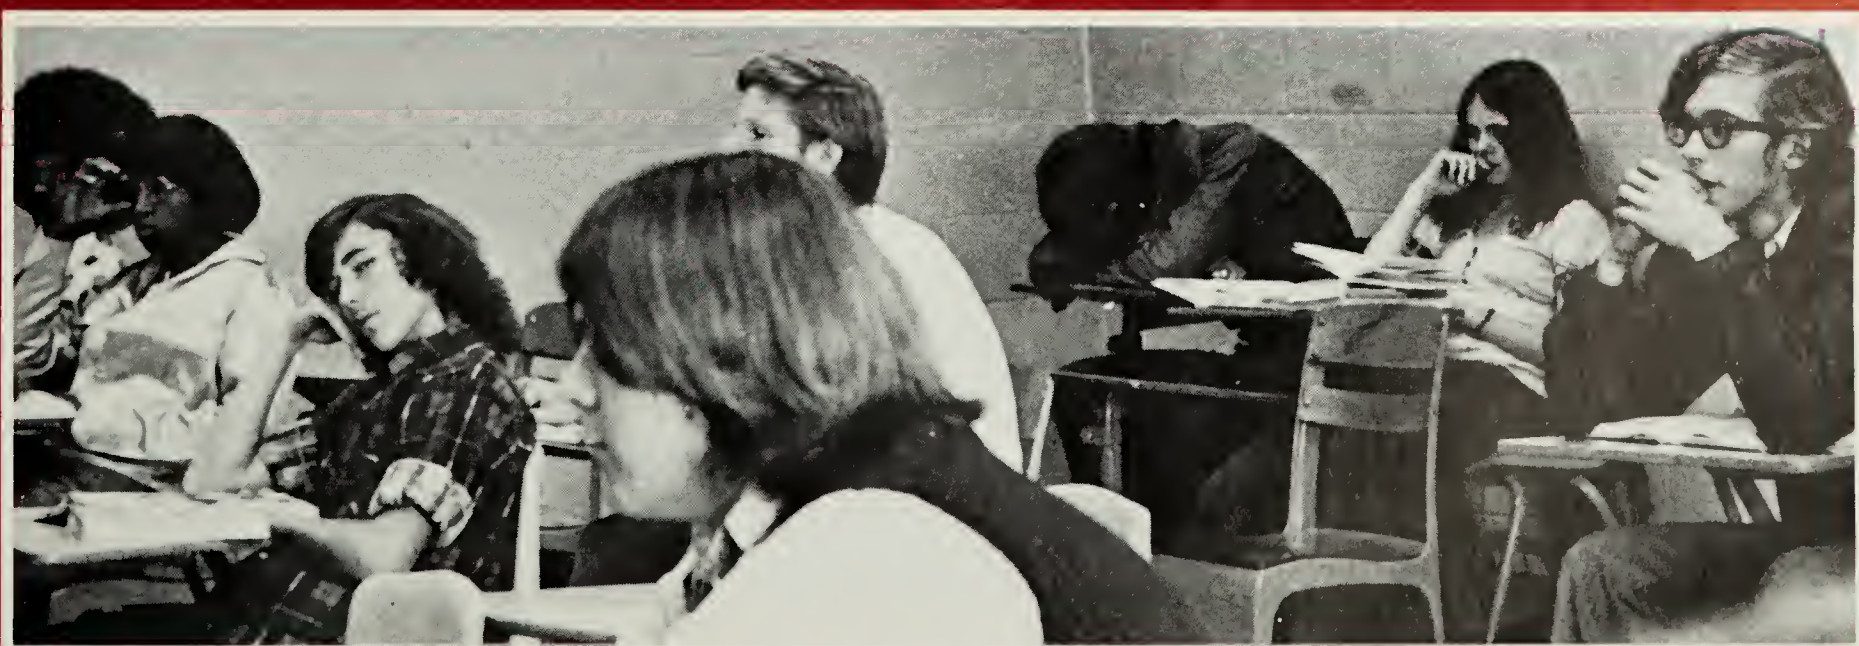

Fred Pence, Jerry Parker, Teresa Smith, and Irvin Hamilton concentrate on building up their speed in typing class.

D. Ralston, R. Woods, K. Underwood, C. Collins, C. Woolford, J. Stevens, D. Johnson, D. Fisher, and F. Surface as they really are in bookkeeping.

Greg Veney, Linda Braxton, Al Seckinger, Don Simmons, Bill Tillman, Susan Martin, and Steve Glendye listen attentively to Mr. Kelly in Distributive Education.

What's my line? The directors of the Business, Industrial Arts, and Distributive Education Departments made this question easier to answer for those members of their crew. Through these courses they were able to get a general idea of the occupation they may consider having in the future.

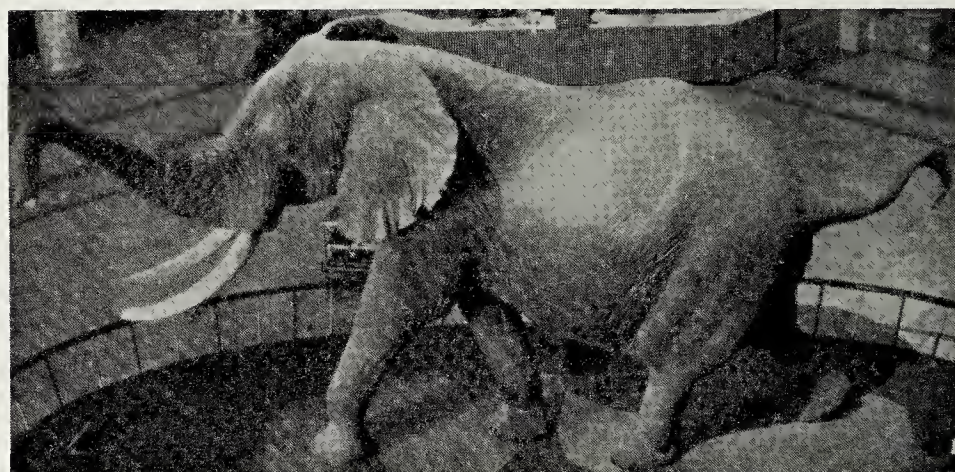

This season the Business Department stressed to their viewers the basic skills they needed to further their studies beyond high school, and on the job. General business, typing, and bookkeeping courses were available. The VVTC was also available for those wanting further training.

The Industrial Arts department's objective for the 1974-1975 session was to implement 2 premiere programs. The World of Construction was the 1st year program which was opened to the 8th graders. The World of Manufacturing, the 2nd year program, was open to the 9th graders. But most of all they wanted to give their crew some career guidance.

The Distributive Education series included showing their cast how to prepare themselves for full-time employment in the field of distribution. It also served as a background for those who planned to continue advanced training on the college level.

Would you like to have learned more in Math, Science and Social Studies before you graduated? This year was your chance. The Science Department had many objectives for its students. They were to have learned the basic scientific principals, to establish the fundamental skills, etc. They achieved this through science classes and also through a Science Club. For its activities they took several trips, one of which was to Washington, D.C., sponsored a science fair, and had speakers to give talks on scientific subjects. The Math Department's main objective this year was to study carefully the textbooks presented and to recommend for adoption those books that will benefit the students next year.

In the news: Israel! Russia! Egypt! The casts belonging to the seven segments of the Social Studies Department played their roles by keeping up-to-date on reports sent in from all four corners of the world. Students contributed to the show with rap sessions under their directors supervision.

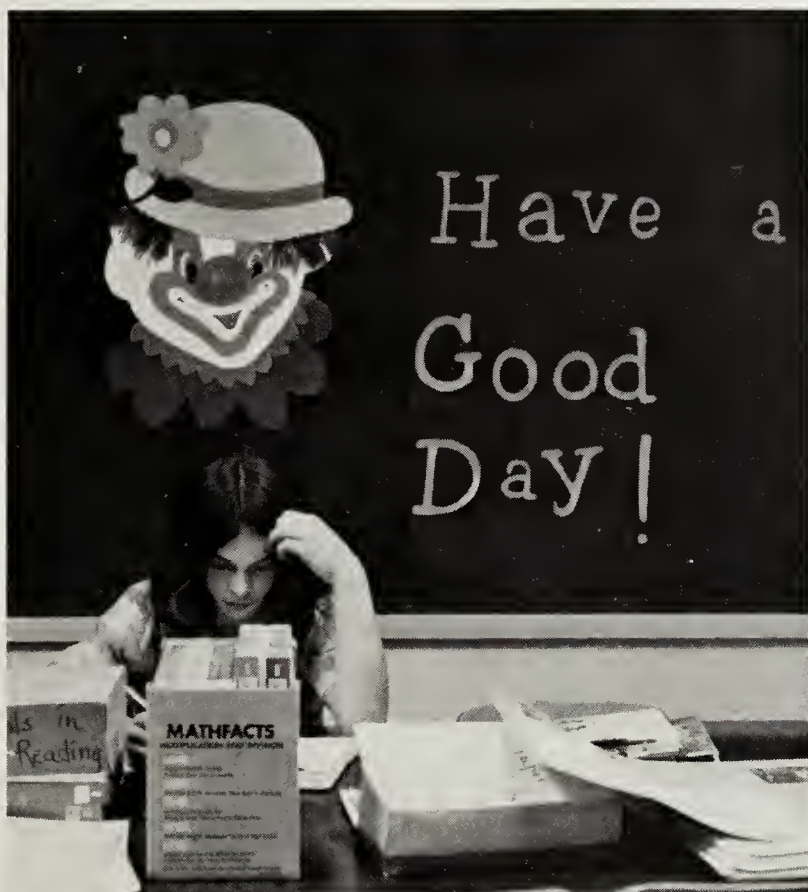

Dr. William Orr acted as guest at an Augusta County Cancer Society Assembly sponsored by the Social Studies Club.

Students, in sixth period Humanities class, seemed to enjoy "Sophocles." But look closer, are their books upside down?

Special Education Cast And Busdriving Crew

This season Wilson Memorial was happy to announce the premiere performance of the Special Education Department. This new course was under the direction of Mrs. Sathe. The Special Education course was a success the 1974-1975 term, and hopefully it will be as big a success in years ahead.

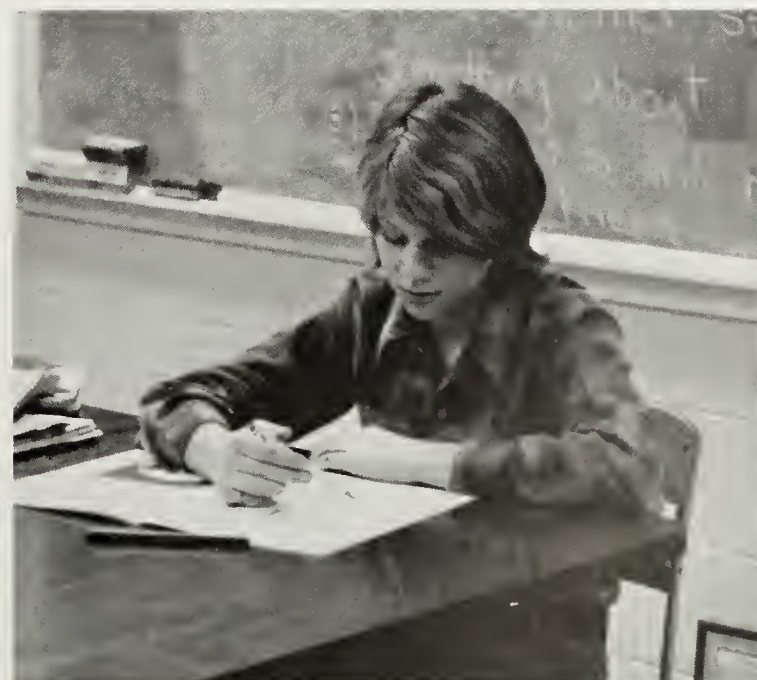

One of the most vital roles at Wilson belonged to the Student Bus Drivers. Their day began early to get us to school, and ended late to get us home. Entrusted with the lives of fellow students, these stars attended many county safety meetings during the year.

Have a good day is the message on the bulletin board. Gary

This season the English Department of Wilson Memorial High School wanted their cast to absorb all the different aspects in the courses. Successful passing of English 8 through 12 was one important requirement necessary for graduation. Advanced Composition, Speech and Drama, and Creative English were available alternate courses. In these classes the actresses and actors could expand their creative talents. The Block Program for the crew of 11th and 12th graders proved again to be another learning experience for its 5th straight year.

Mrs. Ultee, sponsor of the French Club, samples food from different countries at the International Banquet.

This year the Foreign Languages have studied many "Other People, Other Places." The French and Latin Clubs joined with the Social Studies Club to have an international banquet.

This year the Latin Club wrote up a new Charter. It held a lot of exciting activities including a picnic, and in April they celebrated Latin Week. As an encore they again sponsored a Womanless Beauty Pageant, with the Varsity Club.

The French Club went on many trips this season, including a trip to Richmond and a French play held in Charlottesville. Also there was the yearly banquet at Mrs. Ultee's.

The Spanish Club was very active this term. They had a banquet, two bake sales to raise money, a dinner at La Hacienda Restaurant, and a Christmas party featuring a pinata.

"Look Up And Live" With The Fellowship of Christian Athlet- es At Wilson High

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes was a success for the 1974-1975 school term. Thus making it a hit for the second year in a row. The club consisted of a crew of fine performers. Anyone who was interested in joining the club could because it was open to everyone. Mr. Walton was the club's director.

"The Girls In Our Life . . ."

"The Girls In Our Life" here at Wilson featured the energy filled Keyettes. Miss Kren Puffenberger directed the girls volunteer projects such as parties at the Nursing Home and a V.S.D. Christmas Caroling filled many area citizens hearts with the seasons spirits. Their special of the year, the Christmas Dance, provided fun entertainment for both the students and the faculty. More episodes of the Keyettes busy schedule showed them serving the teachers delicious refreshments and having a Bake Sale as a money raising scheme. Keyettes made us proud this year to call them a part of Wilson.

"What's That Tune"

"What's That Tune" was a question asked by many spectators during performances given by the Band. The Band with their new addition, the Drill Team, and Majorettes performed at all home football games, and in area parades. The Band gave a Christmas and a Spring Concert. The Drill Team led by Mrs. Mizer, and the Majorettes sponsored by Miss Cook worked hard on routines for football games and parades. These units were well received by many fans. With the help of their leaders they were very successful.

Terry Crickenberger, Jerry Ridgeway, Mike Fitzgerald and Kerry Hershey practice for Regional Chorus, in which they will represent Wilson.

"Creativity Corner"

Creative Kenneth Taylor works on finishing his abstract art project made of clay by marking the work with geometric shapes. Fun and hard work both happen in Mr. Newton's 5th period art class when the projects must be done on time.

Here are some of the cast from the Senior Play "Bus Stop". Actresses Wendy Walters, Teresa Nacrelli, and Mitzi Roadcap, along with actor Mike Smith work on memorizing their lines and actions at play practice.

The crew from the Drama Department worked many long hours on their production of "Bus Stop". This play was produced by the actresses and actors from the Senior Class. The One Act Play gave a good showing at Festival. The spring musical starred.

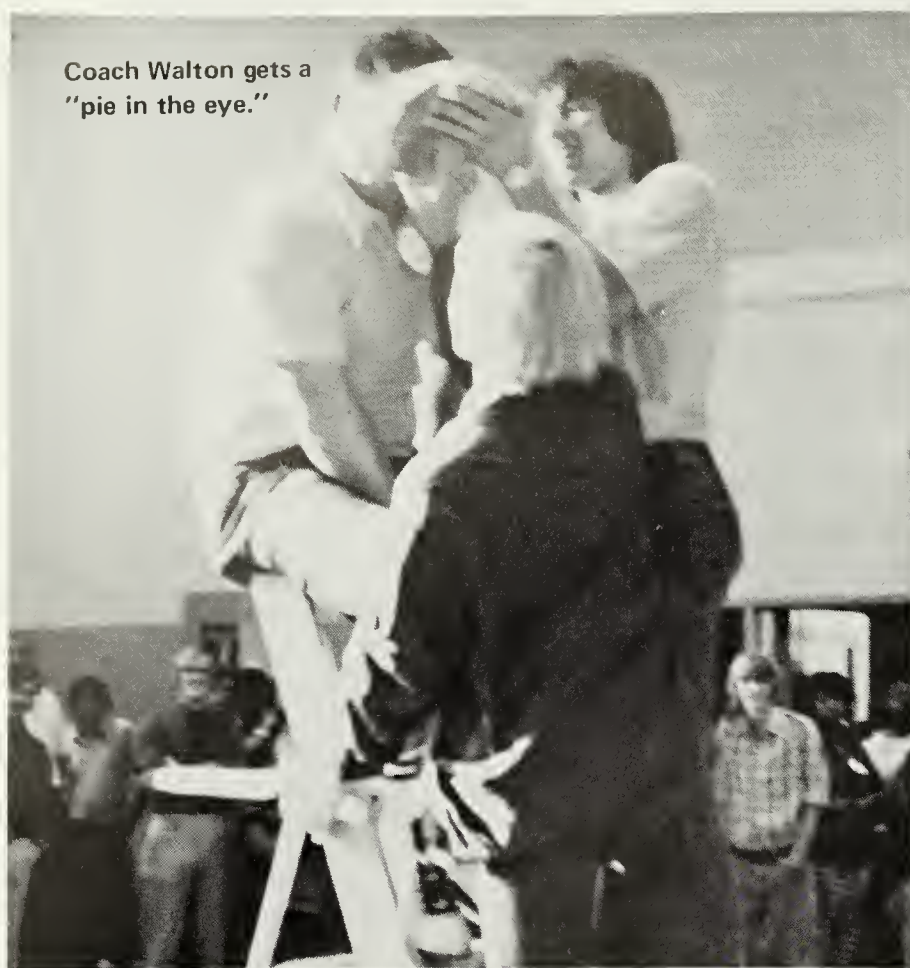

The Art Department for the 1974-1975 school term consisted not only of Mr. Newton, but also Mrs. Rasys. Both of the teachers' courses in art allowed their crew to express their feelings and creativity in material form.

"The Singing Sergeants" this season, under the direction of Mr. Tate, were proven again to be a fabulous group of talented performers. The 39 Sergeants did an excellent job of performing at school assemblies, and other projects outside of school. Also their performance of the National Anthem at the home basketball games was always beautiful to hear. Besides "The Singing Sergeants" the Choral Department offered Advanced Chorus, General Music I, and General Music II.

"Variety is the Name" is a game that many students from area high schools participated in at the Valley Vocational Technical School. The school, located near Wilson, trains students in various fields of job occupations. This year the Carpentry classes put many long hours into the building of a house which will be sold when completed. Girls wanting to become a secretary can get a head start by attending the Secretarial or Clerical classes that are offered. Auto-Mechanics and Auto-Body Repair are presented to the ones with an interest in cars. There's an Ornamental Horticulture class for plant lovers, and if food is your thing — Food Service would be just right. Other courses available are Cosmetology, LPN, Data Processing, Metal Fabrication, and Plumbing, Heating, and Air Conditioning.

Putting their knowledge of cars to use in second year Auto-Mechanics, Gary Ralston and James McChesney work to put this one in running order.

NHS Students "Get Smart"

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY OFFICERS: President—Gay Leach, Secretary—Gail Day, Vice President—Montine Jordan, and Treasurer—Charles Simpkins.

Richard Baldwin, a newly tapped member of the NHS receives his key of recognition from the president, Gay Leach.

The National Honor Society students starred in "Get Smart" this year. They were not selected entirely upon academic achievements, but also on attitudes and involvement. The series consisted of many exciting shows. New members of the cast were tapped twice this year and were invited to two induction banquets. Some of the shows were taped at basketball games where bake sales were held to raise funds for the series. Also several spots were filmed at other schools, co-starring other NHS members.

NHS: ROW 1: Gay Leach, Gail Day, Donna Fisher, Vickie Coyner, Jo Holsinger, Melinda Altizer, Sara Lucas, Pat Lucas, Debbie Mullens. ROW 2: Steve Newton, Kevin Moomaw, Mike Fitzgerald, Sharon Agnor, Pat Martin, Terry Pangle, Tammy Payne, Richard Baldwin, Will Mowry. ROW 3: Jean Wiseman, Mitzi Roadcap, Tim Knebel, Sara Flinton, Montine Jordan, Cathy, Diana Hiner, Debra Sheffer, Beth Orr, Anita Layman. ROW 4: Micky Brown, Bud Wilkins, Bruce Johnson, Bob Johnson, Eddie Mahler, Ron Houser, Scott Fauber, Steve Sipe, Charles Simpkins, Mark Sensabaugh. ROW 5: Cynthia Powell, Karen Siron, Jill Stone, Jan Stone, Dale Snyder.

Soda Is For "Kid Power"

Tom Curtis and partner, Rhoda Harper talk to the kids on their own level.

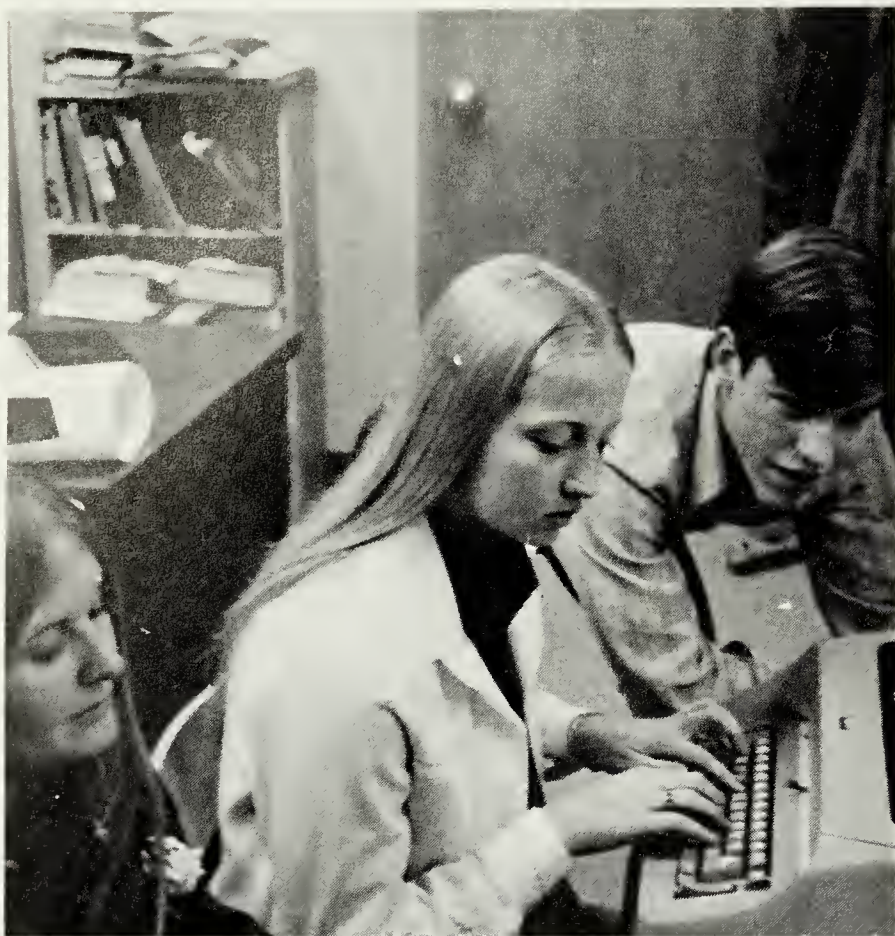

Heidi Landau and Derek McDaniel play a question and answer game with the Special Ed. class.

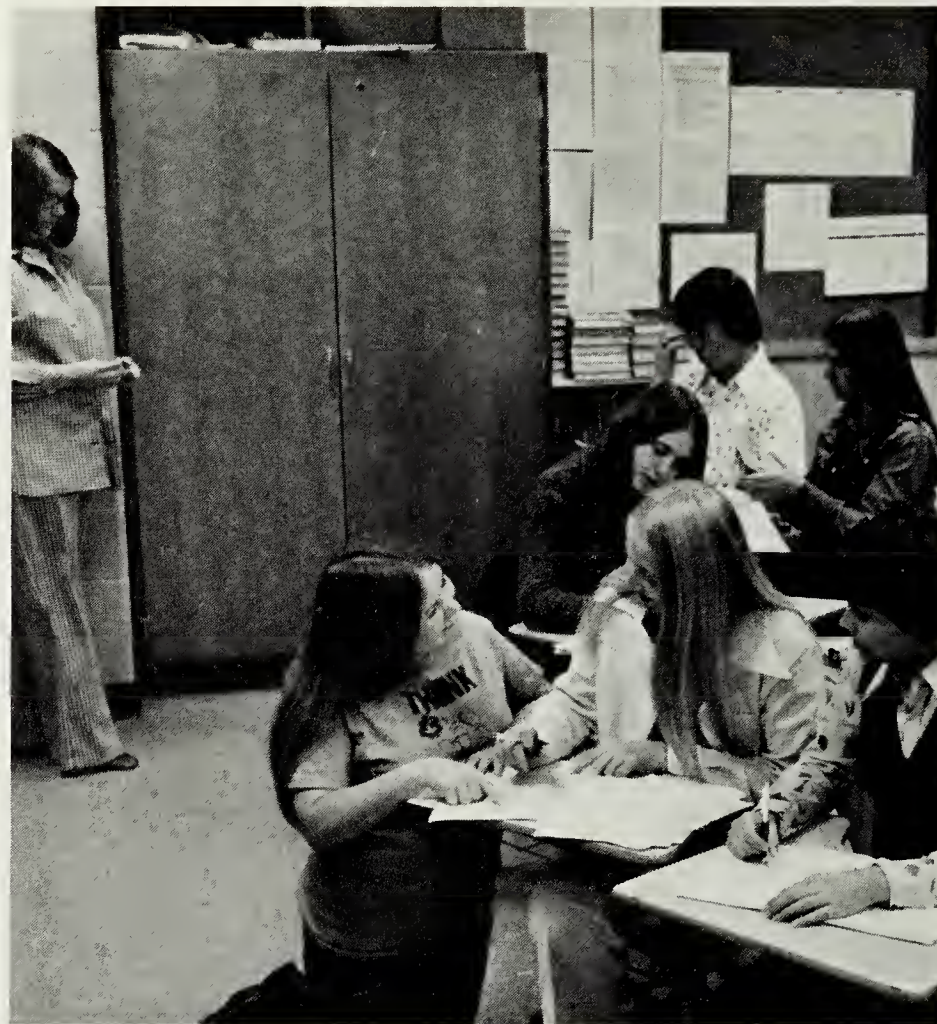

ROW 1: J. Shaw, R. Baldwin, J. Runkle, A. Braden, A. Hailey, T. Knebel, J. Wiseman, M. Brown, D. Snyder. ROW 2: T. Bishop, M. Perkins, S. Harper, B. Hull, K. Gorsuch, H. Landau, L. Pederson, M. Jordan, T. McDaniel, D. McDaniel. ROW 3: R. Harper, G. Painter, T. Curtis, J. Holsinger, M. Altizer, T. Jones, D. Curtis, T. Talley, K. Sayre. ROW 4: S. Kyle, K. Siron, D. Via, G. Quesenbery, M. Sensabaugh, B. Orr, D. Hiner, P. Bashlor, S. Crickenberger. ROW 5: D. Menefee, B. Johnson, B. Johnson, B. Wilkins, S. Lucas, M. Andrews, M. Smith, W. Mowry, T. Hoffman, D. Stansberry.

"Kid Power" was supported by the School's Organization for Developing Attitudes this season. Members of SODA visited their classrooms monthly to be with the children and hopefully install some positive values. The elementary schools that participated in the filming of the show were Fishersville, Wilson, Crimora, and Hugh K. Castle. The cast of "Kid Power" was required to spend a weekend of training on filming procedure led by the directors, Alta Curtis and Wilson Gunn. A premiere program was originated this season with the Special Ed. Classes. The special consisted of taking them to the YMCA weekly for free time, and swimming instructions in the pool. The filming of "Kid Power" has proved rewarding to the SODA cast and the "kids."

"The Sting" and "The Waltons" Prove Popular

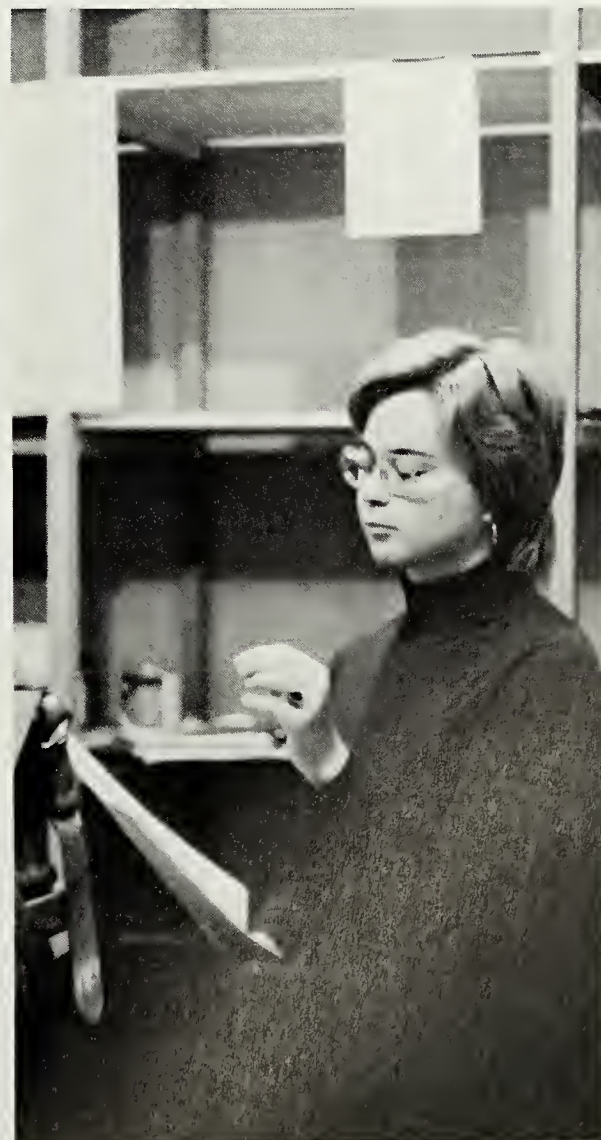

Some members of the Annual Staff and Debbie Rex-rode, co-editor, look over plans for a deadline.

The script for the production of "The Hornet's Nest" took a lot of head-pounding sessions for the staff to meet their deadlines. They had a chance to live like "The Waltons," suffering hardships and sharing in the love of working like a big family. Mother of the Waltons, Miss Lewis, also shared in the experiences of hardship, love and fun. She was always there when we needed her.

The cast of "The Sting" suffered many problems, too. They put out "The Sting" several times during the year along with getting out of debt from last year. Overall, both had good outcomes.

Mama Walton, Miss Lewis, gives a lecture to the Annual Staff on how to avoid copy errors on the next deadline.

To see how THE WALTON'S keep peace in the family, the Annual Staff takes time out to go visit the barn and animals.

Special Series From "Today On The Farm" And "The Homemakers Line"

Debbie Lipe's smiling face proves that "Another Saturday Night" commences to be another successful Sadie Hawkins Dance.

"Today on the Farm" doesn't have to mean all work and no play and Mr. Moffett and Mr. McCoy prove this to their Agriculture classes and to the F.F.A. This year the students competed in such events as Public Speaking Contest, a Mechanical Judging Contest and also a Co-op Contest. All of the county's F.F.A. officers held a Federation Meeting at Valley Tech. Students looked forward to attending the F.F.A. and 4-H sponsored Fat Stock show and sale.

"The Homemakers Line," produced by Miss Dutton and Mrs. Huffman, prepared our girls for life in today's world. The Home Ec. classes and the F.H.A. sponsored the successful Sadie Hawkins Dance and also performed in a Fashion Show. They starred in such volunteer projects as a Christmas party at V.S.D. and Shut-In-Visits at the District Home. To raise money they had a Bake Sale and a Cookbook Sale. A picnic-banquet with the F.F.A. ended the year.

GE HAS THE FUTURE FOR YOU

Someone once said: "A company is known by the men it keeps." Today that slogan should read "A company is known by the men and women it keeps." Yes, things have changed considerably, and for the better, since the days of old. But one thing that has not changed is the quality of GE's work force.

Yes, a company is known by the men and women it keeps and GE prides itself on retaining the finest group of employees worldwide. You see, we believe, and have always believed, people make a company; and the best people make the best company. That is why GE would like to have you, the young graduate, take a look at us and consider a career with General Electric. We have a diverse array of fields to encompass everyone, from the technically inclined to the community service oriented. Come check us out. A company can never have too much of the best.

WHAT YOU SHOULD ASK YOUR EMPLOYER

1. PAY. You should request at least $344.10 per month to start. Request regular promotions with increases in pay for promotion and years of employment ($383.40 a month after 4 months training) with additional pay and fringe benefits for married personnel.
2. VACATION. Request 30 days paid vacation every year starting with your first year. Request low rate or free world travel privileges any time while on vacation.
3. EDUCATION. You should continue your education while you work and the company should pay 75 per cent of these educational costs. If selected for college, your tuition should be paid and your normal salary continued.
4. ALLOWANCES. Ask your employer for a clothing allowance. About $300.00 for initial outfitting and at least $6.00 a month to maintain and/or replace worn-out clothing. Request a cost of living allowance and quarters allowances for your wife and family.
5. LEISURE. You should have company operated clubs for your leisure time. Swimming pools, tennis courts, movies and libraries should be added features to expect. Prices should be minimal or free with no fees for joining.
6. MEDICAL CARE. You should have unlimited sick leave with normal salary during the entire period. Any medical or dental care for yourself should be absolutely free, along with free medical care for your family.
7. MARKETING. The company should operate grocery, department, laundry, variety, and other stores which reduce your expenses up to 30 per cent.
8. RETIREMENT. Your retirement plan should feature 50 per cent of pay after 20 years to 75 per cent of pay after 30 years, with no contributions on your part. Should you retire for medical reasons, your retirement pay must be tax free. You should be eligible to retire any time after 20 years.
9. TRAVEL. Your employer should agree to relocate you, at your request anywhere in the United States or free world, pay your travel expenses up to six cents per mile and move your household effects free of charge. If married, agree to pay for your dependents travel and one month's extra quarters allowance each time you move.
10. BONUSES. Your employer should be willing to pay you up to $10,000.00 cash bonus to stay with him after 21 months.

to the Graduating Class

You have already been told that the world is at your feet and is yours for the effort, that the challenges are great as are the rewards. There is no doubt that is true.

Let us add this. You have just conquered one major hurdle in your life-graduating from school. You did it by taking one day at a time, one week at a time, one test at a time. That's the way life is—one step at a time. And each step builds on the one before it. "Genius is the capacity to take infinite pains." Few of us are geniuses but each of us owes it to himself to do every task to the best of his ability and in his own inimitable way.

Each of us has a contribution to make to society. What yours is and will be is now in the making.

The 1975 HORNETS' NEST was printed by Delmar Printing Company, Charlotte, N. C. The 9 by 12, 180 page book, 16 page supplement, was printed on Contemporary Matte paper. Headlines were 24 pt. Univers Bold; body copy, 11 pt. Univers Bold; and picture identifications were 8 pt. univers Bold. Thirteen pages were spot colored in either 100%, 202 Red or 100%, 213 Green. The lithographed cover, designed by Mr. Kenneth Newton was white with three applied colors—red, green, and black.

A Summer Supplement to your WM GUIDE will arrive in August. It is self adhesive and fits neatly between this page and the next.

June graduates should leave a forwarding address with the Annual Staff.

The Oakgrove Baptist Choir and director Theodore Payne provided entertainment at the Black History Week Assembly.

The Last Happenings of the Winter Months

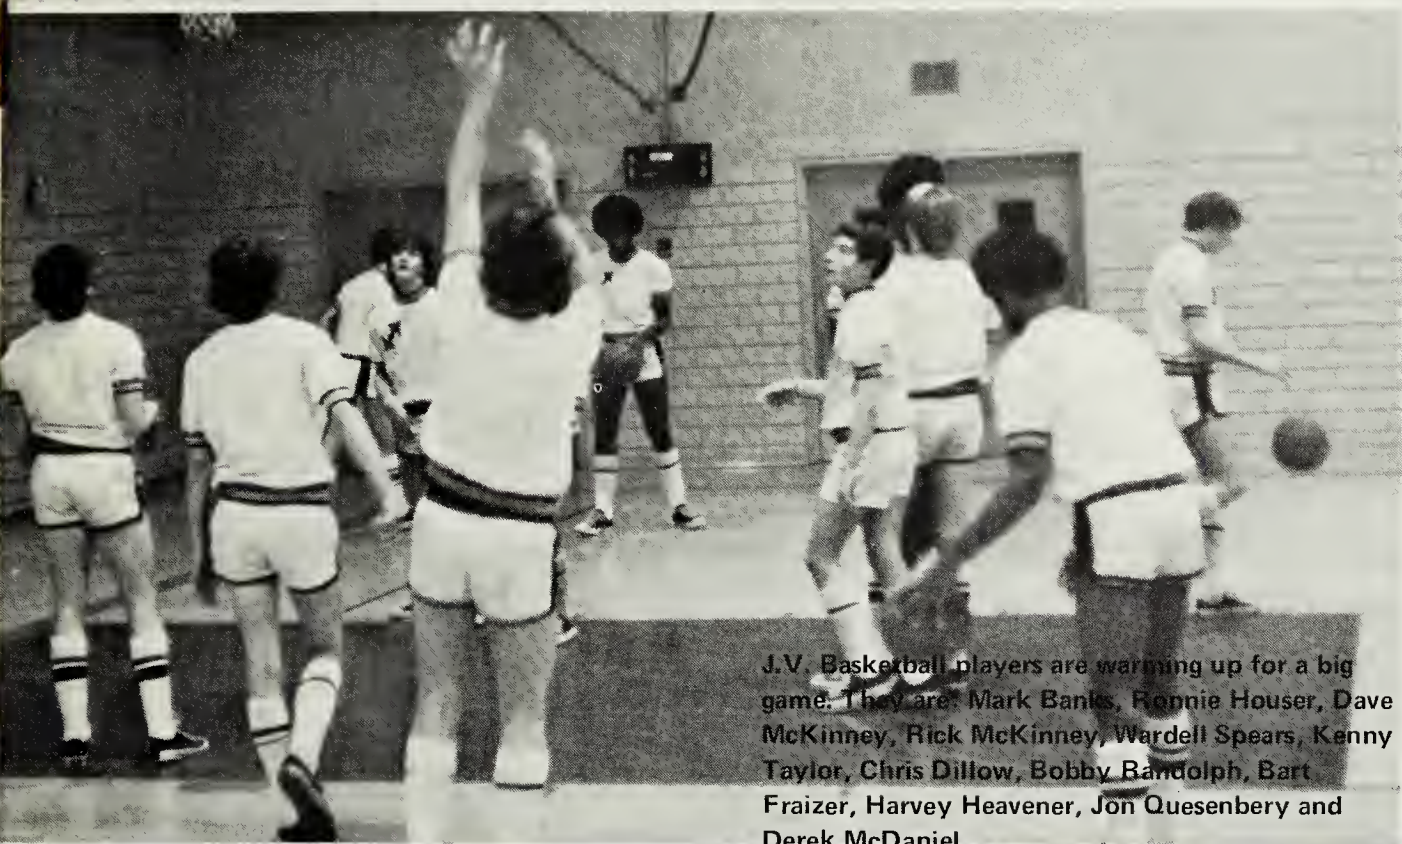

Station WMHS broadcasted "Winter Specials" loud and clear. One of our specials dealt with Black History Week. An assembly with Mrs. Janice Campbell as speaker was given.

The Sweet Heart Dance was the next special featured. Barnstorm provided the music for the cast of dancers.

Intramural games were another attraction. The Senior Women defeated the Women faculty with a score of 20 to 2. The Mens faculty won over the Senior guys 18 to 73.

Finally the winter specials came to a close with the very hard working Junior Varsity players finishing with an overall record of 15 wins and only 4 losses.

WMHS was now ready for their "Spring Spectacular."

J.V. Basketball players are warming up for a big game. They are: Mark Banks, Ronnie Houser, Dave McKinney, Rick McKinney, Wardell Spears, Kenny Taylor, Chris Dillow, Bobby Randolph, Bart Fraizer, Harvey Heavener, Jon Quesenbery and Derek McDaniel.

Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Baker seem to be taking notice of some of the students during an intermission at the Sweet Heart Dance.

Mrs. Gordon and Sarah Flintom seem to be wondering which side has the ball.

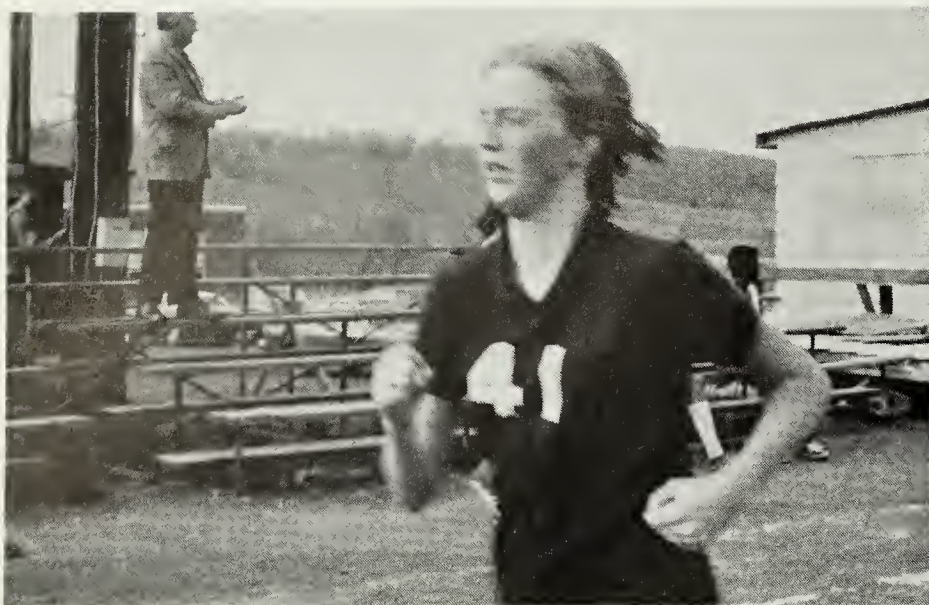

Janice Campbell spoke at Black History Week during the Black History Week assembly.

Mr. Costa is showing some of his fancy footwork while Stuart Veney moves in.

"Winning Streak"

Debbie Thompson goes for another win as she went to the State Meet.

Kristie Hershey receives the baton from Vickie Baber in the 440 relay.

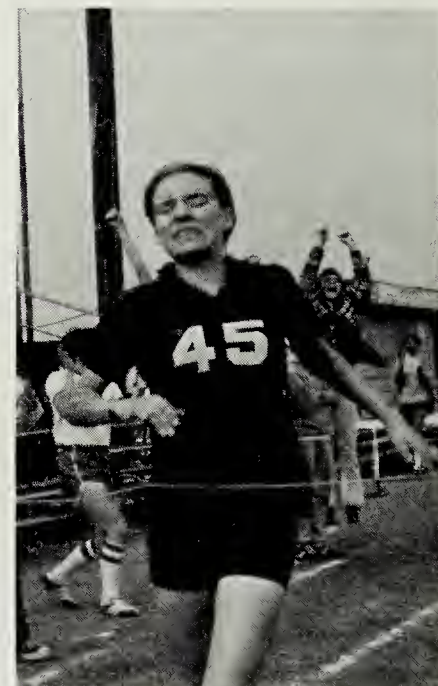

Jill Stone blasts out of the blocks in the 100 against Fort.

GIRLS' TRACK RECORD

3-1 regular season
2nd place in District
4th place in Region
9 representatives to State

Joyce McCauley heaves the shot.

Melinda Altizer strains to 1st place.

Sara Flintom steps over a low hurdle on her way to win.

Vickie Baber floats out in the pit.

Melinda Lucas clears the hurdle in the 80-yd. lows.

"Split Second"

Ivan Whitley lengthens his stride to increase his lead against Fort.

Girls continued their rerun "Winning Streak" in Spring Track this year. They ended the season with a 3 and 1 record. Although many meets were rained out, this didn't dampen their spirits. A new thing in Girls' Track was a J.V. team and they won their only meet also.

The boys' Varsity Track team couldn't seem to grasp victory as easily with a 2-9 record. However the spirits continued up and they didn't allow defeat to upset them. The J.V. team had a year of improving with strong coaching and several meets. Coach Geiman was busy teaching the fundamentals and trying to place the right athletes in the right event. The track future at Wilson is very optimistic by the interest being sparked for future runners.

Kenny Fisher skims over this hurdle on his way to victory.

Mark Johns shows his determination as he closes to the end of the 2-mile trek.

Doug Conyers strains to reach 20 feet in the broad jump at Stuarts Draft.

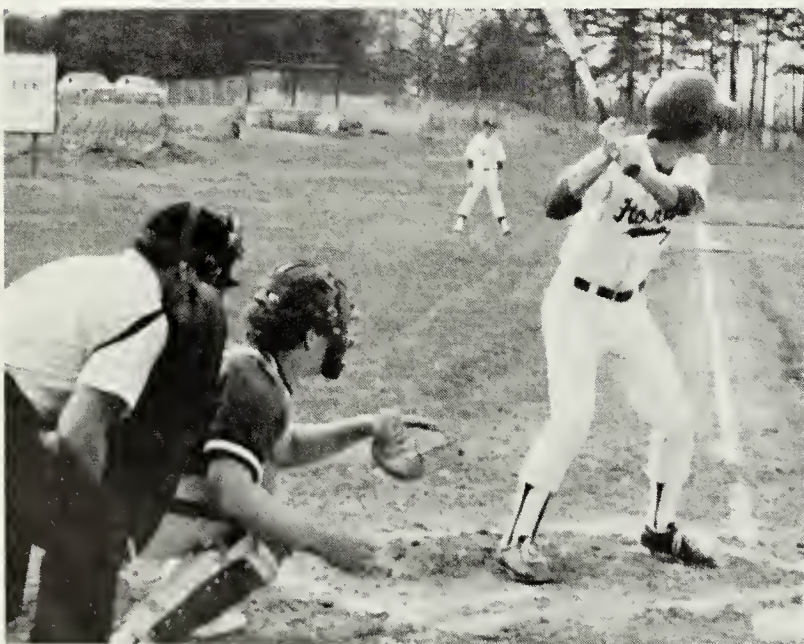

Mitch Woodard breezes in to win the 220 against Stuarts Draft.

Hornet Baseball Is Thrown A Curve

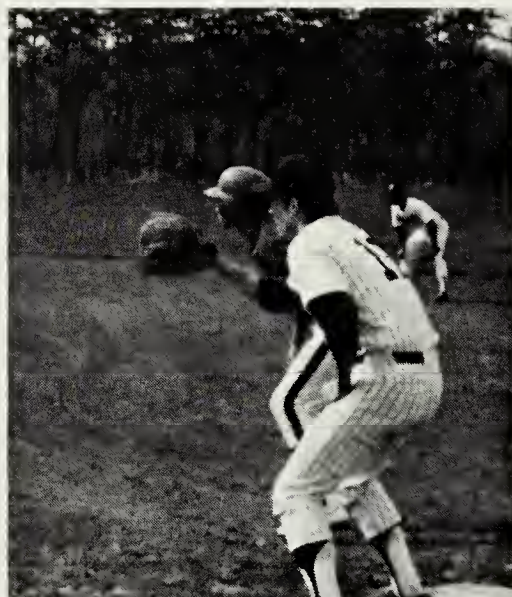

Although the Hornet Baseball season got off to a soggy start, the weather had little effect on their steadily improving game. The rain was a problem as it caused some lost time in practice, and it wasn't unusual to end up playing a game in a steady drizzle of rain. But the weather improved, as did the Hornets overall baseball record and with one make-up game to play, we found ourselves tied for second in the district with Stuarts Draft. Since only the first two teams were allowed to go on to regionals, this was a must game for the continuation of our season. After being called off again due to rain, the game was finally played with Stuarts Draft the winner in a close and well played ball game. So even though the season ended on a sour note, the team could still be proud of their performance.

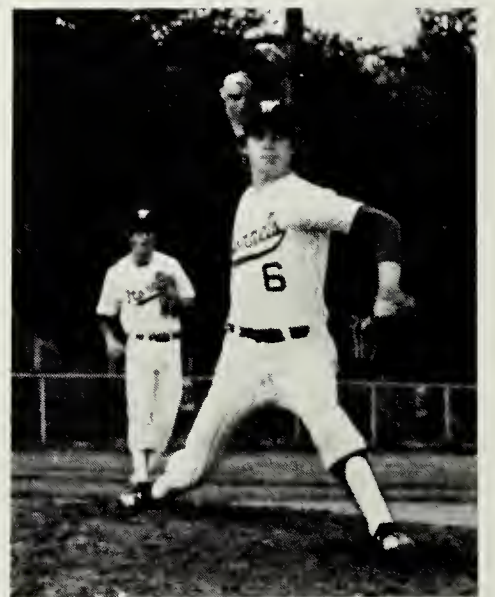

Dale Snyder, crouched like a snake, awaits what he hopes will be a strike.

Mighty Casey at the bat, Danny Menefee waits for his pitch.

Bob Johnson alertly guards first base.

Just watch this Danny, says Derek.

The Score Is

Hornets		Opponents
5	Elkton	2
6	Elkton	1
21	Buffalo Gap	1
1	Waynesboro	15
4	Waynesboro	3
5	Lee	4
15	Bath County	5
13	Rockbridge	9
4	Parry McClure	3
12	Natural Bridge	2
22	Highland Co.	4
4	Buffalo Gap	8
3	Stuarts Draft	6
5	Riverheads	0
5	New Castle	0
4	James River	0
2	Fort Defiance	8

It's all a matter of "VIEWPOINT", just ask Bo. Coach Bo Bowers and the "ump" just can't seem to agree on a solution.

Coach Bo Bowers and "Asst. Coach" Richard Baldwin ponder about what to do next. The remaining members of the team watch their teammates on the field, wishing them luck.

BELOW: It's the bottom of the fourth and the J.V. Hornets are behind 2-0, but John and Robbie will attempt to shift the score.

Jon Quesenbury, backed by a defense that makes less mistakes than an IBM computer, hurls another strike for the Baby Hornets.

The J.V. Baseball team was pushing the J.V. Basketball team hard for the winningest team for the school year. The Baby Hornets won ten games and only lost one, which was to Fort Defiance. This was a fine showing, and Coach Walt Cleavenger and his boys deserve a lot of credit for their fine efforts and accomplishments.

Jon Quesenbury gets the bat around to get wood on the ball while Robbie Cole stands waiting.

Golf was a fairly new sport to many young Hornets, but even so the season proved very successful. The guys, ending with a 3-7 record, worked hard and learned a lot. There was one standout, Bruce Johnson, and throughout the season he represented Wilson at District, Regional and State. He received the most Valuable Player Award at the Sportsman's Banquet. Mr. Jim Cole coached these guys and tried to inspire them with the knowledge of golf that he has.

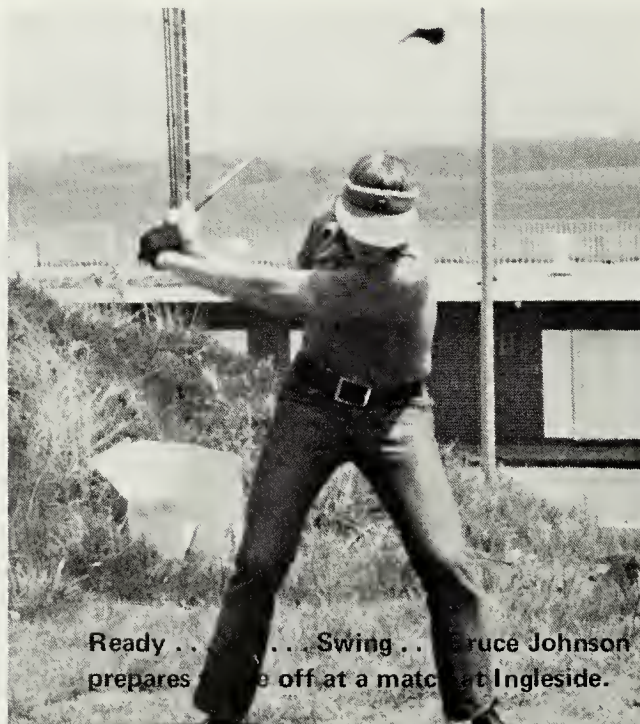

Concentration! Brian Teerlink relaxed before a big match while B. Sheffield, S. Baker and R. Wingfield work out.

School Special"

Cindy displays her forehand as she captures the district championship.

Tennis stars consist of Diana Hiner, Mitzi Roadcap, Beth Orr, Roxie McCauley, Kathy Milstead, Cindy Baldwin, Mary Perkins, Cindy Baldwin, Julie Wertman, Montine Jordan.

The Tennis Team enjoyed many "Good Times" together this year including a 11-3 record. Wilson was represented well in regular season play with Cindy Baldwin, Roxie McCauley, Mary Perkins, and Montine Jordan playing singles and Beth Orr and Cynthia Powell, Julie Wertman and Kathy Milstead, and Diana Hiner and Mitzi Roadcap being the doubles teams. Miss Edith Harlow and Mr. Stuart Moffett directed this crew. Baldwin sported a 10-0 regular season and won the District Singles Title, but was put out of action in Regional Playoffs. She won and truly deserved the Most Valuable Player Award for her excellent showings. The combination team of Perkins and Jordan matched Baldwin's performance at district by walking away with the District Championship. They went on to win the Regional Title and then captured 3rd in State. These girls proved to themselves and others that they were GREAT and joined together to produce a fascinating show — "WMHS Afterschool Special."

Miss Harlow discusses with Melinda Altizer the matches taking place at John Lewis.

Mr. Moffett studies carefully the techniques of each girl as he coaches them on to another victory.

Spring

Wilson students starred in three Spring Specials this year. The excellent play, "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown" started the season with a big bang. The cast of six actors gave a fantastic performance.

The Choral Department put on a memorable show before a pleased and applauding crowd. Two new additions featured the Barbershop and Male Quartets who were big successes. During the concert, Terry Crickenberger and Kerry Hershey accepted their places of honor as the co-winners of the G.W. Sergeant Award.

Mrs. Mizer guided her band through another great night at the Band Concert this year. The "Stars and Stripes Forever" brought a standing ovation from a thrilled audience. Capturing top honors was Scott Fauber with the Citizenship Award, and Jon Ramsey as winner of the Arion Award.

After losing the baseball championship, Charlie Brown relates his dejection to his pen-pal.

T'S SUPPERTIME! Snoopy steals the show with his jubilant dance after Charlie Brown brings him supper. His encore brought even a greater response.

Happiness is . . . Terry Crickenberger as Linus, Joellen Holsinger as Lucy, Gary Via as Charlie Brown, Mike Smith as Snoopy, Cynthia Powell as Pattie and Shroeder as portrayed by Mike Yancey. Director Susan Lewis, filled in the role of Patti in one performance.

Specials

Special guest at Wilson starred the Girls' Choir from Virginia Intermonte College.

"The People's Choice"

Wilson Memorial honored its stars with awards for their outstanding performances during the seasons run. The Rotary Code of Ethics Award was presented to Gay Leach and William Mowry.

Achievement awards in band were presented to Cherry Orr, Kay Meorden, Teri Coiner, Darlene Hamilton, Jan Stone and Larry Todd.

The McDonald's All-American Band Certificate went to Kim Claytor; The Citizenship Award was received by Scott Fauber. The Drum Major Award was presented to Dale Snyder and Kavin Sensabaugh. Jon Ramsey received the Arion Award and also went to Senior High Regional Chorus and All State Chorus.

Tom Jones was the People's Choice for the Betty Crocker Award while Anita Braden was the recipient of the Silversmith Award.

Latin Awards went to Robert Johnson, Rodney Wilkins, Jim Shaw, Bill Johnson, Phyllis Dunnington, Mary Perkins, Georgeanna Marion, and Bruce Johnson.

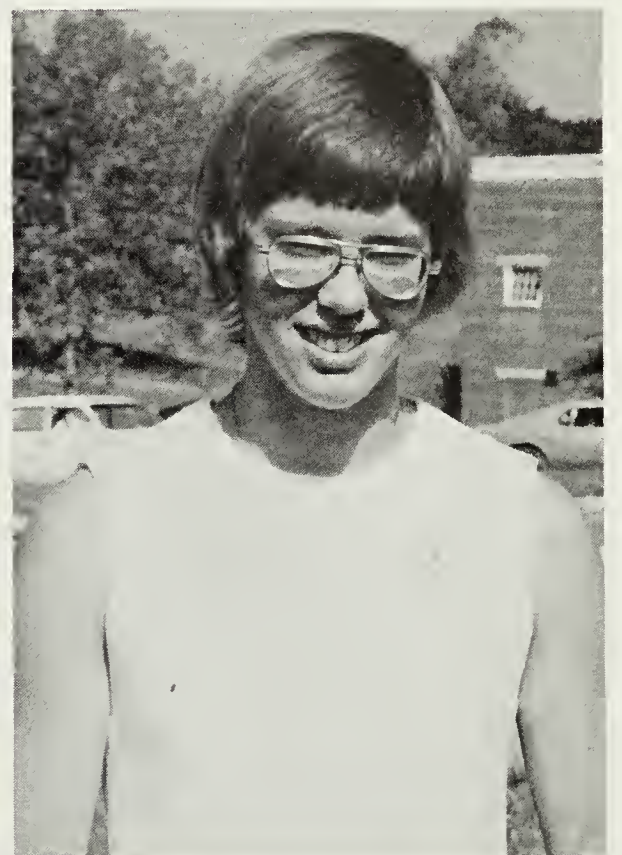

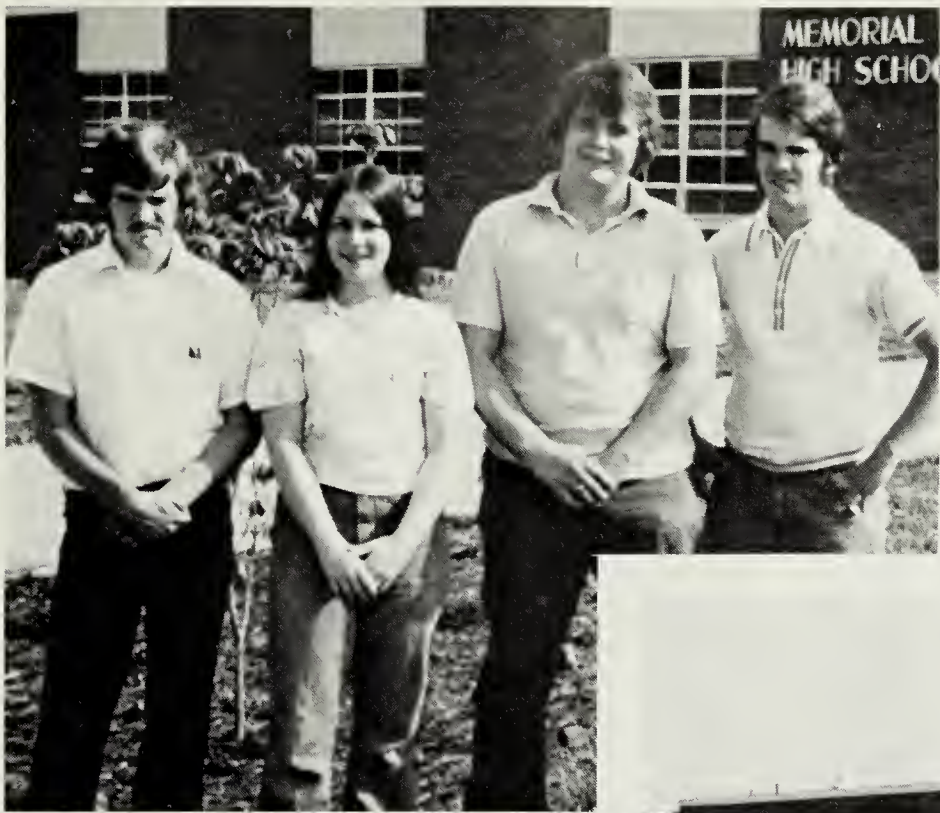

Math Awards went to Gay Leach, Mitzi Roadcap, Tim Knebel, and Kevin Moomaw.

The most Valuable Player Awards went to MeLinda Altizer and Dale Snyder.

Terry Crickenberger and Kerry Hershey shared the G.W. Sergeant Award.

Drama Awards went to Wendy Walters, Mike Smith, Mark and Doug Hudson for best actress and actor and technical. State Awards went to Sam Ramsey, Montine Jordon, Steve Newton, Mitzi Roadcap, Gay Leach, Buddy Wilkins, Scott Fauber.

Gary Cook and Linda LaPorte stand by the fountain.

The "Saturday Night Special" on May 3 was the Junior-Senior Prom. Starring the seniors and hosted by the juniors, the theme was "Sayonara". The music was provided by a Richmond group, "Southern Cross". Special props were the water fountain and the wooden bridge. Although many couples arrived early to find seats, the dance did not commence until 8:00. As each couple arrived, the gentlemen received their fortunes; Japanese style. The ladies were given their fortune and an Oriental fan. Freshman girls, dressed in kimono, served refreshments: cake, punch, nuts and mints. From 8:00 until 9:30, in a small corner at the back of the room, a professional photographer took photographs of the guys and their dates. Miss Cook Sponsored the dance.

Providing music for the cast Saturday night was a band from Richmond, "Southern Cross."

Serving refreshments in kimono are Donna Braden and Natalie Mietus. Kneeling are Cindy Fink and Donna Ownby.

Stopping to take a break and relax while watching the "Saturday Night Special" are Bonnie Higgins, David Douglas, Greg Alford, Jean Tussing, Greg Thompson and Susan Brown.

Excitement mounted as the WMHS Special "Class Night" got closer and closer. Seniors spent many hours after school going over the script to make sure the night would be a success. The program began as the Seniors walked under the arches while the song "Photographs and Memories" played. Skits reflecting back on the memories of the past five years were performed and the class mirror was presented. Mr. Snyder finally allowed the traditional turning of the rings to be performed. Seniors left to the sound of "When Will I See You Again" with a mixture of emotions.

Sunday night at 8:00 p.m. the Baccalaureate Service was held. The Reverend Wyman Ramsey delivered the sermon.

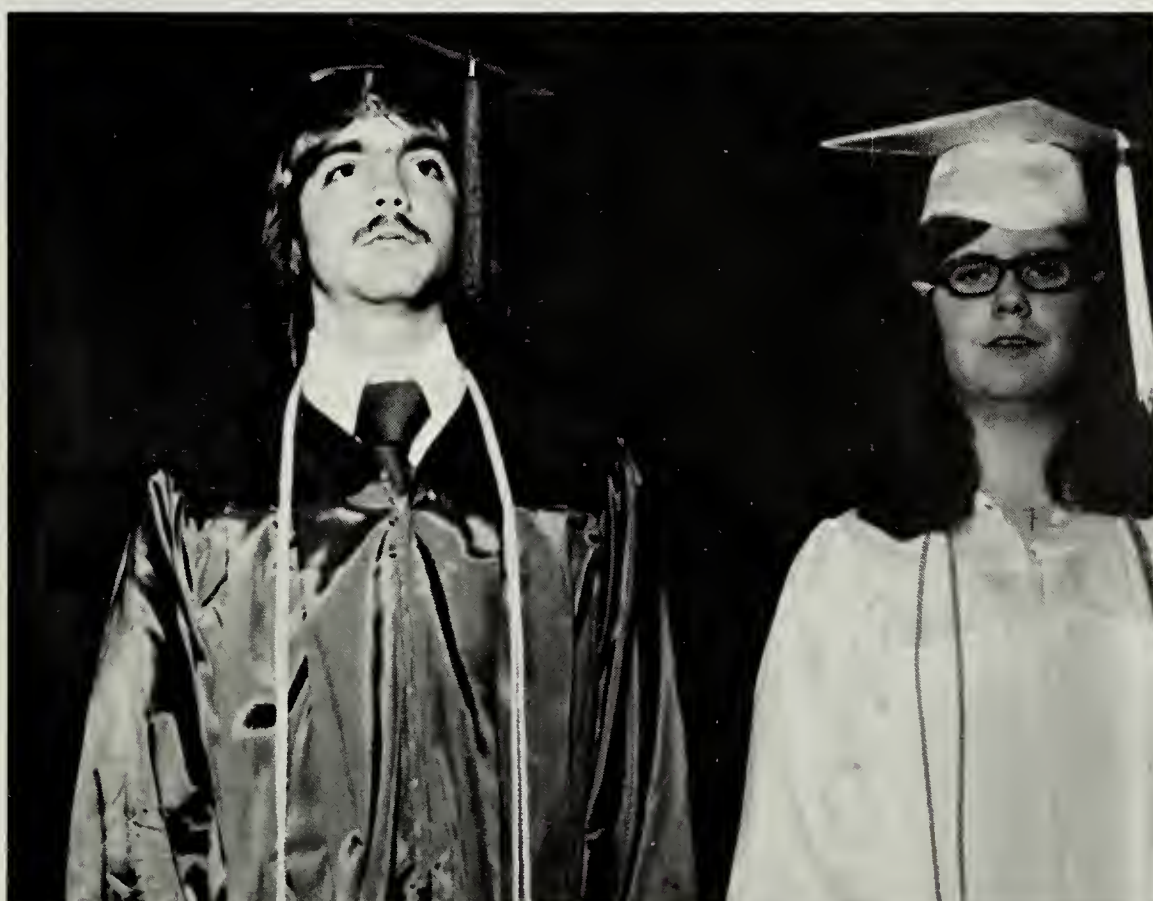

Thursday night, June 5, was that all important time that approximately 162 students had been waiting for for 12 years. Senator Frank Nolen delivered the final address to the Seniors. William Mowry, Gay Leach, and Steve Newton also spoke to the class. Diplomas were handed out and the Seniors were officially graduates of the Class of '75. Their high school days were over and each would have new responsibilities to face and live up to.

Walking under the arch at Class Night, Micky Brown and Sandra Gale seem to be in deep thought about something. Their future maybe?

Finally! Class Night, Graduation

William Mowery, class president for the 74-75 school year addresses the seniors.

Representative, Frank Nolen gives the graduates a pep talk for the future.

Wilson's' children seemed to end the 1974-75 year with a great big bang. Montine Jordan and Mary Perkins went all the way for girls tennis in doubles. Almost every one of our Special Education olympic stars came in first, with a blue ribbon to remember it by. Just knowing that our economical situation had finally started to "perk-up" made almost anything seem possible for the years to come. The war in Vietnam had ended and even though we, the children of Wilson Memorial High School, didn't actually take part in it, we could never say that we hadn't fought the battle in our own minds. With the evacuation of the last American from Saigon, we fought our final, mental battle with Vietnam. Tears of joy and sorrow filled all of our eyes to see the graduating class (wich was the first to complete their five years of new Wilson) leave us. Editors Mark Johnson and Debbie Rexrode would like to thank the children of Wilson Memorial High School for making their job easier with all of the pleasurable and memorable moments you gave them.

Our own special olympic stars include: BOTTOM ROW: Tommy Brosius, Dale Crowe, Bobby Gutshall, and Donnie Moats. TOP ROW: John Woodson, Florence Bryant, Betty Woods, and Jeff Bosserman.

Winners in Forensics this year are: Mitzi Roadcap — 2nd in Regionals for girl's prose, Anita Layman — 2nd in State for Spelling, Dale Braxton — 1st in State for boy's prose, and Buddy Wilkins — 1st in State in Boy's Extemporaneous.

The Horticulture Department takes time out to dig their shovels into Wilsons' ground and name it the "Trees of Virginia."

The band practices day in and day out to keep up their blue ribbon form.

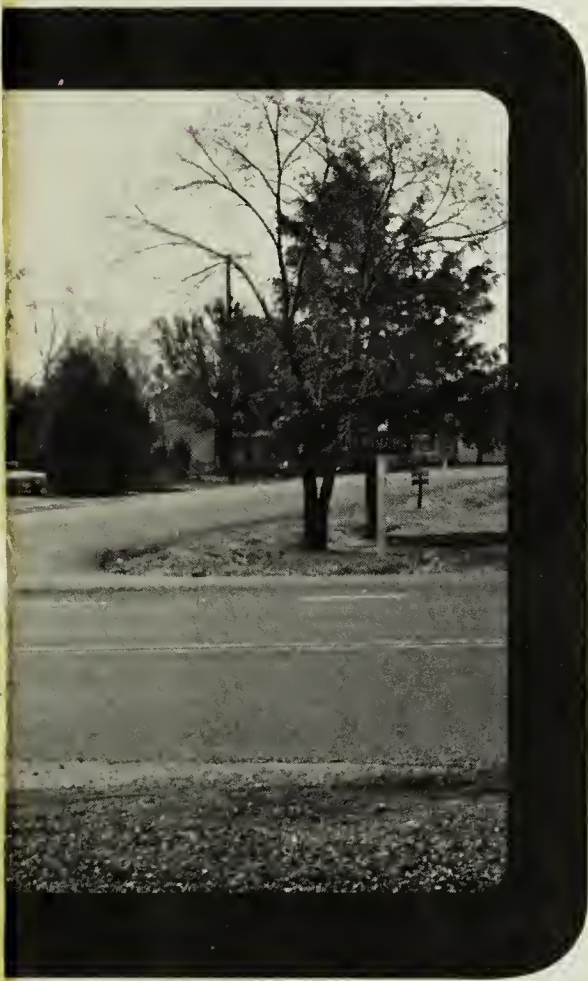

The District's top actress, Wendy Walters, tries to escape the company of the One Act Play cast.
